U.S. Planes Hit Targets In North Viet

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes knifed through overcast skies Monday on 76 missions against targets in North Vietnam, including another attack on the radio communications station 10 miles southeast of Hanoi.

One Air Force F4 Phantom was downed during the raids, a spokesman said, and the two crewmen are missing. It was the 808th U.S. combat plane announced lost in the air war against the Communist North.

Hanoi claimed two U.S. planes were shot down during Monday's raids.

Navy A6 Intruder pilots attacked the radio communications receiving station with 500-pound bombs, using their radar to attack through the 2,000-foot ceiling. They reported their bombs were on target and said they also hit a nearby antiaircraft missile site.

The radio station had been hit for the first time Feb. 10.

The American fighter-bombers ranged from the Yen Bai airfield 78 miles northwest of Hanoi to the southern panhandle with these other major targets: The Dong Trieu army barracks 46 miles northeast of Hanoi, the Nam Dinh barracks 45 miles southwest of Haiphong, the Ha Dong barracks 8 miles southwest of Hanoi, the Thanh Hoa thermal power plant and the Cam Pha transformer station.

Over South Vietnam, the Air Force's giant B52 bombers flew eight raids late Monday and today, including six against North Vietnamese troops ringing the U.S. Marines' Khe Sanh combat base in the northwestern corner of the country.

The bombs from the high-flying Stratofortresses crashed into suspected enemy positions within two miles of the besieged Marine base.

The other B52 strikes were against Viet Cong fortifications 25 miles northeast of Saigon and in the central coastal plains 270 miles northeast of Saigon.

The ground war dwindled into a lull for the first time since the Communist command launched the lunar new year offensive Jan. 31.

In the only ground action of any size reported Monday by the U.S. Command, troops of the 196th Light Infantry Brigade scored a lopsided victory in a 7½-hour coastal battle, killing 78 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese at a cost of only two Americans killed and 29 wounded.

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea said today it will deal with the captured crew of the USS Pueblo "leniently to a certain extent" if the United States "makes a due apology for its crimes and gives assurance against the recurrence of similar hostile acts."

The North Korean position was carried in a commentary broadcast by the official Pyongyang radio.

After repeating its charges that the Pueblo intruded into North Korean waters and committed acts of espionage, and citing "confessions" purported to have been made by its crew, the commentary went on: "The criminal acts perpetrated by the crew of the armed spy ship are grave. But heavier responsibility rests with the U.S. authorities which ordered them to conduct espionage and hostile acts against our country.

"Taking this into consideration, we may deal with the question as far as concerning the crew of the Pueblo leniently to a certain extent, if the U.S. side makes a due apology for its crimes and gives assurance against the recurrence of similar hostile acts. This is a stand for solving the question in a practical way, and there is a precedent for this."

The commentary did not say what the precedent was.

Argument Erupts On War Policy

Secretary Opposed To Giving Foe All Data At Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sharp dispute flared today between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Sen. J. W. Fulbright over whether Congress should have a voice in deciding on any major increase in the U.S. fighting force in Vietnam.

Rusk said he was opposed to "giving the enemy all the information that can be developed at public hearings."

"Nothing could be more valuable in Hanoi or Moscow," he added.

Fulbright countered that "I'm not interested in the tactics of this war."

He said his concern was policy and asked: "Are we now going to escalate this war?"

The exchange came in the second day of testimony by Rusk on war policy before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Fulbright, an Arkansas Democrat.

The session Monday produced intensive criticism of U.S. policy in Vietnam from a majority of committee members. Rusk stood firm on the administration views but said they were under review " from A to Z" in the wake of the recent Viet Cong offensive.

Fulbright reserved most of his questions for today and became embroiled in the dispute with Rusk moments after the hearing opened in the crowded hearing room.

Fulbright told the secretary: "The Senate should be informed fully of the policy this administration intends to follow."

He said the consultation

House Receives Rights Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has received a Senate-passed civil rights bill and an appeal from President Johnson to enact the measure which includes landmark open-housing and antiriot provisions.

House leaders met Monday night, a few hours after the Senate passed the bill 71 to 20, to map plans for getting the measure through to the President.

The House originally passed the administration bill as a measure concerned only with providing federal protection to Negroes and civil rights workers.

But after seven weeks of Senate debate, the new version provides:

—A ban on discrimination in the sale or rental of all housing except owner-occupied single-family homes sold without the aid of a broker, or portions of dwellings sheltering up to four families provided the owner retains residence. This would mean about 80 per cent of the nation's housing would be covered by 1970.

—Federal law against interference with Negroes and others in the exercise of specified rights, including voting, jury service and use of public accommodations.

—A federal law against crossing a state line and committing other acts to organize or aid in a riot and against involvement in the use or manufacture of guns and explosives for use in a riot.

The House must accept the Senate changes or seek a conference to reach a compromise version. The House also could delay action altogether.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee, and House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma met for 90 minutes Monday night with Speaker John W. McCormack on parliamentary maneuvers aimed at winning enactment.

In the Senate vote, 29 Republicans voted for the bill, while only 3 voted against it. Forty-two Democrats voted for it while 17 Democrats—all Southerners—opposed it.

42 Will Vie In Spelldown At Wellsville

Forty - two students from grades five through eight will compete Wednesday to determine the three who will represent the Wellsville school district at the countywide spelling bee in Lisbon April 10.

A champion, first and second runners-up and an alternate will be selected during the spelldown at 1 p.m. in the all-purpose room of MacDonald School.

The pronouncer will be the Rev. James D. Sanko of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Hazel Fraser, Mrs. Maxwell West and Mrs. Isabel R. Hart will be judges.

Contestants from Garfield, MacDonald, Fairview and Daw Junior High schools will vie for the trophies, which will be presented by William Ferrall, president of the Wellsville Board of Education.

The countywide bee will be held in David Anderson High School, Lisbon, April 10, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The last five spellers remaining in the countywide event will advance to regional competition at Canton. The Canton winner will be eligible for the national finals at Washington, D.C.

Union Spurns $1.07 Bid In Copper Strike

Renews Demands On Bargaining As Peace Hope Fades

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chances of a breakthrough soon in the 8-month-old copper strike have faded after union negotiators delayed action on a $1.07 per hour contract offer and renewed demands for company-wide bargaining.

The 40-month contract offer by Phelps Dodge Corp., one of four major strikebound copper firms, would have covered some 5,000 workers at its Arizona mines and El Paso, Tex., refinery, but not at its other operations in New York and Arkansas.

The offer, which Phelps Dodge termed the best ever made in the copper industry, was "neither accepted nor rejected at this time" by several hundred leaders of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers union. Copper workers were averaging $3.28 an hour when the strike started.

The Steelworkers set another meeting for Tuesday night and ordered its union negotiators to return to the bargaining table meanwhile to demand simultaneous contract expiration dates

McCarthy, Nixon Duel

Nation Watches Hampshire Vote

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — New Hampshire voted today with Richard M. Nixon's Republican prospects and Eugene J. McCarthy's Democratic protest—as well as his political bankroll—at stake in the nation's opening presidential primary.

The first trickle of ballots, from the ski country of the White Mountains, sent McCarthy and Nixon off ahead.

In the tiny village of Waterville Valley, there were 8 votes for McCarthy and 2 write-in votes for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. President Johnson didn't get a vote in that hamlet, where the ballots were cast moments after midnight.

Nixon received 8 Republican votes, there were 4 write-ins for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and 1 Republican wrote McCarthy's name on his ballot.

Even before the ballot casting began, Nixon acknowledged that "gamesmanship" would be a major factor in determining who were the winners and who the losers in the lead-off voting of the 1968 presidential race.

Nixon's only Republican challenge was the late-starting write-in move for Rockefeller and the only real question for the former vice president is the margin by which he runs ahead.

"I figure this," Nixon said, "if we win 2 to 1 I'll be happy."

There may have been a bit of gamesmanship in that. By forecasting Rockefeller would get 30 per cent or more of the vote,

Counsel Asks New Trial On Murder Case

Sentencing Held Up For Mrs. Zlatovich After New Move

A motion for a new trial was filed this morning in Beaver County Court for Mrs. Mary Zlatovich of Ohioville, who was convicted Friday afternoon of second degree murder in the 1964 slaying of her four children.

The court accepted the motion filed by Atty. Henry Albaugh, defense counsel, and ordered the testimony in the case transcribed. The defense then will have 30 days to file additional information for an appeal.

Albaugh cited the verdict compared to the weight of the evidence and the verdict compared to the law and said the jurors indicated a finding of insanity was disregarded because they feared she would be freed in a year or so. He said this is a compromise verdict.

The maximum sentence for second degree murder is 20

3 To 5 Inches Of Snow Due For Tri-State

The Ohio weatherman issued a "heavy snow warning" this morning and forecast that 3 to 5 inches of the white stuff will have fallen in the tri - state district when the storm ends late tonight or early Wednesday.

Two to three inches of snow already had accumulated in suburban areas at dawn.

But the snow halted locally before mid - morning and an appraisal of East Liverpool area conditions indicated the accumulation had ended — barring a drop in the temperature. The mercury stood at 30 most of the morning and the downtown area experienced intermittent light rain.

Snow began to fall in downtown East Liverpool at 2:30 a. m. Police summoned street department ashing and salt crews at 3:10 when the snow began to slick pavements.

The weatherman's "heavy snow" warning affects virtually all of Ohio except the southeast portion. Generally speaking, 3 to 5 inches are forcast for all other sections. The same forecast applies to Western Pennsylvania and the Hancock County area of West Virginia. Southeast Ohio will see rain mixed with snow, but no accumulation is forecast.

The mercury will drop to a low of 24 to 30 tonight, the forecast said. Wednesday will be cloudy and cool, followed by a clearing trend.

Ashing and salt crews were called out throughout the tri-state region this morning before dawn to help clear streets and highways. Since the snow was wet, it posed a particular skidding hazard before the crews went to work.

After Censorship Of Play

Rioting Polish Students Battle Police For 7 Hours

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Lights burned late in the Polish Communist party headquarters Monday night after student unrest over censorship of a play mushroomed into Poland's worst riot since 1957.

The gray, slit-windowed party headquarters was one target of several thousand demonstrators who fought running battles with police on downtown streets for seven hours Monday, the third day of disturbances.

Party workers watched from the windows as the students hurled rocks, sticks and bottles at police ringing the building and shouted "Gestapo!", "Democracy!" "Freedom!" and "Constitution."

Police finally drove the demonstrators away with tear gas, rubber truncheons and a water cannon.

Stefan Cardinal Wyszynsky, Poland's Roman Catholic primate and long an opponent of the Communist regime, canceled a sermon at St. Ann's Church near the university to "avoid worsening the situation," a spokesman said.

By nightfall, a nervous calm prevailed. Police cars cruised downtown streets littered with bricks, glass and spent tear gas canisters, and guarded against looters at stores with smashed windows.

Censorship also touched off three days of rioting in 1937 as young people demonstrated against the closing of a student magazine.

The current unrest began with the government's closing in January of a 19th century classic Polish play about the czarist oppression of Poland. About 200 students demonstrated then and two later were expelled from Warsaw University.

2 Men Put On Probation For Planning Cock Fight

LISBON — Preparations for the staging of a cock fight in a secluded area near Elkton were halted Saturday with the arrest of two young men who were placed on probation at a hearing at East Palestine Monday.

Clarence Jones and Richard Reese of East Liverpool RD 3 posted $100 bonds before County Judge Barry Dickson yesterday and placed on one - year probation.

An anonymous letter led Sheriff's deputies to the site Saturday.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan was at the fight barn late in the afternoon and arrested the two who he said were making preparations for the fight. Both admitted yesterday that they were getting ready to stage a cock fight.

The Sheriff's affidavit accused them of "being about to violate the law as to cockfights and the pitting of one animal against another."

The Sheriff said he checked land records at the Courthouse and found that Jones and Reese acquired the property in February. He said he believes the men have been staging weekly fights since in a newly - constructed frame building with tarpaper sides. A furnace was installed and the men were heating the building when the Sheriff arrived.

He said he received an anonymous letter Wednesday from a woman who complained that her husband was losing money at chicken fights. She said she did not know the location.

The Sheriff received a tip there was to be a fight Saturday night, and he and deputies finally located the building off Route 154 about one - half mile north of Elkton. He said the building was not visible from the road, and was reached by a long lane.

Secretary Opposed To Giving Foe All Data At Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sharp dispute flared today between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Sen. J. W. Fulbright over whether Congress should have a voice in deciding on any major increase in the U.S. fighting force in Vietnam.

Rusk said he was opposed to "giving the enemy all the information that can be developed at public hearings."

"Nothing could be more valuable in Hanoi or Moscow," he added.

Fulbright countered that "I'm not interested in the tactics of this war."

He said his concern was policy and asked: "Are we now going to escalate this war?"

The exchange came in the second day of testimony by Rusk on war policy before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Fulbright, an Arkansas Democrat.

The session Monday produced intensive criticism of U.S. policy in Vietnam from a majority of committee members. Rusk stood firm on the administration views but said they were under review " from A to Z" in the wake of the recent Viet Cong offensive.

Fulbright reserved most of his questions for today and became embroiled in the dispute with Rusk moments after the hearing opened in the crowded hearing room.

Fulbright told the secretary: "The Senate should be informed fully of the policy this administration intends to follow."

He said the consultation

3 To 5 Inches Of Snow Due For Tri-State

The Ohio weatherman issued a "heavy snow warning" this morning and forecast that 3 to 5 inches of the white stuff will have fallen in the tri - state district when the storm ends late tonight or early Wednesday.

Two to three inches of snow already had accumulated in suburban areas at dawn.

But the snow halted locally before mid - morning and an appraisal of East Liverpool area conditions indicated the accumulation had ended — barring a drop in the temperature. The mercury stood at 30 most of the morning and the downtown area experienced intermittent light rain.

Snow began to fall in downtown East Liverpool at 2:30 a. m. Police summoned street department ashing and salt crews at 3:10 when the snow began to slick pavements.

The weatherman's "heavy snow" warning affects virtually all of Ohio except the southeast portion. Generally speaking, 3 to 5 inches are forcast for all other sections. The same forecast applies to Western Pennsylvania and the Hancock County area of West Virginia. Southeast Ohio will see rain mixed with snow, but no accumulation is forecast.

The mercury will drop to a low of 24 to 30 tonight, the forecast said. Wednesday will be cloudy and cool, followed by a clearing trend.

Ashing and salt crews were called out throughout the tri-state region this morning before dawn to help clear streets and highways. Since the snow was wet, it posed a particular skidding hazard before the crews went to work.

Beaver Bar Plans Spring Dance Event

Plans have been announced by the Beaver County Bar Association for the annual spring dinner-dance March 22 at the Beaver County Country Club.

Charles M. Marshall of Beaver and Joseph S. Walko of Ambridge outlined the plans at a recent meeting of the association. Frank A. Suffoletta is president.

The association also agreed to participate in an educational seminar planned March 30 at the Holiday Inn in Butler by the Butler Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

Comparative examinations, summations and jury verdicts will be among the topics discussed by the panelists. John D. Ray of Beaver has been selected to demonstrate comparative direct examination.

The committee on Courthouse improvement has been directed to develop specific suggestions so the association can coordinate its ideas with the Beaver County commissioners and the Planning Commission. Tentative expansion plans at the Courthouse call for improvement of library facilities, Courtroom and auxiliary rooms and county administration facilities.

Laneve Is Named To Jaycee Board

Vincent Laneve has been named to fill an unexpired term on the Board of Directors of the East Liverpool Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The appointment was announced by Frank Moss, president, during a board meeting Monday night in the Chamber of Commerce offices. Laneve will complete the term of Robert Lewis, resigned.

Four new members were approved. They are: Jay R. Williams a teacher; Jerry Woodburn, an employe of Waterford Park; James Nentwick of Sears-Roebuck, and Lloyd Stockdale, basketball coach at Beaver Local High School.

The Jaycee-ettes will sponsor a dance March 30 at the Inn Town Motel from 10 p. m. to 2 a. m.

The proposed bylaw change will be considered during the next membership meeting March 25 at the motel at 6:30.

The next board meeting will be April 8.

The first blood center of the American Red Cross opened in Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 12, 1948.

Granges Set Talent Show

SALEM — Bayard Grange in West Township will be host June 14 for a district talent festival for Grangers from Columbiana, Mahoning, Stark, Carroll, Jefferson, Harrison and Tuscarawas counties.

Announcement was made at the County Grange bi-monthly officers' conference Monday night at Willow Grove Grange. Charles L. Morlan of Mt. Nebo Grange, county grange deputy, was in charge. Thirty-seven representatives from nine granges attended.

Willow Grove, headed by Donald Sanor, master, was in charge of the opening and closing.

Mrs. Morlan, junior grange deputy, met with junior matrons and patrons and made plans for "County Junior Night" June 10 at Butler Grange. They also discussed plans for the proposed Junior Pomona Grange.

The Junior Grange prince and princess contest for young people 16 to 22 will be held in July.

The county Demeter Club will have William Brake, national Grange lecturer, as speaker May 27. The site will be announced.

Morlan announced that the state Grange legislative conference for Pomona legislative agents will be held March 30 at Columbus.

Willow Grove served refreshments.

New Highway Projects Are To Be Discussed

Beaver County has had an estimated $82.5 million in highway improvement project approved since the first Pennsylvania Highways Commission program was announced in July 1965. This includes projects to be completed or under construction through 1973.

Additional projects for the 1974-75 period will be added to the continuous six - year highway improvement program at a public hearing Wednesday in Pittsburgh. The hearing will be for Allegheny and Beaver counties. The current six - year program for both counties totals $440.4 million.

The session will be at the Highways District Office on Greenree Rd. District Engineering William S. Stephens will assist, according to Robert G. Bartlett, secretary of highways.

In Beaver County, the commission approved projects totaling an estimated $61.6 million in 1965. A year ago 11 projects were added comprising 35 miles of highway at an estimated cost of $20.9 million.

In addition, the commission approved 24 hazard elimination projects carrying a $6.679 million price tag. These, plus additional improvements, however, cannot be scheduled until the General Assembly enacts proposed revenue - raising measures recommended by the commission.

Currently there are 615 miles of state maintained highways in the county.

During the past fiscal year, which ended last June 30, highway expenditures in Beaver County totaled $13,542,670. This included construction, maintenance, equipment, service operations and administration.

Yearly expenditures average about $11.3 million for the county since 1960. During the 1950s the yearly average was about $6.9 million.

"Revenue is derived entirely from highway user fees," said Highways Secretary Robert G. Bartlett. "Those who own and operate vehicles are paying the bill."

Funds for Pennsylvania's vast new highways program primarily are obtained through the sale of motor vehicle license, taxes from the sale of gasoline for vehicles and titling fees imposed upon the value of vehicles when originally titled.

Other funds obtained include federal aid through federal highway user fees and state highways and bridge authority borrowing.

Boy To Be Arraigned

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)— An 18-year-old Painesville youth arrested Monday on narcotics charges was to be arraigned in municipal court today.

Roy E. Smith was arrested by Lake County sheriff's deputies on a charge of possessing marijuana for sale.

It was the 15th arrest resulting from an eight-month investigation into narcotics traffic and use in Lake County.

coastal plains near Tam Ky, 113 miles southeast of the DMZ.

The GIs called in reinforcements and jet fighter-bombers to stagger the enemy for the second time in three days in the area. On Saturday American infantrymen killed 129 enemy troops near Tam Ky; no Americans were killed and only 18 wounded.

The South Vietnamese 2nd Regiment was battered by enemy artillery and rifle fire Monday in a pocket of scrub-brush country six miles south of the DMZ near the U.S. Marine outpost at Dong Ha.

The day before, the South Vietnamese troops cornered a North Vietnamese battalion of about 600 men north of Dong Ha and reported killing 102 of them in an eight-hour fight. South Vietnamese troops maneuvering between Dong Ha and the DMZ have reported eight stiff encounters in the past two weeks.

To the west, North Vietnamese troops encircling Khe Sanh uurled 150 more rounds of mortar, artillery and rocket fire into the Marine combat base Monday. Light casualties were reported.

South Koreans forces in Vietnam have killed 1,759 Viet Cong since the start of the Communists' lunar new year offensive on Jan. 30, a Korean spokesman said today. No Korean bases were attacked during the urban offensive, a Korean report showed, but Korean troops helped repel attacks on several cities and launched operations to counter the enemy offensive.

Budget Approved By Water Board

SALINEVILLE — A budget of $30,285 for 1968 was set during a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs here Monday night.

The appropriation request, a decrease from the 31,338 approved in 1967 when new machinery and a pick - up truck were purchased, will be submitted to Council Wednesday, Ernest Madison, water department superintendent, reported.

Bills totaling $879 were paid. The next meeting will be March 25.

City Woman Penalized For $4.97 Store Theft

Arlene Fay Canton, 21, of 1914 Michigan Ave. was fined $200 and costs by County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine Monday on a charge of petty larceny.

She was cited Feb. 29 by special constable Lester McElhaney at Hill's Department Store in Calcutta for taking a pair of slacks valued at $4.97. The judge suspended a 3-day jail term.

Chester Adopts Record Budget For Fiscal 1968

The highest budget in Chester's history — $71,484 — has been set up for the 1968-69 fiscal year, which will begin July 1.

They represent an increase of $3,830 over the $67,654 of 1967-68.

Hood attributed the boost primarily to Council - approved wage increases in virtually all departments, effective July 1 along with increased operating expenses.

The largest street appropriation in the city's history is also included as a result of incomplete work on last year's street program.

Some $7,500 was allotted for new street work last year, but a shortage of slag supplies prevented the work.

With $10,500 included this year, the total street program will be $18,000. Plans call for completion of the last year program now that slag is available, and meetings with Council candidates to work out an acceptable street improvement program with this year's funds.

Clerk, $600 ($450); treasurer, $600 ($450); city attorney, $600 (same); councilmen, $600 (same); police chief and two patrolmen, $14,300 ($12,500); police expenses, $2,500 ($2,000); fire department, $3,000 ($2,900); janitor and supplies, $2,600 ($2,500); repairs to the jail and city building, $1,000 ($1,500); office supplies, $200 :$244); postage, $44 ($40); water, fire protection, $3,600 (same); water, city building, $100 (same); street lights, $3,900 ($3,600); city building and traffic lights, $1,500 (same); fuel, city building, $1,800 (same); telephones and telegraphs, $400 ($460); legal publications, $100 (same); insurance on city building and other property, $4,600 ($5,100); election expenses, none ($600); street department, salaries and wages. $8,600 ($8,000); street department, new equipment, none ($3,300); street department, materials and supplies, $6,000 ($5,000); new construction - streets, sidewalks and sewers, $10,500 ($7,500); workman's compensation premiums $400 (same); audit by tax commissioner, $300 (none — $150 was appropriated for the 1967-68 audit, but the audit wasn't made, Hood stated.); Social Security, $2,500 ($2,100); contingent expenses $240 ($280). No funds were allotted to the park and playgrounds either for the coming fiscal year or last, Hood said.

The city will receive $28,484 of the budget through tax collections from the sheriff's office. The amount is an increase of $1,700 over last year's. Property valuation has increased $231,800 from the previous year ($8,768,150) resulting in a total valuation of $8,999,950.

The remaining $43,000 revenue will be obtained from other sources, Hood indicated. The estimate shows this year's income —with the previous year's in parenthesis: balance - on-hand, $1,000 (same); balance - on - hand, Sheriff's department, $2,000 (same); police fines and costs, $3,000 (same); rents, buildings, $1,800 (same); capitation and dog taxes $2,000 (same); city utility $14,000 ($13,500); liquor $7,300 ($5,500); driver licenses $3,400 (same); general licenses $8,000 ($7,500); and miscellaneous $500 ($1,200).

Hood reminded all Chester area residents to renew fire bonds to insure fire protection for their property.

Court Suspends Driver's Permit In 85-Mile Pace

William E. Cain, 21, of Lincoln Ave. was fined $20 and costs and given a 15-day suspension of his operator's permit today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the city section of the Freeway.

Cain was cited March 1 at 7:25 p. m. by Patrolman Dwight Garvey, who told the court he saw Cain driving north on the four - lane highway at a high rate of speed, "weaving in and out of traffic."

James R. Brenneman of 1609 Alpha St., cited Thursday on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on Pennsylvania Ave., was fined $15 and costs after pleading guilty. He also was fined $10 and costs for operating an auto with a faulty muffler.

Anna Van Culp, 31, of 1917 Nevada St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of speeding 62 miles an hour Saturday in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. Lewis E. Snyder, 23, of Toronto RD 2 forfeited $32.50 on a charge of improper auto registration. He was cited Monday afternoon on Route 7 by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

Homer Cupp, 40, of 108 9th St., Wellsville, was given a suspended $10 fine and ordered to pay court costs on a charge of operating an unsafe car. He was cited by the patrol March 2 on Route 170.

New Highway Projects Are To Be Discussed

Beaver County has had an estimated $82.5 million in highway improvement project approved since the first Pennsylvania Highways Commission program was announced in July 1965. This includes projects to be completed or under construction through 1973.

Additional projects for the 1974-75 period will be added to the continuous six - year highway improvement program at a public hearing Wednesday in Pittsburgh. The hearing will be for Allegheny and Beaver counties. The current six - year program for both counties totals $440.4 million.

The session will be at the Highways District Office on Greenree Rd. District Engineering William S. Stephens will assist, according to Robert G. Bartlett, secretary of highways.

In Beaver County, the commission approved projects totaling an estimated $61.6 million in 1965. A year ago 11 projects were added comprising 35 miles of highway at an estimated cost of $20.9 million.

In addition, the commission approved 24 hazard elimination projects carrying a $6.679 million price tag. These, plus additional improvements, however, cannot be scheduled until the General Assembly enacts proposed revenue - raising measures recommended by the commission.

Currently there are 615 miles of state maintained highways in the county.

During the past fiscal year, which ended last June 30, highway expenditures in Beaver County totaled $13,542,670. This included construction, maintenance, equipment, service operations and administration.

Yearly expenditures average about $11.3 million for the county since 1960. During the 1950s the yearly average was about $6.9 million.

"Revenue is derived entirely from highway user fees," said Highways Secretary Robert G. Bartlett. "Those who own and operate vehicles are paying the bill."

Funds for Pennsylvania's vast new highways program primarily are obtained through the sale of motor vehicle license, taxes from the sale of gasoline for vehicles and titling fees imposed upon the value of vehicles when originally titled.

Other funds obtained include federal aid through federal highway user fees and state highways and bridge authority borrowing.

Boy To Be Arraigned

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)— An 18-year-old Painesville youth arrested Monday on narcotics charges was to be arraigned in municipal court today.

Roy E. Smith was arrested by Lake County sheriff's deputies on a charge of possessing marijuana for sale.

It was the 15th arrest resulting from an eight-month investigation into narcotics traffic and use in Lake County.

coastal plains near Tam Ky, 113 miles southeast of the DMZ.

The GIs called in reinforcements and jet fighter-bombers to stagger the enemy for the second time in three days in the area. On Saturday American infantrymen killed 129 enemy troops near Tam Ky; no Americans were killed and only 18 wounded.

The South Vietnamese 2nd Regiment was battered by enemy artillery and rifle fire Monday in a pocket of scrub-brush country six miles south of the DMZ near the U.S. Marine outpost at Dong Ha.

The day before, the South Vietnamese troops cornered a North Vietnamese battalion of about 600 men north of Dong Ha and reported killing 102 of them in an eight-hour fight. South Vietnamese troops maneuvering between Dong Ha and the DMZ have reported eight stiff encounters in the past two weeks.

To the west, North Vietnamese troops encircling Khe Sanh uurled 150 more rounds of mortar, artillery and rocket fire into the Marine combat base Monday. Light casualties were reported.

South Koreans forces in Vietnam have killed 1,759 Viet Cong since the start of the Communists' lunar new year offensive on Jan. 30, a Korean spokesman said today. No Korean bases were attacked during the urban offensive, a Korean report showed, but Korean troops helped repel attacks on several cities and launched operations to counter the enemy offensive.

Budget Approved By Water Board

The appropriation request, a decrease from the 31,338 approved in 1967 when new machinery and a pick - up truck were purchased, will be submitted to Council Wednesday, Ernest Madison, water department superintendent, reported.

Bills totaling $879 were paid. The next meeting will be March 25.

City Woman Penalized For $4.97 Store Theft

Arlene Fay Canton, 21, of 1914 Michigan Ave. was fined $200 and costs by County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine Monday on a charge of petty larceny.

She was cited Feb. 29 by special constable Lester McElhaney at Hill's Department Store in Calcutta for taking a pair of slacks valued at $4.97. The judge suspended a 3-day jail term.

Chester Adopts Record Budget For Fiscal 1968

The highest budget in Chester's history — $71,484 — has been set up for the 1968-69 fiscal year, which will begin July 1.

They represent an increase of $3,830 over the $67,654 of 1967-68.

Hood attributed the boost primarily to Council - approved wage increases in virtually all departments, effective July 1 along with increased operating expenses.

The largest street appropriation in the city's history is also included as a result of incomplete work on last year's street program.

Some $7,500 was allotted for new street work last year, but a shortage of slag supplies prevented the work.

With $10,500 included this year, the total street program will be $18,000. Plans call for completion of the last year program now that slag is available, and meetings with Council candidates to work out an acceptable street improvement program with this year's funds.

Clerk, $600 ($450); treasurer, $600 ($450); city attorney, $600 (same); councilmen, $600 (same); police chief and two patrolmen, $14,300 ($12,500); police expenses, $2,500 ($2,000); fire department, $3,000 ($2,900); janitor and supplies, $2,600 ($2,500); repairs to the jail and city building, $1,000 ($1,500); office supplies, $200 :$244); postage, $44 ($40); water, fire protection, $3,600 (same); water, city building, $100 (same); street lights, $3,900 ($3,600); city building and traffic lights, $1,500 (same); fuel, city building, $1,800 (same); telephones and telegraphs, $400 ($460); legal publications, $100 (same); insurance on city building and other property, $4,600 ($5,100); election expenses, none ($600); street department, salaries and wages. $8,600 ($8,000); street department, new equipment, none ($3,300); street department, materials and supplies, $6,000 ($5,000); new construction - streets, sidewalks and sewers, $10,500 ($7,500); workman's compensation premiums $400 (same); audit by tax commissioner, $300 (none — $150 was appropriated for the 1967-68 audit, but the audit wasn't made, Hood stated.); Social Security, $2,500 ($2,100); contingent expenses $240 ($260). No funds were allotted to the park and playgrounds either for the coming fiscal year or last, Hood said.

The city will receive $28,484 of the budget through tax collections from the sheriff's office. The amount is an increase of $1,700 over last year's. Property valuation has increased $231,800 from the previous year ($8,768,150) resulting in a total valuation of $8,999,950.

The Gold Pool Helps Out

It looks as if the United States and other members of the London gold pool have purchased a little more time for American action to shore up the dollar and protect the international monetary system.

Following an announcement in London that the United States and the six European members of the pool were standing together to hold the gold price at $35 an ounce, buying dropped off sharply in London.

But in Paris, buying continues at a record high pace. In Zurich, buying is showing no sign of subsiding.

Speculators are confident they can make a killing in the world gold market by buying at the present price and selling when the price goes up.

They are certain the United States cannot protect the gold price with its dwindling supply and its unhealthy balance-of-payments situation.

The assistance and support of Britain, West Germany, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Italy and Belgium are welcome but it is going to take a resolute effort on the part of the United States to hold the line on the gold price.

William M. Martin, chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve Board, attended a meeting of Swiss central bankers over the weekend to push for renewed backing of the United States and the dollar.

He achieved his purpose but it is believed that to do so he pledged stringent domestic monetary policies.

That would mean a tax increase, higher interest rates or a firm attack on the balance-of-payments deficit. It could mean a combination of the three.

Officials working with the money crisis believe whatever steps are necessary must be taken to keep the price of gold stable. They fear a fluctuating price would destroy the international monetary system.

The tragedy of the gold crisis is that it could have been avoided by more astute leadership in Washington.

A tax increase would be in effect already if the Johnson administration had not been adamant about a congressional request for a reduction in federal spending.

The balance-of-payments deficit was ignored until a crisis developed, then juvenile administration attempts to curb the situation have made the problem worse.

The backing by Western European nations gives the United States additional time to shape up its financial policies — but not much. The economic future of this nation and others depends on how wisely that time is used.

11 Days Of Wasted Time

At that time, the board pointed out the strike was against state law and collective bargaining was an uncertain responsibility of the board which it sought to have clarified in the courts.

After 11 days of picketing, partial sessions of school and disruption of the education process, the striking teachers have gone back to classes on an understanding that legislation be provided for collective bargaining.

Which puts the problem right back where it was originally — in the legislature and in the courts — where it could have best been solved without public reaction against teachers, without loss of learning by students, without loss of money for the union members and without a serious loss of prestige for the teachers.

Prestige doesn't pay for the meal ticket, it is said. But failure to live up to contracts, ignoring state law and court orders, and depriving students of what is rightfully theirs was not justified by the PFT move, especially in the light of what was achieved—practically nothing except a waste of time and money.

If teachers are to get what is properly theirs in the economic balance of modern life, it is hoped they will earn it with strong but rational and meaningful efforts rather than in pointless power plays designed to create crises.

The Chuck-fink

Today's unexpected snow has made even tri-state area birds hawkish about the perfidy of Fredericktown Phil, the ever-groggy groundhog who six weeks ago declared winter dead.

Robins and cardinals joined together to stamp out in the snow on a St. Clair Ave. lawn "Impeach Fred P." Sparrows flew a formation reading, "Phil is a gas company agent" and the woodpeckers carved on a utility pole, "$5 bounty for woodchucks."

Letters To The Editor

(The Letters to the Editor column is for expressions of opinion by readers on current issues. All letters must be signed and include address of the sender, but names will be withheld upon request. Because of space limitations, letters should be brief or of moderate length.)

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

As Chief of the Chester Volunteer Fire Department, I wish to express my congratulations to the officers and men of the East Liverpool Fire Department for the professional manner in which they conducted fire - fighting operations at the recent fire in the Diamond.

The placement of equipment and the use of available manpower and equipment showed a high degree of efficiency and dedication. This proficiency does not come about overnight, but is the result of serious consideration of the various aspects of fire service, dedication to duty and just plain hard work.

If the citizens of East Liverpool can find any pleasure in the midst of a major emergency of this type, it must be the fact that they have available to them a fire department of this nature. They are indeed fortunate.

ALTON L. JOHNSON, Chief
Chester Volunteer Fire Department

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We want to thank the East Liverpool Fire and Police Departments for the excellent manner in which they saved East Liverpool from a major disaster. Also we would like to thank the surrounding area fire departments for volunteering to come to our aid.

It is when something of this nature happens that we realize just how lucky we are to have such fine firemen and policemen.

In another light, though, we can see that if it had not been for the other fire departments, volunteering to help, there now might be a gutted business district. This is why we are supporting the cry for reciprocity. Let us not be the ones who refise to go to someone's aid when we are called.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The officers and members of The Alfred H. Wedgewood Post 374 American Legion, Dept. of Ohio, commend the East Liverpool High School and the R. O. T. C. Unit for the fine manner in which the flag of our country has been presented at the home basketball games this year.

This is indeed a fine display of Americanism and quite an impressive ceremony and something that our school and the R. O. T. C. can be justly proud of and will be well remembered by the people attending.

Congratulations for a job well done.

Red Power

By Art Buchwald

Belsky, my Negro friend, was not impressed with the riot report that Gov. Kerner and his commission have issued.

"The trouble with the riot report," said Belsky, "is that there was no Communist threat implied in it."

Art Buchwald

"What on earth do you mean, Belsky?" I said.

"Congress isn't going to act on a report that doesn't have a Commie threat in it," Belsky said.

"But there were warnings in the report of riots and turmoil unless something is done about the ghettos."

"It's not the same thing," Belsky said. "You can talk about threats, frustration, inequities, poverty, joblessness and anything you want to, but nobody is going to take notice unless you have a Communist menace thrown in somewhere."

"But that doesn't sound right," I said.

"LOOK, MAN, we're spending hundreds of millions of dollars each day out there in Vietnam to win the hearts and minds of people we don't even know or understand. Why? Because they are being threatened by communism. Every time the President goes to Congress and says 'I've got to have a few billion dollars more, or else the Commies are going to take over that poor little country,' wham — he gets the money."

"Of course, and he should. You don't want to fight communism on the shores of Hawaii, do you?" I said.

"No sir. But what I'm trying to say is that you aren't going to get any action in this country until you can prove that the Commies are fighting to win the hearts and minds of the black people. You get that message over to Congress and they're not going to filibuster very long."

"Then you think if the Negro could prove that there is an international conspiracy to win over the Negroes to godless communism, we might start a crash program to improve the conditions of the ghettos?" I asked.

"I'm sure of it. America can live with poor people, it can live with jobless people, it can even live with angry people, but it can't live with Communist people. If the Negroes say to the Establishment, 'Hey, fellows, we got a Red threat in this here ghetto and we need some dollars to straighten it out,' there would be so many Brinks trucks trying to deliver the money that there would be a traffic jam."

"IT SOUNDS good on paper, but would Congress go for it? After all, it's one thing to have a threat 10,000 miles away and help people out there to improve their standard of living. But if you start doing the same thing in your own country, you're going to get an awful lot of people mad at you."

"I dig," Belsky said. "But the best record the United States has since World War II is in helping out any country threatened with communism. When we make a commitment to a country to prevent it from going Communist, we honor it, no matter how much money it's going to cost. Now if the Negroes and the white do-gooders would stop talking about all the social ills in the ghettos, and just harp on the theme that all the black people in this country want is to keep from going Communist, the white people are going to take a second look at this problem."

"You bet your life it would make them sit up. You go to Congress during an election year and talk about 'Red Power' instead of 'Black Power' and even George Wallace is going to be scared."

"Belsky, you may have hit on something. As a white American, I have nothing against black ghettos, but I sure wouldn't want to live in a country with Red ghettos."

"It's understandable," Belsky said. "Nobody wants to have a Commie living next door."

Purely Personal Observations

An old friend wonders why minorities do not like to be pointed out as Jews, Negroes, Italians, Puerto Ricans etc., because they want to be thought of as Americans, yet when an appointive office is up for grabs they claim it on a basis of their minority identity. Hm, old friend . . . hm.

When unruly foreigners kill one another over a soccer game, we cringe. But is anything likelier to push the mayhem button than a basketball game right here in God Bless America, with whistle-tooters bustling around calling "fouls" on heroes and villains alike?.

Look Magazine's diary of a Negro soldier in Vietnam will add fuel to resentment against loud-mouth white racists who insult and abuse Negroes whenever and whereever they can — even at death's door in battles for personal survival in a foreign country.

I have a wonderful idea. Why don't we hire Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap away from North Vietnam? He knocked off the French at Dienbienphu and is figuring to do likewise to the United States. He must have something going for him, because he has no air force worth mentioning, scarcely any tanks and does the whole thing with half-starved kids, pint-sized men, even women.

I have to chuckle over the early-bird ads for suburban-type tractors — the modern man's grownup toy — the status symbol par excellence — the best way yet to keep Rover Boy off the streets and out of the pool halls, as we used to say.

It has been suggested to me that I have reached an age when it would be fun for me to play bridge again, a game I fooled with when I was young, but I have brushed the suggestion aside. DAVID LAWRENCE

Buy Off Russia

Can the Vietnam War be ended this year? The answer doesn't depend on how many more troops are sent or on what the outcome of the U. S. election may be. It is directly related to Soviet government policy toward Vietnam, as well as the readiness of the United States government to enter into a diplomatic negotiation with Moscow.

If President Johnson arranged to meet with the Soviet premier somewhere in Europe — possibly in Switzerland — and the foreign secretaries of each government and a staff of advisers were to attend a conference called for the purpose of settling the Vietnam War, a movement toward a joint presentation of peace terms to the North and South Vietnamese governments could get under way in a few weeks. A settlement could be reached not long afterwards.

KEY TO THE success of such a project does not rest altogether with Hanoi. An agreement is dependent primarily on the kind of plan America could present for the rehabilitation and development not only of Vietnam but other Asian countries.

If the United States were to save at least $20 billion a year by cessation of fighting in Vietnam, the use of even a portion of that sum for economic and sociological purposes in Southeast Asia would be much less of a burden than the continuance of a war budget of present proportions.

What would Russia get out of such a settlement?

This is the most delicate phase of all. But it is no secret that the Kremlin is anxious to improve its relations with the United States. Also, the $6 billion a year now being spent by the Soviet Union to help North Vietnam could be used for the economic improvement of its own people.

A peace conference that opened the way for a better relationship between the East and the West would mean a great deal to the Soviet Union. The Soviet people are anxious to have all threats of war removed and to see their government get started on a constructive program to raise living standards.

One factor that has to be considered is a way to bring Red China into the conference. Certainly the Peking regime is spending money and sending each year large shipments of war supplies to North Vietnam.

This is expensive, and the people of Red China have had no assurance that the expenditures will in the long run result in any lasting benefits.

Diplomacy has ways of taking up delicate matters of international friction and bringing them to the peace table. Certainly the Vietnam War gives every indication of being prolonged for many years unless some agreement can be reached by the Soviets, the Americans and the Red Chinese.

One thing has not been made plain but is essential to the initiation of peace conference. It is that the United States is committed to an indefinite stay in Vietnam, notwithstanding voices of dissent at home which have raised hopes of an American withdrawl either under the Johnson administration or a new president.

If the Soviets became convinced that no such retreat is likely, they would be glad to find a method of extricating themselves from the Vietnam dilemma and building a new bridge between the United States and the Soviet Union.

THE KREMLIN has repeatedly proclaimed its desire to advance the cause of world peace. The Soviet government would find it difficult to turn down a bid for a joint conference dealing not just with the Vietnam problem but also with future relations of the Soviet Union and the United States.

Peace has again and again been preserved through channels of international diplomacy. This cannot, however, be accomplished by public statements that intensify hostile feelings.

The issues must be presented privately beforehand through knowledgeable and tactful diplomats in unpublicized meetings.

If this does not succeed, the United States can then reveal the nature of its efforts and hope for world opinion to be mobilized behind further steps to achieve the objectives of the peace plan.

The Gold Pool Helps Out

It looks as if the United States and other members of the London gold pool have purchased a little more time for American action to shore up the dollar and protect the international monetary system.

Following an announcement in London that the United States and the six European members of the pool were standing together to hold the gold price at $35 an ounce, buying dropped off sharply in London.

But in Paris, buying continues at a record high pace. In Zurich, buying is showing no sign of subsiding.

Speculators are confident they can make a killing in the world gold market by buying at the present price and selling when the price goes up.

They are certain the United States cannot protect the gold price with its dwindling supply and its unhealthy balance-of-payments situation.

The assistance and support of Britain, West Germany, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Italy and Belgium are welcome but it is going to take a resolute effort on the part of the United States to hold the line on the gold price.

William M. Martin, chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve Board, attended a meeting of Swiss central bankers over the weekend to push for renewed backing of the United States and the dollar.

He achieved his purpose but it is believed that to do so he pledged stringent domestic monetary policies.

That would mean a tax increase, higher interest rates or a firm attack on the balance-of-payments deficit. It could mean a combination of the three.

Officials working with the money crisis believe whatever steps are necessary must be taken to keep the price of gold stable. They fear a fluctuating price would destroy the international monetary system.

The tragedy of the gold crisis is that it could have been avoided by more astute leadership in Washington.

A tax increase would be in effect already if the Johnson administration had not been adamant about a congressional request for a reduction in federal spending.

The balance-of-payments deficit was ignored until a crisis developed, then juvenile administration attempts to curb the situation have made the problem worse.

The backing by Western European nations gives the United States additional time to shape up its financial policies — but not much. The economic future of this nation and others depends on how wisely that time is used.

11 Days Of Wasted Time

Twelve days ago members of the Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers left their classroom duties and went on strike, seeking collective bargaining rights from the Pittsburgh board of education.

At that time, the board pointed out the strike was against state law and collective bargaining was an uncertain responsibility of the board which it sought to have clarified in the courts.

After 11 days of picketing, partial sessions of school and disruption of the education process, the striking teachers have gone back to classes on an understanding that legislation be provided for collective bargaining.

Which puts the problem right back where it was originally — in the legislature and in the courts — where it could have best been solved without public reaction against teachers, without loss of learning by students, without loss of money for the union members and without a serious loss of prestige for the teachers.

Prestige doesn't pay for the meal ticket, it is said. But failure to live up to contracts, ignoring state law and court orders, and depriving students of what is rightfully theirs was not justified by the PFT move, especially in the light of what was achieved—practically nothing except a waste of time and money.

If teachers are to get what is properly theirs in the economic balance of modern life, it is hoped they will earn it with strong but rational and meaningful efforts rather than in pointless power plays designed to create crises.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

As Chief of the Chester Volunteer Fire Department, I wish to express my congratulations to the officers and men of the East Liverpool Fire Department for the professional manner in which they conducted fire - fighting operations at the recent fire in the Diamond.

The placement of equipment and the use of available manpower and equipment showed a high degree of efficiency and dedication. This proficiency does not come about overnight, but is the result of serious consideration of the various aspects of fire service, dedication to duty and just plain hard work.

If the citizens of East Liverpool can find any pleasure in the midst of a major emergency of this type, it must be the fact that they have available to them a fire department of this nature. They are indeed fortunate.

Can the Vietnam War be ended this year? The answer doesn't depend on how many more troops are sent or on what the outcome of the U. S. election may be. ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our son Henry is a good boy. He's not brilliant, but he never has flunked and has to work hard for those C grades.

Unfortunately his older brother was not only a top student but a fine athlete. I'm sure Henry feels he cannot compare with his brother, and this is part of the problem.

Several months ago Henry began to "miss" getting haircuts. He made excuses from time to time and suddenly it occurred to me that his hair was longer than his sister's.

My husband became increasingly irritated over the boy's long hair and last night he ordered Henry to get a haircut right after school or not come home.

Well, Ann, Henry showed up later for dinner with his head completely shaved. He looks ghastly! I didn't realize his head was so bumpy and misshapen.

I'm angry with my husband because he threatened the boy into doing this foolish thing. He says, "It's only hair, It'll grow back."

Please say something that makes sense. I need it. — HEARTBROKEN MOM.

Dear Mon: It's only hair. It'll grow back. And when it does, tell your husband not to make an issue of it and he'll have less trouble over the things that are really important.

Time To Talk

Dear Ann: I'm writing in regard to the girl who wanted to know if she should tell her fiance about an affair she had a few years earlier. The girl should thank her lucky stars it was only an "affair."

Vic and I went steady for seven months and I was so sure he planned to marry me that I let myself go completely. When I told Vic I was pregnant he said, "Gee, that's a shame," and announced he had spontaneously fallen in love with someone else. I haven't seen him since that night.

I'm on the heavy side naturally and nobody can tell I'm in my sixth month. I've dated some nice fellows and one of them is getting serious about me. I know I MUST tell him the truth but I dread it and keep putting it off. What advice do you have for me? — I'VE GOT A SECRET.

Dear Girl: You've got more than a secret, Toots, and you'd better tell the young man immediately in plain, every-day language. If you keep putting it off you may find yourself asking him to drive you to the hospital in the middle of a movie.

At any rate, the upcoming situation will prove a real test. If he stays around after he hears the news he's a true gem and you should consider yourself a very lucky girl.

Listening Eyes

Dear Ann: This is more of an annoyance than a problem, but I'd appreciate an answer.

My Aunt Bessie is a lovely woman but she has a habit that drives me batty. When someone speaks to her she says, "Wait a minute, I can't hear you. Then she puts on her glasses and says, "There, that's better."

Does she actually think that putting on her glasses will improve her hearing? Please comment. — RUTHIE.

Dear Ruthie: Not only does she THINK so, but she may be right. The experts tell us that when one sense is sharpened it often makes the others more acute. Get it?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bliss' Scholarship Program Set For 13th Year In A Row

Edward P. Sandbach, division manager of the E. W. Bliss Co.'s Mackintosh - Hemphill Division, has announced the continuance of the Bliss scholarship program for the 13th consecutive year.

Thirty - five students, chosen in competitive interviews over the last four years, now are being provided financial assistance by Bliss as they pursue engineering degrees.

They are enrolled at leading universities and include candidates for mechanical, electrical, metallurgical, industrial and welding engineering degrees. Represented among the 35 are students sponsored by each of the company's major divisions.

Administered through the company's local personnel offices, this year's program will start with the fall term. Scholarships will be renewable each year as the student's need and eligibility continues.

The amount of financial assistance will be determined on the basis of individual need, Sandbach pointed out.

To qualify as a candidate, "each applicant must be a recent high school graduate, possess a good scholastic rating and take qualifying tests administered by the company."

Application must be made not later than March 29 on forms available through R. F. Crawford, the company's personnel director. Interviews will follow, and the Bliss Scholarship Board, located at the company's corporate Offices in Canton, Ohio, will make the final selections.

The scholarship student may select the engineering college he wishes to attend. His curriculum should lead to a bachelor's degree in engineering and he must maintain scholastic and personal standings satisfactory to the college of his choice.

Columbiana Driver Cited On Two Counts

A Columbiana man was cited on two counts by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Wintersville as the result of a one - car mishap near Bergholz Sunday at 3 p.m.

John Hartman, 20, was charged with "speeding in view of conditions," and "operating an unsafe vehicle" after his 1960 sedan, northbound on Route 146, swerved off the right side of the road twice and came to a halt in a culvert.

Officers said the auto was damaged extensively. Hartman received contusions of the nose.

Youngstown Firemen, Police Due Pay Hike

YOUNGSTOWN (AP) — Pay hikes for police and firemen which would raise their salaries $1,321 a year by Jan. 1, 1970 were agreed to Monday by city and safety forces negotiatiors after two weeks of bargaining.

Police and firemen now receive $6,640 a year after two years' service.

The raise must be approved by city council and members of Local 312 of the City Fire Fighting Association and the Youngstown Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police.

Would Remove Cover On Currency

House-Passed Gold Bill Awaits Action In Senate

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders express confidence they can send to President Johnson shortly the bill to remove the gold cover on the nation's currency.

The measure, already passed by the House, was due to be considered on the Senate floor today.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield moved it up ahead of schedule at the urgent request of administration officials.

These officials said they were hopeful final congressional action on the measure would contribute stability to the international gold markets, unsettled in recent days amid rumors the United States might be forced to devalue its dollar.

Officials said the world money system—based on a gold price of $35 an ounce—is strong enough to withstand the current gold-buying rush in Europe and any potential shock waves from British devaluation of the pound.

To weather the present gold rush, U.S. officials are relying on the weekend affirmation by key bankers in Europe the gold price would be maintained at $35 an ounce, a similar affirmation by Frederick L. Deming, undersecretary of the Treasury for Monetary Affairs, and quick removal of the gold cover.

One official said the gold picture might return to normal once the speculators realize the United States is serious about holding the price at $35 an ounce.

Under present law, each $1 in Federal Reserve notes—the only paper money made—must be backed by 25 cents in gold. Lifting this requirement would free over $10 billion in U.S. gold to back the dollar internationally.

Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., floor manager for the bill to remove the gold cover, was prepared to argue that it must be passed promptly and listed these two major reasons:

—Expected normal increases in the supply of Federal Reserve notes will require a progressively larger reserve requirement in subsequent years. Maintaining the current 25 per cent gold reserve requirement could ultimately interfere with business and unduly limit necessary domestic economic expansion.

—There must be adequate assurance the full amount of U.S. gold reserves would be available if needed to maintain the stability of the dollar at $35 per ounce of gold.

However, several senators promised a fight against the measure, including Frank Church, D-Idaho, and John J. Williams, R-Del.

Church has said defeat of the bill could force a change in administration foreign policy.

Church is a critic of what he contends is an administration policy of globalism in foreign affairs and opposes heavy U.S. troop commitments in Europe.

Williams has contended that removal of the cover should be considered later with other measures, including legislation calling for a tax hike and for sharp cuts in federal spending.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our son Henry is a good boy. He's not brilliant, but he never has flunked and has to work hard for those C grades.

Unfortunately his older brother was not only a top student but a fine athlete. I'm sure Henry feels he cannot compare with his brother, and this is part of the problem.

Several months ago Henry began to "miss" getting haircuts. He made excuses from time to time and suddenly it occurred to me that his hair was longer than his sister's.

My husband became increasingly irritated over the boy's long hair and last night he ordered Henry to get a haircut right after school or not come home.

Well, Ann, Henry showed up later for dinner with his head completely shaved. He looks ghastly! I didn't realize his head was so bumpy and misshapen.

I'm angry with my husband because he threatened the boy into doing this foolish thing. He says, "It's only hair, It'll grow back."

Please say something that makes sense. I need it. — HEARTBROKEN MOM.

Dear Mon: It's only hair. It'll grow back. And when it does, tell your husband not to make an issue of it and he'll have less trouble over the things that are really important.

Time To Talk

Dear Ann: I'm writing in regard to the girl who wanted to know if she should tell her fiance about an affair she had a few years earlier. The girl should thank her lucky stars it was only an "affair."

Question Hot As TV Lights

Rusk Never Loses 'Cool' Before Senate Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The questions at times were as hot as the television lights, but Secretary of State Dean Rusk never lost his cool in six hours before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Even at the end, when he and Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., dueled verbally over whether the secretary would come back to finish his testimony, Rusk's voice remained calm and his demeanor placid.

"I wonder if it isn't really possible to finish tonight?" Rusk said, adding that he has a busy schedule the rest of the week.

"We all have busy schedules," Fulbright said. "Everyone is exhausted, particularly with the lights." Five shone steadily in Rusk's eyes, and, unlike Fulbright, he had left his sunglasses home.

Finally—facing a threat from Fulbright to scuttle the administration's foreign-aid bill unless he returned—Rusk, still speaking without apparent rancor in his soft, Southern accent—agreed to extend his Monday appearance into today.

Occasionally mopping away perspiration caused by the lights, Rusk sat blank-faced through a number of scathing denunciations of the Vietnam policy he has helped to forge.

Even a 10-minute tongue-lashing by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a fiery opponent of war policy, failed to noticebly ruffle Rusk's steadfast composure.

Morse shouted at Rusk that history would prove the United States provoked the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident, in which U.S. ships reported being attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats.

The incidents led to congressional adoption of a resolution the administration has often pointed to in explaining its subsequent escalation of the American military efforts.

Rusk quietly disagreed with Morse and painstakingly retraced the administration version of the incident.

The only sign of the evident pressure in such an encounter came outside the hearing room during the luncheon break when a reporter asked Rusk if his statements about Vietnam peace talks represented any change in U.S. policy.

"Please don't ask me any more questions," the secretary shot back as he strode away. "I've been answering questions all morning."

Primary

Nixon was setting a target far higher than that chosen by the New Yorker's supporters. Former Gov. Hugh Gregg, promoting the write-in, said 15,000 Rockefeller votes would amount to success in New Hampsire. Nixon said that could not be considered a serious estimate and had to be rated too low.

The same thing was going on in the Democratic race. McCarthy said he hoped to obtain 30 per cent of the vote and added it was "probably a little too much" to forecast a victory in his campaign of protest against Johnson's course in the Vietnam war.

Johnson's promoters said McCrathy might get up to 40 per cent of the vote against the write-in effort being staged for the President.

McCarthy men acknowledged they needed a substantial showing in New Hampsire to get the campaign contributions they will need for the primaries still ahead. New Hampshire has cost McCarthy's campaign organization at least $150,000 probably more. Gov. John W. King, chief spokesman for the Johnson effort, claimed the figure was nearer $250,000.

In any event, McCarthy, with five primaries still ahead, needed a sizable showing in New Hampshire to encourage financial backers. One McCarthy aide said a 30 per cent share of the vote probably would guarantee a continuing war chest for the challenge to Johnson.

Nixon was looking ahead too, to a possible confrontation with Rockefeller, unannounced but on the brink of candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

"I have chosen to submit my case to the people in the primary states," the former vice president said, challenging Rockefeller anew to do the same. Nixon said Rockefeller cannot prove his vote-pulling power by contesting only the Oregon presidential primary, due May 28 and rated the most likely spot for a confrontation.

"After all," he said, "Oregon would not be representative of the country. That is the only state he has ever won outside of New York."

"I'm not going to play the game in terms of letting Oregon be the only battlefield," Nixon said.

He wound up his New Hampshire campaign in a shower of confetti in a traffic-jamming rally in Manchester. "Turnout," he urged the crowd, "let's get the biggest vote we've ever had."

Nixon acknowledged however, that a heavy turnout was unlikely.

The withdrawal of Michigan Gov. George Romney as a presidential candidate, even though his name remains on the ballot, left the primary without a real contest among Republicans. Nixon said he would be very pleased if 75,000 Republicans cast ballots.

In addition to Nixon and Romney, there are seven other candidates listed on the Republican side.

McCarthy has three minor opponents on the Democratic side. Estimates of the Democratic vote range around the 45,000 mark.

Voting hours vary from town to town, with polls opening as early as midnight and closing as late as 8 p.m.

In addition to stating a presidential preferance, voters are chosing eight delegates to the Republican National Convention and 24 to the Democratic convention. Delegates are chosen separately and are not bound to the winner of the preference poll.

Nixon spent his final New Hampshire day visiting his headquarters in five cities, then flew home to New York to await the vote.

McCarthy remained in New Hampshire. His last words of the campaign were televised. He said the commitment of 200,000 more American men to Vietnam could not settle the war. "You certainly can't get out by putting in another 200,000 men," he said.

years. The minimum is 10. The court had delayed sentencing to permit further action and allow officials to conduct a sentencing investigation.

Judge James Rowley presided over the trial conducted all last week. Beaver County Prosector John Good presented the state's evidence.

The court also accepted a motion for a new trial filed by the defense attorneys for Mrs. Alvie M. Wilson of Brighton Township, who was found guilty Friday on charges of embezzlement and nine counts of forgery. She is a former bookkeeper in the office of the Beaver County Clerk of Courts.

Plans To Campaign

Wilson Quits Patrolman Post At Chester, 2 Hired

A patrolman resigned and two were appointed to serve part time on the police force during Monday night's meeting of Chester Council.

Patrolman Robert Wilson, a Democratic candidate for mayor, resigned to devote his full time to campaigning.

Jerry Cornell of 172 Montana Ave. and Richard Manypenny of 515 Church Alley were appointed to serve as extra patrolmen through the remainder of the fiscal years ending June 30.

Cornell, 24, is a candidate for First Ward Councilman on the Democratic ticket. He had senlority for the patrolman's position, his application having been received first. Cornell, if elected councilman, would have to resign one post or the other.

Manypenny, 34, owns and operates a pizza shop and has resided in Chester more than a year.

The men will divide the time on the force as needed and will receive $1.80 an hour. Full-time police are on salary.

Larry Louden, manager of the Chester office of the Monongahela Power Co., and another company representative discussed the proposed street lighting program, with emphasis on Carolina Ave.

Installation of 19 mercury vapor lights add $550 to the present cost of street lighting — $3,850.

Mayor Burton Ward said that it had been suggested years ago that an improvement in the street lighting be made because the present system is obsolete. "A change must be made," he said. "It can't get worse; it's got to get better."

Council will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the City Hall with company representatives for further study of the Carolina Ave. lighting, Mayor Ward said.

Donald Bare of the Ohio Tar and Asphalt Co. of Canton also spoke during the meeting. Bare reviewed the street program which is being continued from last fall when it had been delayed by a lack of slag. The entire program will be completed at a cost of approximately $7,000 to $7,500 for the company and the purchase of slag.

Due to the weight limit and the barriers on the Chester bridge, the company's equipment must be re-routed, probably over the bridge at Midland, Bare said. This will increase the price of trucking.

The program, which must be completed by the end of this fiscal year, will be continued as soon as weather permits, Bare said. Two of the factors which could cause delays would be the ground being too damp or, if the ground is cold, the heated material used for the repair would cause a steaming reaction, hampering the view of the equipment operators. A poor job could result from that, Bare said. Plans were tentatively set for work to get underway sometime in May.

Clerk Don Hood listed remittances amounting to $236.19 received into the city treasury. Bills totaling $2,972 were paid.

Two men from the Penn Central Railroad will attend a meeting March 25 at 7:30 p. m. in City Hall as a result of complaints made about the crossing conditions and interruption of traffic by boxcar switching. A letter from W. C. Wieters, superintendent of Penn Central, indicated that George E. McCarl, train master, and E. C. Berkey, supervisor of track, will attend.

Councilman Percy Willison reported that he visited the State Barn Monday to check on whether the city could borrow hot tar equipment to use on the streets. He related that Weirton is using it.

The Chester City Volunteer Fire Department submitted a request to purchase Jet-S high expansion foam for use in fire fighting. It sells at $55 for ten gallons.

Clerk Hood was instructed to write to the State Department of Motor Vehicles to obtain the cost, if any, of getting another set of registration books which would be kept in the caretaker's residence on the second floor of City Hall. It would aid police in checking on auto registrations, Mayor Ward indicated. Presently, the caretakers must go to the first floor, check the registration and then give it to the person inquiring.

Councilmen Thomas Bowen and Roy Cashdollar were absent.

The next meeting will be March 25.

Trustees Reject Request To Open Section Of Road

A request to open a section of property which divides Lincoln St. in the substation area was rejected by St. Clair Township Trustees at a meeting Monday night.

A delegation of residents of the street sought to have the short stretch opened in order to join the two dead-end sections.

But trustees noted the portion of ground never has been dedicated, so the property cannot be used to link the sections. The property is owned by a city resident.

Carl Muschweck, of the Duke Rd. told trustees septic tank refuse is being dumped near his home and asked for help in clearing the problem. He was told to consult with the county health department.

A slag request for Dyke St. in Glenmoor was taken under consideration.

Letters of thanks were received from Mayor George Willshaw and East Liverpool City Council for the township police and Glenmoor and Calcutta Fire Departments' assistance during the recent fire in the Diamond.

Bills totaling $795 were paid. The trustees will meet tonight with County Engineer John Ursu to discuss the township's 1968 road program.

Heavy Gold Buying Goes On In London

LONDON (AP) —Heavy gold buying continued on the London and Zurich markets today, but the pound and the dollar improved.

British financial experts estimated that hoarders now hold more gold than the combined supply of the United States and the other six of the international gold pool.

Demand at today's price fixing in London was said to be about double that at Monday's opening, when just under 10 tons was bought. The day's total was believed to have been more than 25 tons.

The dollar price at the fixing eased one fourth of a cent, to $35.19⅝, and the pound opened 30 points higher on the London foreign Exchange market, at $2.3985. It eased off to $2.3965 at noon.

Pressure on gold also continued on the Zurich market, and banking sources here said there was no indication of a letup.

Both the dollar and the pound opened slightly stronger, however.

The pound and the dollar also improved on the Paris market, the pound up 120 points to 11.7925 francs and the dollar up 37 points to 4.9215 francs.

Auto Wrecks, 2 Are Injured

Two persons were injured and a car was demolished in an area mishap Tuesday evening, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

Officers said the accident occurred on County Rd. 434, a mile north of Route 170, about 7:30 when a 1963 coach operated by Clyde Thomas Smith, 19, of 514½ Walnut St. left the road and struck a utility pole, then a tree.

Treated at City Hospital were two passengers in the auto, James Russell, 22, of Brookshire Rd., multiple lacerations of the forehead, and Loretta Beagle, 18, of 165 Fawcett St., multiple contusions of both legs and contusions of the lip.

Smith was cited for "reckless operation," the patrol reported.

County Fights State's Action In Road Case

LISBON — County commissioners Monday filed in Common Pleas Court a motion for dismissal of the Ohio Highway Department's appeal of their decision in a road vacation case.

As grounds for the dismissal, Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said the state did not file its appeal within the statutory 30-day period.

County commissioners at a public hearing Jan. 29 rejected the state's request for the vacation of a portion of Township Rd. 880 (also known as Sand Bank Rd. and Cherry Fork Rd.) to make way for Route 11 —the Lake Erie - Ohio River Freeway).

The state's appeal was filed here March 1 — the 32nd day after the commissioners' action.

Buckeye Rambler Sales of Salem received a contract to furnish a four-door V-8 station wagon for the County Welfare Department on a low bid of $1,779.62 including trade-in allowance on a 1964 Rambler. Lee's Auto Sales of Columbiana bid $1,788 and Litten Motor Sales of East Liverpool bid $2,330.

Commissioners purchased a Cole conference desk for the County Mental Health Clinic from Dorrance Furniture Co., Lisbon, for $159. There were five other bids ranging to $223.95.

The City of East Liverpool was paid $80.50 for destroying 41 stray dogs during February.

Commissioners gave Wayne Township trustees permission to reduce load limits by 50 per cent on six township roads.

Lisbon Resident Fined And Jailed For Thefts

EAST PALESTINE — Terry Thomas Koffel of 131 Morton St., Lisbon, was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail for petty larceny at Hill's Department Store in Calcutta at a hearing Monday before County Judge Barry Dickson.

Koffel was charged with taking a hat, record and some socks Feb. 11. The judge suspended $150 of a $300 fine and 87 days of a 90-day term.

Course Planned

MONACA — A course on "Basic Principles of Mental Health" will be held by Pennsylvania State University each Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. beginning March 28 in the new lecture hall of the Beaver Campus here. The program was established by the university at the request of the Beaver County Mental Health Society. Participants do not have to have had prior experience or special knowledge of the subject to enroll, it was pointed out.

contents, reported the fire apparently started from a service wire on a large refrigerator and that the motor in the refrigerator might have frozen.

The building is owned by John Ludovici of Chester. The business was operated by Loretta Eller, also of Chester. The building was insured.

Haney said 16 men fought the blaze, with two trucks in use. Firemen remained on the scene about two hours.

The booster lines and a 1½-inch line were used to fight the blaze.

3 Receive Notice On Tax Hearings

Three East Liverpool men have been served with notices ordering them to appear in Municipal Court March 19 on charges of violating the city income tax ordinance by failure to file returns.

The defendants are: Arthur J. Tiller of 2114 Ohio Ave., Charles J. Hanlon of 780 Sophia St. and Joseph Allen of 1045 Edgewood Ave.

The affidavits were filed by D. G. Wilkinson, income tax commissioner, alleging that each failed to file an estimate of estimated income for 1967. The estimates were due by April 15, 1967.

Officers Are Named For Potato Growers

COLUMBIANA—A. W. (Tony) Andrich of Columbiana RD 2 was elected secretary - treasurer of the Columbiana - Mahoning Potato Growers Association Monday night for the 33rd consecutive year.

The growers' committee, meeting at Theron's County Store south of here, elected Jon McMaster of Columbiana RD 1, president, and Fred Ward of Columbiana RD 2, vice president. McMaster succeeds Ken Barth of Mahoning County.

Plans were launched for a twilight meeting next July or August at the farm of Robert McDowell of Mercer, Pa.

Man Cited In Death Of Business Partner

Police said Herman shot and killed Leonard F. Marotz, 37, Parma Heigths, Saturday night.

The men were in the parking lot of their jointly owned business when Herman allegedly accused Marotz of taking items from the factory, then shot him, police said.

It would aid police in checking on auto registrations, Mayor Ward indicated. Presently, the caretakers must go to the first floor, check the registration and then give it to the person inquiring.

Councilmen Thomas Bowen and Roy Cashdollar were absent.

The next meeting will be March 25.

Trustees Reject Request To Open Section Of Road

A request to open a section of property which divides Lincoln St. in the substation area was rejected by St. Clair Township Trustees at a meeting Monday night.

A delegation of residents of the street sought to have the short stretch opened in order to join the two dead-end sections.

But trustees noted the portion of ground never has been dedicated, so the property cannot be used to link the sections. The property is owned by a city resident.

Carl Muschweck, of the Duke Rd. told trustees septic tank refuse is being dumped near his home and asked for help in clearing the problem. He was told to consult with the county health department.

A slag request for Dyke St. in Glenmoor was taken under consideration.

Letters of thanks were received from Mayor George Willshaw and East Liverpool City Council for the township police and Glenmoor and Calcutta Fire Departments' assistance during the recent fire in the Diamond.

Bills totaling $795 were paid. The trustees will meet tonight with County Engineer John Ursu to discuss the township's 1968 road program.

Heavy Gold Buying Goes On In London

LONDON (AP) —Heavy gold buying continued on the London and Zurich markets today, but the pound and the dollar improved.

British financial experts estimated that hoarders now hold more gold than the combined supply of the United States and the other six of the international gold pool.

Demand at today's price fixing in London was said to be about double that at Monday's opening, when just under 10 tons was bought. The day's total was believed to have been more than 25 tons.

The dollar price at the fixing eased one fourth of a cent, to $35.19⅝, and the pound opened 30 points higher on the London foreign Exchange market, at $2.3985. It eased off to $2.3965 at noon.

Pressure on gold also continued on the Zurich market, and banking sources here said there was no indication of a letup.

Both the dollar and the pound opened slightly stronger, however.

The pound and the dollar also improved on the Paris market, the pound up 120 points to 11.7925 francs and the dollar up 37 points to 4.9215 francs.

Auto Wrecks, 2 Are Injured

Two persons were injured and a car was demolished in an area mishap Tuesday evening, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

Officers said the accident occurred on County Rd. 434, a mile north of Route 170, about 7:30 when a 1963 coach operated by Clyde Thomas Smith, 19, of 514½ Walnut St. left the road and struck a utility pole, then a tree.

Treated at City Hospital were two passengers in the auto, James Russell, 22, of Brookshire Rd., multiple lacerations of the forehead, and Loretta Beagle, 18, of 165 Fawcett St., multiple contusions of both legs and contusions of the lip.

Smith was cited for "reckless operation," the patrol reported.

County Fights State's Action In Road Case

LISBON — County commissioners Monday filed in Common Pleas Court a motion for dismissal of the Ohio Highway Department's appeal of their decision in a road vacation case.

As grounds for the dismissal, Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said the state did not file its appeal within the statutory 30-day period.

County commissioners at a public hearing Jan. 29 rejected the state's request for the vacation of a portion of Township Rd. 880 (also known as Sand Bank Rd. and Cherry Fork Rd.) to make way for Route 11 —the Lake Erie - Ohio River Freeway).

The state's appeal was filed here March 1 — the 32nd day after the commissioners' action.

Buckeye Rambler Sales of Salem received a contract to furnish a four-door V-8 station wagon for the County Welfare Department on a low bid of $1,779.62 including trade-in allowance on a 1964 Rambler. Lee's Auto Sales of Columbiana bid $1,788 and Litten Motor Sales of East Liverpool bid $2,320.

Commissioners purchased a Cole conference desk for the County Mental Health Clinic from Dorrance Furniture Co., Lisbon, for $159. There were five other bids ranging to $223.95.

The City of East Liverpool was paid $20.50 for destroying 41 stray dogs during February.

Commissioners gave Wayne Township trustees permission to reduce load limits by 50 per cent on six township roads.

Lisbon Resident Fined And Jailed For Thefts

EAST PALESTINE — Terry Thomas Koffel of 131 Morton St., Lisbon, was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail for petty larceny at Hill's Department Store in Calcutta at a hearing Monday before County Judge Barry Dickson.

Koffel was charged with taking a hat, record and some socks Feb. 11. The judge suspended $150 of a $300 fine and 87 days of a 90-day term.

Course Planned

MONACA — A course on "Basic Principles of Mental Health" will be held by Pennsylvania State University each Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. beginning March 28 in the new lecture hall of the Beaver Campus here. The program was established by the university at the request of the Beaver County Mental Health Society. Participants do not have to have had prior experience or special knowledge of the subject to enroll, it was pointed out.

contents, reported the fire apparently started from a service wire on a large refrigerator and that the motor in the refrigerator might have frozen.

The building is owned by John Ludovici of Chester. The business was operated by Loretta Eller, also of Chester. The building was insured.

Haney said 16 men fought the blaze, with two trucks in use. Firemen remained on the scene about two hours.

The booster lines and a 1½-inch line were used to fight the blaze.

3 Receive Notice On Tax Hearings

Three East Liverpool men have been served with notices ordering them to appear in Municipal Court March 19 on charges of violating the city income tax ordinance by failure to file returns.

The defendants are: Arthur J. Tiller of 2114 Ohio Ave., Charles J. Hanlon of 760 Sophia St. and Joseph Allen of 1045 Edgewood Ave.

The affidavits were filed by D. G. Wilkinson, income tax commissioner, alleging that each failed to file an estimate of estimated income for 1967. The estimates were due by April 15, 1967.

Officers Are Named For Potato Growers

COLUMBIANA—A. W. (Tony) Andrich of Columbiana RD 2 was elected secretary - treasurer of the Columbiana - Mahoning Potato Growers Association Monday night for the 33rd consecutive year.

The growers' committee, meeting at Theron's County Store south of here, elected Jon McMaster of Columbiana RD 1, president, and Fred Ward of Columbiana RD 2, vice president. McMaster succeeds Ken Barth of Mahoning County.

Plans were launched for a twilight meeting next July or August at the farm of Robert McDowell of Mercer, Pa.

Man Cited In Death Of Business Partner

Police said Herman shot and killed Leonard F. Marotz, 37, Parma Heigths, Saturday night.

The men were in the parking lot of their jointly owned business when Herman allegedly accused Marotz of taking items from the factory, then shot him, police said.

Wellsville Board Rejects Move To Kill Pay Boosts

Charles Glass, board vice president, proposed the action on the basis that he had been absent when the vote was taken and that he believes the amount of the increase ($1,768 a year in one case) to be too sharp.

Dr. Frank Rivelle seconded Glass' motion, but the proposal was defeated, 3-2, on "no" votes by Board President William Ferrall, Miss Mary Jenkins and Phillip Chronister.

DURING a general discussion, Miss Jenkins pointed out it should be made clear that the funds for the raises were made available when state foundation money, not earmarked for any special purpose, was received. She added that all "promises" made during the campaign for the 5-mill levy were met, and often exceeded.

Ferrall interjected that if any commitment has not been fulfilled, he would appreciate it being brought to his attention.

In response to a comment by Rivelle that the funds could have been used for much-needed band uniforms, Clerk Raymond Rolley pointed out the state does not permit public funds to be spent for items which are not connected directly with the academic process.

The matter came up again when a committee was named to investigate "adjustment of custodians' salaries."

At this point, Rivelle suggested adoption of a policy that pay increases be subject to unanimous approval of the board.

DURING discussion of the legality of such a procedure, William Bush, city solicitor, pointed out rules could be made more stringent, but not less stringent than those set down by the state. He added the policy would be subject to reapproval by each new board.

The argument presented by Rivelle was that the salary should be a compromise, agreeable to all members, not a precomposed plan submitted to the board to be accepted or rejected as he claimed the secretary salary increase had been.

Mrs. Evelyn Springer, a visitor, who received permission from the president to speak on the subject, said she had not heard any favorable comments from the public and feared the rapport established between the community and the board may have been injured and could result in public reprisals when the levies come up for renewal.

However, she added that she personally favored the raises.

Mrs. Springer said she attended the meeting in an effort to show the public was not apathetic as indicated in some instances.

AN ANNUAL appropriation resolution of $1,149,343 presented by Rolley, was accepted by the board.

Rolley commented that for the first time in more than 20 years the board was able to spend at least the minimum needed in each area, without making cutbacks somewhere else.

Some of the appropriations, compared with last year's, in parentheses, follow: Textbooks, $12,000 ($2,900), repairs to buildings $27,000 ($4,000), equipment $12,000 ($109) and to replace equipment $12,000 ($7,000).

Relative to the purchase of more books, Lowe reported that Earl Mundy, custodian, has partitioned the nurse's office at the Garfield School to provide an additional library. Also, bookcases are being built in the Industrial Arts Department of the high school.

Lowe announced the majority of the textbooks have been received and are being evaluated by the teachers.

A schedule, drawn up by Miss Jenkins and Glass of the building and grounds committee, calls for inspection of the high school and Daw Junior High on April 6, MacDonald School April 16, Garfield and Nicholson Stadium April 30 and Fairview and McKinley schools May 11.

Lowe reminded of the regional school board meeting to be held at Westgate School in East Liverpool April 17 at 7:30 p.m.

The resignation of Mrs. Evelyn Culp Morrow, second-grade teacher at Garfield who is moving to Toronto, was accepted.

Also approved was a proposal that 10 manual and seven electric typewriters be purchased at a total cost of $4,180.

TOM BAKER, representative of the teachers' professional organization, reported a negotiating agreement has been drawn up and when the grievance appendage is completed will be presented to the board.

Lowe was given permission to contract the services of Cliff Athey to remove four trees from the front of the high school. Athey submitted an estimate of $495 to remove the trees, roots, and cement and prepare the foundation to recement the walk.

Ferrall appointed Rivelle and Chronister to submit a report on the suggested adjustment in custodian salaries.

An application from Mrs. Jack (Agnes) Glover of Hammond Park addition for full or part-time cafeteria work was received and filed.

Mundy reported the city wants the water meter located on 20th St. moved inside the football stadium. He added there is a leak in the line there which as yet has not been pinpointed.

The board advised Mundy to board over the windows on the home near the high school, owned by the school board, after reports of vandalism by youngsters.

John Sawyer, representing the teachers, expressed his thanks to the board for the opportunity to teach the driver's education course and termed the program a "success."

He pointed out a few students had dropped the course which created considerable paper work for him, George Lawton, the other instructor, and William Menough, principal.

He suggested a fee be charged in the future to help discourage students from dropping the course.

Lowe reported that under the Title III and non-public program included in Ohio Senate Bill 350 a request has been approved that equipment valued at $1,300 be given the Immaculate Conception School.

The equipment will include a transparency maker, tape recorder, overhead projector, Hercules stand, equipment storage cabinet, filmstrip cartridge viewtalk, set of graded work phrases and five SRA reading laboratories.

2 Marines Due Medal Of Honor

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has summoned two Marine veterans of Vietnam to the White House to present them with the Medal of Honor.

Newest recipients of the nation's highest military decoration are Maj. Robert J. Modrzejewski and 2nd Lt. John J. McGinty III.

Modrzejewski, who with his wife and son lives at the U.S. Naval Academy, won the medal for combat valor while a captain in Vietnam in 1966.

Although suffering painful wounds, he rallied and inspired his surrounded company, ignoring exposure to enemy fire.

McGinty, then a staff sergeant, was cited for rallying his platoon during a four-hour battle although he also was painfully wounded. His citation said that he killed five of the enemy, firing at point-blank range with his pistol.

Turning Auto Breaks Big Laundry Window

A big plate glass window was broken at the Patterson - Wetzel Laundry on E. 3rd St. Monday at 5:20 p. m. as a woman driver attempted to turn her auto around in the firm's parking lot, police reported.

The window and an adjoining door were damaged by a 1960 sedan driven by Dorothy Agnew, 22, of 211 Blakeley St. There was no damage to the car, which is registered to Frank Jagerski of 270 Dravo St., Beaver, officers said.

The woman told Partolman James Woods she was attempting to turn, did not cut her wheels sharply enough and struck the window.

Lisbon Council Drops Franchise Garbage System

LISBON — Village Council took two surprise actions Monday night at a meeting attended by 14 visitors.

The legislators tabled the garbage collection setup which, a week earlier, they decided to control through a proposed franchise agreement, and adopted an emergency ordinance making it unlawful to place or maintain a house trailer or mobile home anywhere in the village.

The ordinance provides a penalty of $10 a day for each day of violation, but it does not apply to trailers and mobile homes on lots before Monday (March 11).

Mrs. Helen Bloor of N. Market St. appeared before Council Feb. 26 and complained about the number of trailers locating in the community. Council decided to reconsider a trailer ban proposed several years ago.

A LONG discussion on the garbage situation last night ended with Council voting unanimously to table a proposed franchise agreement with Donald Coleman, local service station operator.

As a result, the Dunlap Disposal Co. of 180 W. 8th St., Salem, today began offering a collection service to Lisbon residents.

Coleman intended to buy Earl Mitchell's packer truck and take over the service Mitchell discontinued Feb. 29. He came to Council several weeks ago to ask for a franchise because, he said, the business would not be financially feasible without it.

Last night, Coleman said he handled the business three days last week as a trial. "'It's ridiculous even to try it without a franchise," he declared.

The proposed one - year agreement, renewable annually, would have given Coleman the exclusive right to collect refuse in the village. It set a maximum fee of $2.50 per month for the weekly collection of two 20-gallon cans at residences and would have allowed the operator to negotiate the rate with schools and commercial places.

Coleman would have had to furnish a $10,000 performance bond, carry liability insurance of $100,000 for personal injury and $50,000 for property damage, use approved equipment and dispose of the refuse at an approved dump, and pay the village a tax of $50 for the first year and $25 each year thereafter.

SOME visitors stated their opposition to a franchise and said they had heard considerable criticism of Council "for discouraging free enterprise."

When Councilman Willis Coleman, brother of the franchise applicant, said the garbage collection has been "inadequate," Nick Rodi of N. Jefferson St. said that has not been the case as far as he is concerned. "When I knew Mr. Mitchell was going to discontinue his service, I made it a point to get someone else," Rodi said. "If the franchise were granted, would that mean this other man couldn't collect my garbage?" Rodi asked.

"That's exactly what it means," replied Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi. "Any person collecting without a franchise could be enjoined." Rodi said he does not believe that is right.

Coleman said Council was drawn into the problems by numerous calls from residence complaining about the service.

Baronzzi said this was the reason Council held several committee meetings and a special meeting last week to seek a solution.

It was at the special meeting that Council decided to go into the garbage collection business and employ Coleman to do the collection, providing he agreed to specifications to be prepared.

Charles Dunlap of Salem was invited last night to outline what service he could offer. He said he had advised Mayor Clyde B. Pike that he would like the opportunity to serve the village for one year.

He explained he believes he can demonstrate an improvement in that time. He said he does not have a franchise in Salem, but is a licensed operator, has been in the garbage collection business 20 years and "has the men and equipment to do a good job." He hauls to a sanitary landfill dump off Route 62 in Mahoning County.

DUNLAP, whose residential rate in Salem is $2.75 per month, said he is willing to take over at Mitchell's rates — $2 per month at the curb and $2.50 at the garage for residential customers. This will cover the collection of two 20-gallon cans once a week. He said he will work out rates with schools and commercial places.

Donald Coleman said Council, in previous talks with him, had been against placing cans at the curb.

"If you insist on having this garbage hidden, it will always be a problem," Dunlap said. He explained he has found that the people who actually help in the handling of the garbage are the best customers. Dunlap said the garbage man is an important man in a community.

"'Mr. Dunlap has got himself a new town; I don't want it," Coleman declared. He showed no rancor toward the Salem visitor and talked with him after the meeting. Coleman said his decision resulted from the controversy that has risen over the franchise question.

Dunlap said, "I'll be down tomorrow morning by 10 or 11. This is between Mr. Mitchell and me and Council is in the clear."

—:—

IN OTHER business, Council:

Authorized Pike to advertise for bids for a used street sweeper.

Transferred $1,000 from the pool fund to take care of the annual spring maintenance program.

Asked the street department to help Contractor Dean Rose remove a large sycamore tree at the alley east of his Sandy and Beaver Building on E. Lincoln Way.

Rogers OK's Road Project

ROGERS — An ordinance approving the resurfacing of Route 7 in the village limits was approved by Council at a special meeting Monday night.

The ordinance grants permission to the Ohio Department of Highways to resurface .52 of a mile within the village. The project will be undertaken this spring or summer.

The village will pay $300 as its portion of the cost.

Mayor Glenn Rhodes presided. The next meeting April 1.

Lisbon GOP Group To Hear Serviceman

LISBON — Spec. 5 Dennis Reese of Lisbon, who has been in Ethiopia the last 16 months with the Army will be guest speaker when the Young Republican Club meets Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Wick Hotel building.

Alton Crothers, president, will screen two films from national headquarters and introduce candidates. Mrs. Crothers will serve refreshments.

Chairman Set In Calendar Sale By Band Parents

Mrs. Leonard Copestick was appointed chairman of a committee to sell birthday calendars during a meeting of the Oak Glen Band Parents Monday night in the school at New Manchester. The project will begin immediately, she said.

Donald Smith, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Wheeler Hobbs were appointed to a nominating committee to present a slate of officers at the next meeting. New officers will begin duties June 1.

James Buracchio, band director, said the spring concert will be held April 2. Mrs. Ralph Ward is chairman of a bake-sale to be held after the concert.

Buracchio also announced the band will take part in the Region V music competition at West Liberty State College April 19.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Margaret Gray and her committee. The next meeting will be April 8.

Smith Renames Hardman To Job

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith has reappointed Con Hardman of Charleston to his personal staff following the resignation of state Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner H. Coleman Nichols.

Hardman replaces Harrison Everett of Parkersburg on the governor's staff. Everett was named ABC chief after the departure of Nichols last Friday.

Smith said Robert Miller, a former Beckley radio newsman and Hardman's assistant, will become head of the Office of Information.

The governor said Monday Nicholas resigned on the advice of his physician because of a health problem.

However, other statehouse sources said Nicholas was given the choice of either resigning or be fired.

Nicholas has been unavailable for comment since his departure.

Mundy reported the city wants the water meter located on 20th St. moved inside the football stadium. He added there is a leak in the line there which as yet has not been pinpointed.

The board advised Mundy to board over the windows on the home near the high school, owned by the school board, after reports of vandalism by youngsters.

John Sawyer, representing the teachers, expressed his thanks to the board for the opportunity to teach the driver's education course and termed the program a "success."

He pointed out a few students had dropped the course which created considerable paper work for him, George Lawton, the other instructor, and William Menough, principal.

He suggested a fee be charged in the future to help discourage students from dropping the course.

Lowe reported that under the Title III and non-public program included in Ohio Senate Bill 350 a request has been approved that equipment valued at $1,300 be given the Immaculate Conception School.

The equipment will include a transparency maker, tape recorder, overhead projector, Hercules stand, equipment storage cabinet, filmstrip cartridge viewtalk, set of graded work phrases and five SRA reading laboratories.

2 Marines Due Medal Of Honor

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has summoned two Marine veterans of Vietnam to the White House to present them with the Medal of Honor.

Newest recipients of the nation's highest military decoration are Maj. Robert J. Modrzejewski and 2nd Lt. John J. McGinty III.

Modrzejewski, who with his wife and son lives at the U.S. Naval Academy, won the medal for combat valor while a captain in Vietnam in 1966.

Although suffering painful wounds, he rallied and inspired his surrounded company, ignoring exposure to enemy fire.

McGinty, then a staff sergeant, was cited for rallying his platoon during a four-hour battle although he also was painfully wounded. His citation said that he killed five of the enemy, firing at point-blank range with his pistol.

Turning Auto Breaks Big Laundry Window

A big plate glass window was broken at the Patterson - Wetzel Laundry on E. 3rd St. Monday at 5:20 p. m. as a woman driver attempted to turn her auto around in the firm's parking lot, police reported.

The window and an adjoining door were damaged by a 1960 sedan driven by Dorothy Agnew, 22, of 211 Blakeley St. There was no damage to the car, which is registered to Frank Jagerski of 270 Dravo St., Beaver, officers said.

The woman told Partolman James Woods she was attempting to turn, did not cut her wheels sharply enough and struck the window.

At Monday Meeting

Lisbon Council Drops Franchise Garbage System

LISBON — Village Council took two surprise actions Monday night at a meeting attended by 14 visitors.

The legislators tabled the garbage collection setup which, a week earlier, they decided to control through a proposed franchise agreement, and adopted an emergency ordinance making it unlawful to place or maintain a house trailer or mobile home anywhere in the village.

The ordinance provides a penalty of $10 a day for each day of violation, but it does not apply to trailers and mobile homes on lots before Monday (March 11).

Mrs. Helen Bloor of N. Market St. appeared before Council Feb. 26 and complained about the number of trailers locating in the community. Council decided to reconsider a trailer ban proposed several years ago.

A LONG discussion on the garbage situation last night ended with Council voting unanimously to table a proposed franchise agreement with Donald Coleman, local service station operator.

As a result, the Dunlap Disposal Co. of 180 W. 8th St., Salem, today began offering a collection service to Lisbon residents.

Coleman intended to buy Earl Mitchell's packer truck and take over the service Mitchell discontinued Feb. 29. He came to Council several weeks ago to ask for a franchise because, he said, the business would not be financially feasible without it.

Last night, Coleman said he handled the business three days last week as a trial. "'It's ridiculous even to try it without a franchise," he declared.

The proposed one - year agreement, renewable annually, would have given Coleman the exclusive right to collect refuse in the village. It set a maximum fee of $2.50 per month for the weekly collection of two 20-gallon cans at residences and would have allowed the operator to negotiate the rate with schools and commercial places.

Coleman would have had to furnish a $10,000 performance bond, carry liability insurance of $100,000 for personal injury and $50,000 for property damage, use approved equipment and dispose of the refuse at an approved dump, and pay the village a tax of $50 for the first year and $25 each year thereafter.

SOME visitors stated their opposition to a franchise and said they had heard considerable criticism of Council "for discouraging free enterprise."

When Councilman Willis Coleman, brother of the franchise applicant, said the garbage collection has been "inadequate," Nick Rodi of N. Jefferson St. said that has not been the case as far as he is concerned. "When I knew Mr. Mitchell was going to discontinue his service, I made it a point to get someone else," Rodi said. "If the franchise were granted, would that mean this other man couldn't collect my garbage?" Rodi asked.

"That's exactly what it means," replied Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi. "Any person collecting without a franchise could be enjoined." Rodi said he does not believe that is right.

Coleman said Council was drawn into the problems by numerous calls from residence complaining about the service. Baronzzi said this was the reason Council held several committee meetings and a special meeting last week to seek a solution.

It was at the special meeting that Council decided to go into the garbage collection business and employ Coleman to do the collection, providing he agreed to specifications to be prepared.

Charles Dunlap of Salem was invited last night to outline what service he could offer. He said he had advised Mayor Clyde B. Pike that he would like the opportunity to serve the village for one year.

He explained he believes he can demonstrate an improvement in that time. He said he does not have a franchise in Salem, but is a licensed operator, has been in the garbage collection business 20 years and "has the men and equipment to do a good job." He hauls to a sanitary landfill dump off Route 62 in Mahoning County.

DUNLAP, whose residential rate in Salem is $2.75 per month, said he is willing to take over at Mitchell's rates — $2 per month at the curb and $2.50 at the garage for residential customers. This will cover the collection of two 20-gallon cans once a week. He said he will work out rates with schools and commercial places.

Donald Coleman said Council, in previous talks with him, had been against placing cans at the curb.

"If you insist on having this garbage hidden, it will always be a problem," Dunlap said. He explained he has found that the people who actually help in the handling of the garbage are the best customers. Dunlap said the garbage man is an important man in a community.

"'Mr. Dunlap has got himself a new town; I don't want it," Coleman declared. He showed no rancor toward the Salem visitor and talked with him after the meeting. Coleman said his decision resulted from the controversy that has risen over the franchise question.

Dunlap said, "I'll be down tomorrow morning by 10 or 11. This is between Mr. Mitchell and me and Council is in the clear."

—:—

IN OTHER business, Council:

Authorized Pike to advertise for bids for a used street sweeper.

Transferred $1,000 from the pool fund to take care of the annual spring maintenance program.

Asked the street department to help Contractor Dean Rose remove a large sycamore tree at the alley east of his Sandy and Beaver Building on E. Lincoln Way.

Rogers OK's Road Project

ROGERS — An ordinance approving the resurfacing of Route 7 in the village limits was approved by Council at a special meeting Monday night.

The ordinance grants permission to the Ohio Department of Highways to resurface .52 of a mile within the village. The project will be undertaken this spring or summer.

The village will pay $200 as its portion of the cost.

Mayor Glenn Rhodes presided. The next meeting April 1.

Chairman Set In Calendar Sale By Band Parents

Mrs. Leonard Copestick was appointed chairman of a committee to sell birthday calendars during a meeting of the Oak Glen Band Parents Monday night in the school at New Manchester. The project will begin immediately, she said.

Donald Smith, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Wheeler Hobbs were appointed to a nominating committee to present a slate of officers at the next meeting. New officers will begin duties June 1.

James Buracchio, band director, said the spring concert will be held April 2. Mrs. Ralph Ward is chairman of a bake-sale to be held after the concert.

Buracchio also announced the band will take part in the Region V music competition at West Liberty State College April 19.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Margaret Gray and her committee. The next meeting will be April 8.

Smith Renames Hardman To Job

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith has reappointed Con Hardman of Charleston to his personal staff following the resignation of state Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner H. Coleman Nichols.

Hardman replaces Harrison Everett of Parkersburg on the governor's staff. Everett was named ABC chief after the departure of Nichols last Friday.

Smith said Robert Miller, a former Beckley radio newsman and Hardman's assistant, will become head of the Office of Information.

The governor said Monday Nicholas resigned on the advice of his physician because of a health problem.

However, other statehouse sources said Nicholas was given the choice of either resigning or be fired.

Nicholas has been unavailable for comment since his departure.

Midland Board Receives Bids

The Midland school board opened bids for new doors for the high school at its meeting Monday night.

Bidding on three sets of double doors and three sets of triple doors for the high school front entrance and entrances to the old gym and the auditorium were the Consolidated Glass Corp. of New Castle $4,965 and $4,075 as alternate bids No. 1 and 2; King's Mirror and Glass of Beaver Falls, $4,745 and $5,275; Fry Glass and Store Front Construction Co. of Beaver Falls, $3,200 and $4,040; Nick Babich of Monaca, $12,600 and $9,600, and the Beaver Falls Paint and Glass Co., $4,575 and $4,980.

All bids were referred to the property and finance committees.

QUOTATIONS on a used station wagon for general school use were received from Sid Riezner Chevrolet and Olds, Inc., a 1963 Plymouth, $875; Migliore Ford, a 1963 Chevy II, $750 less $50 trade-in on the school's 1959 Ford now in use, and Midland Auto Sales, 1961 Dodge, $650 less a $10 trade-in for the Ford. The property and finance committees were authorized to purchase one of the wagons if suitable.

Bids were opened for the sale for old machinery at the 7th St. School. The board accepted the quotation of $750 from Allen Rich for all eight pieces of machinery. Daniel G. Rowe offered $600. Reed Dawson bid on two pieces, $60 for a 14-inch disc sander and $25 for a drill press.

Mrs. James Green and 13 members of Girl Scout Cadet Troop 186 attended. Supt. Charles P. Henderson introduced the board members and other personnel and explained the functions of the school board and its committees.

A DELEGATION attended from the Midland Community Action Committee, with Mrs. Angeline Vranich spokesman. She requested to be informed of action on a letter from the CAC requesting the school board sign as delegate agency for a day care center in Midland. Henderson said that the board as yet had not received the letter it requested be submitted by the CAC. Mrs. Vranich said Mrs. Hattie Jones, Midland Area Center manager, was to have mailed the letters Feb. 13, the day following the last board meeting. She said she would check.

Mrs. Paul McGovern of Ohio Ave. was appointed to the board of Carnegie Library trustees filling the unexpired term of the late W. I. McInerney. At the request of John F. Shovlin III, the board secretary will send a letter of appreciation to the McInerney family "for the dedicated service of the deceased on the board of trustees." Henderson said that a book in his memory has been placed in the library.

A new book list totaling $640 was approved.

GENERAL bills totaling $7,475 were paid. The treasurer's report showed $245,843 on hand in all accounts. Cash receipts for February totaled $323, including $294 for the sale of bus tickets.

The board will attend a budget meeting for the Community College of Beaver County March 19 at Freedom High School.

The board denied a request of John Petchel, biology teacher, for additional remuneration for time spent planning and helping install the new lab area, but okayed payment of salary for Feb. 26-28 when he missed school because of a family emergency.

Bids for baseball and track equipment were awarded to various suppliers at a total of $1,010. The board transferred $2,000 from the general fund to the athletic fund to meet current needs.

John Bender, golf coach, and his 10-member team, will attend a golf training program Friday and Saturday at Oglebay Park, Wheeling. Expenses are not to exceed $50.

Joe Hamilton and his two varsity assistants will attend a football clinic Saturday at Geneva College, with expenses not to exceed $12.

Miss Bernice Coffin, secretary, will accept reservations of board members to attend a WPIAL banquet April 6 at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel.

SHOVLIN was appointed the board's representative to the Beaver County Legislative Council for 1968-69.

Henderson reported the high school will be used Friday on a "Midland snow day" for a seminar on exercises for retarded and handicapped children. About 125 children from Beaver County will attend the event sponsored as a pilot study by the Department of Public Instruction for seniors at Slippery Rock State College.

The Holiday Tournament Committee requested use of the school facilities for the 1968 tournament event in December. James J. Migliore, chairman, said Henderson and Ed Olkowski, head basketball coach, have been added to the committee.

The Midland Junior Women's Club will use the 7th St. School building on Saturday, April 27, to conduct a pre - school vision screening.

The secretary was authorized to advertise for bids for janitorial supplies for the next school year with the aid of Rosatone.

The board approved the sale of an extra rebounder to Western Beaver High School for $325.

Mrs. Elva May Kunkle, fourth grade teacher, was granted "sick leave" pay for two days' absence because of a death in the family. She also received the usual one-day leave with pay.

SIX NAMES were added to the list of approved school substitutes. Homebound instruction was approved for Charles Allen at the recommendation of Dr. Leon Goggin, school physician.

Robert L. Blinn, elementary principal, will attend the National Elementary Principals convention March 30 through April 3 at Houston, Texas, with $175 allowed for the trip.

Field trips were approved for three fourth - grade classes of Mrs. Velma Ketterer, Mrs. Nettie Gottlieb and Mrs. Kunkle. The senior economics class will tour the Hall China Co. at East Liverpool next Monday.

The board donated $50 to the annual WQED Channel 13 fund drive. The date of the junior-senior prom was changed from May 17 to May 10 at the request of the junior class.

The secretary read a "thank-you" letter from the CAC for 500 old library books donated to the center at Midcrest.

Henderson announced the annual band concert will be April 5 in conjunction with an art show and open house of the new science facilities at the school. He said 750 attended the third free concert sponsored by the Community Concert Committee last Wednesday night.

The board will hold a special meeting with the Midland Education Association March 25 at 7:30 p. m.

The next regular board meeting will be April 8 at 8 p.m.

Actress Dies At 47

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Helen Walker, 47, actress who starred in "Call Northside 777" in 1948, died Sunday of cancer. Miss Walker started her Hollywood career in 1941 playing small roles. One of her last major roles was in 1955 in "The Big Combo" with Cornel Wilde and Joseph Lewis.

Voter Signup Sites Chosen

Four sites have been chosen for the customary branch registration campaign that will precede the March 27 deadline for enrollment of East Liverpool voters for the May 7 primary elections.

Miss Rebecca Resnick said the branch offices will operate March 25-27, inclusive at: The post office on Broadway, the Thorofare Market on Pennsylvania Ave., East End, the North Side Fire Station on St. Clair Ave. and the Pleasant Heights Fire Station on Lisbon St.

Deputy registrars will be on duty each day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 4 to 9 p.m. at the market and the two fire stations. The post office schedule will be the same, except it will close at 8, rather than 9.

It's the first time the post office has been used as a branch registration site. The registrars will be on duty in the lobby.

Miss Resnick also pointed out that voters may register any day at the board's office on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall.

The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday from 9 until noon.

Taxpayers Reminded Of Refunds In Bonds

L. H. Colley, Columbiana County Savings Bonds chairman, today reminded taxpayers that the Treasury Department once again will offer them the opportunity of taking income tax refunds in bonds.

The savings option, introduced in 1963, is in addition to the two standard options of taking tax refunds in cash or applying them to next year's tax.

"When a taxpayer elects to take his refund in Series E Bonds," the chairman said, "his money goes to work immediately in two directions." It begins to build his financial security. At the same time, it contributes to our country's economic strength. Those who elect the Savings Bonds option join millions of Americans who are investing in their country's future in this way."

Lisbon 'Dimes' Drive Brings Total Of $709

Miller said $552 was collected during the mothers' march sponsored by the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliaries.

Clues Sought In Vandalism At School Site

Police today intensified a search for persons responsible for vandalism at the new North Elementary School off Maine Blvd. in which damage was estimated at $600.

Officers asked any person with information to report it in confidence to the department. Names of informants will not be disclosed, police promised.

A report filed Monday afternoon showed that the vandals broke five wire - reinforced windows 3-x-4 feet and valued at about $40 each; ripped an electrical thermostat off a wall, pulled off a yellow porcelain panel and hurled ceramic wall tile adhesive onto windows and bricks.

Elmer Matheny, superintendent for the Potters Construction Co., contractor, told Patrolman Orin C. Smith that it was "just the latest in a series of vandalism incidents" at the school construction site. The damage took place between 4 p.m. Friday and 8 a.m. Monday. The police report was filed at 1:10 p.m. yesterday.

The intruders first attempted unsuccessfully to gain entry by removing a yellow porcelain panel 3-x-5 feet on the exterior of the structure, but found the way blocked by a stairway. Then they reached through a broken glass in a door and manipulated the catch, officers said.

Large stones and rocks apparently were thrown through the windows, as they were found on steps inside the school. In addition to the other damage, coils of electric wiring were removed from a room and rolled down a hallway. A tub of ceramic wall tile adhesive was taken from the building and handsful of the material were thrown on windows and the brick exterior.

Chiropractic Society Again Names Dawson

Dr. Joseph W. Dawson of 820 Midland Ave., Midland, has been reappointed to the X-ray Committee of the Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society. The appointment was made by President Robert L. Toner of Homestead.

Dr. Dawson received his doctorate at Lincoln Chiropractic College in Indianapolis in 1953. He also pursued studies at Duquesne University, the University of Pittsburgh, Indiana University Extension, Butler College, and Centre College. He has been a member of the X-ray Committee for the last three years and also served a three-year term on the PCS editorial board.

He is also a member of the American Chiropractic Association, American Chiropractic Roentgenological Association and the Beaver County Chiropractic Society.

The DOCTOR Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Q — I have incipient cataracts, bilateral. What does that mean? How long does it take for a cataract to form? Can it be dissolved without an operation?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — You have beginning cataracts in both eyes. Cataracts develop at an uneven rate that varies from months to years in different persons. Although the opacity in the lens cannot be dissolved, an enzyme is sometimes used to dissolve the attachment of the lens to its surrounding capsule. This makes it possible to remove the cataract without waiting for it to "ripen" as was done in former times.

Q — What causes a cataract? If one can see all right even though a cataract is present should the cataract be removed or is it better to wait? Is there any drug, such as nylidrin, that will slow the development of a cataract? Can a cataract be treated with ultra-sound?

A — Cataracts are a part of the aging process. They are found in an ever - increasing percentage of persons in each age group past 50. The incidence is higher in persons, such as glass blowers and stokers, who are exposed to great heat or intense light than in the general population. Living in a hot, dry climate is also a causative factor. In some persons, taking large doses of drugs of the cortisone group and others has caused cataracts.

If your vision is good in either eye it is best to postpone cataract removal. This is because, following removal, a special type of lens must be worn. Good bilateral vision cannot be obtained unless this type of lens is used for both eyes.

Nylidrin increases the blood flow to parts where it is deficient but, since the lens contains no blood vessels at all, neither this nor any other drug will arrest the progress of a cataract. A lens that has been removed will not return.

A new technique that uses an ultrasonic needle has been developed. The vibrations break up the lens and it can then be sucked out through the same needle that delivered the ultrasonic waves. Although this is believed by some to be the best method of treatment, it is too new to have been widely adopted.

Q — Is the use of a freezing probe the best way to remove a cataract?

A—Authorities differ with regard to this method. Each surgeon must use the method that works best for him.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Guilty Plea Filed On Entry Charge

Terry L. Wolfe, 18, of 106 W. Drury Ln., pleaded guilty before trial Monday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon to a charge of burglary Dec. 14 at the Sunoco Service Station in Calcutta.

Prospective jurors were present and so were two of the state's witnesses — Keith Matheny, 18, of 1004 St. Clair Ave., and John (Bill) Finley, 18, of 1820 Highland Ave.

Indicted along with Wolfe, Matheny pleaded guilty and requested probation and Finley was convicted Feb. 29 by a Common Pleas Court jury.

2 Badly Burned Bodies Found In Plane Wreckage

CLARKSBURG (AP) — The wreckage of a single - engined private plane containing the badly burned bodies of two men has been found on a mountainside in the Nestorville area of Barbour County by the Clarksburg squadron of the Civil Air Patrol.

A spokesman at Benedum Airport near here said Maj. Paul Brown of the Clarksburg CAP discovered the wreckage and bodies Monday afternoon.

When last heard from, the plane was low on fuel and in the clouds over the Clarksburg area Sunday.

The bodies found in the wreckage were burned beyond recognition but were thought to be those of pilot, Skeets Taylor and passenger, Donald Strabu, both of Wheeling.

Midland Board Receives Bids

The Midland school board opened bids for new doors for the high school at its meeting Monday night.

Bidding on three sets of double doors and three sets of triple doors for the high school front entrance and entrances to the old gym and the auditorium were the Consolidated Glass Corp. of New Castle $4,965 and $4,075 as alternate bids No. 1 and 2; King's Mirror and Glass of Beaver Falls, $4,745 and $5,275; Fry Glass and Store Front Construction Co. of Beaver Falls, $3,200 and $4,040; Nick Babich of Monaca, $12,600 and $9,600, and the Beaver Falls Paint and Glass Co., $4,575 and $4,980.

All bids were referred to the property and finance committees.

QUOTATIONS on a used station wagon for general school use were received from Sid Riezner Chevrolet and Olds, Inc., a 1963 Plymouth, $875; Migliore Ford, a 1963 Chevy II, $750 less $50 trade-in on the school's 1959 Ford now in use, and Midland Auto Sales, 1961 Dodge, $650 less a $10 trade-in for the Ford. The property and finance committees were authorized to purchase one of the wagons if suitable.

Bids were opened for the sale for old machinery at the 7th St. School. The board accepted the quotation of $750 from Allen Rich for all eight pieces of machinery. Daniel G. Rowe offered $600. Reed Dawson bid on two pieces, $60 for a 14-inch disc sander and $25 for a drill press.

Mrs. James Green and 13 members of Girl Scout Cadet Troop 186 attended. Supt. Charles P. Henderson introduced the board members and other personnel and explained the functions of the school board and its committees.

A DELEGATION attended from the Midland Community Action Committee, with Mrs. Angeline Vranich spokesman. She requested to be informed of action on a letter from the CAC requesting the school board sign as delegate agency for a day care center in Midland. Henderson said that the board as yet had not received the letter it requested be submitted by the CAC. Mrs. Vranich said Mrs. Hattie Jones, Midland Area Center manager, was to have mailed the letters Feb. 13, the day following the last board meeting. She said she would check.

Mrs. Paul McGovern of Ohio Ave. was appointed to the board of Carnegie Library trustees filling the unexpired term of the late W. I. McInerney. At the request of John F. Shovlin III, the board secretary will send a letter of appreciation to the McInerney family "for the dedicated service of the deceased on the board of trustees." Henderson said that a book in his memory has been placed in the library.

A new book list totaling $640 was approved.

GENERAL bills totaling $7,475 were paid. The treasurer's report showed $245,843 on hand in all accounts. Cash receipts for February totaled $323, including $294 for the sale of bus tickets.

Sam Dosatone, maintenance superintendent, reported that Sal Ruggeri, plumber, will repair the library boiler Friday and Saturday. He said a steam leak at Lincoln High School was discovered and repaired Monday morning.

The board will attend a budget meeting for the Community College of Beaver County March 19 at Freedom High School.

The board denied a request of John Petchel, biology teacher, for additional remuneration for time spent planning and helping install the new lab area, but okayed payment of salary for Feb. 26-28 when he missed school because of a family emergency.

Bids for baseball and track equipment were awarded to various suppliers at a total of $1,010. The board transferred $2,000 from the general fund to the athletic fund to meet current needs.

John Bender, golf coach, and his 10-member team, will attend a golf training program Friday and Saturday at Oglebay Park, Wheeling. Expenses are not to exceed $50.

Joe Hamilton and his two varsity assistants will attend a football clinic Saturday at Geneva College, with expenses not to exceed $12.

Miss Bernice Coffin, secretary, will accept reservations of board members to attend a WPIAL banquet April 6 at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel.

SHOVLIN was appointed the board's representative to the Beaver County Legislative Council for 1968-69.

Henderson reported the high school will be used Friday on a "Midland snow day" for a seminar on exercises for retarded and handicapped children. About 125 children from Beaver County will attend the event sponsored as a pilot study by the Department of Public Instruction for seniors at Slippery Rock State College.

The Holiday Tournament Committee requested use of the school facilities for the 1968 tournament event in December. James J. Migliore, chairman, said Henderson and Ed Olkowski, head basketball coach, have been added to the committee.

The Midland Junior Women's Club will use the 7th St. School building on Saturday, April 27, to conduct a pre - school vision screening.

The secretary was authorized to advertise for bids for janitorial supplies for the next school year with the aid of Rosatone.

The board approved the sale of an extra rebounder to Western Beaver High School for $325.

Mrs. Elva May Kunkle, fourth grade teacher, was granted "sick leave" pay for two days' absence because of a death in the family. She also received the usual one-day leave with pay.

SIX NAMES were added to the list of approved school substitutes. Homebound instruction was approved for Charles Allen at the recommendation of Dr. Leon Goggin, school physician.

Robert L. Blinn, elementary principal, will attend the National Elementary Principals convention March 30 through April 3 at Houston, Texas, with $175 allowed for the trip.

Field trips were approved for three fourth - grade classes of Mrs. Velma Ketterer, Mrs. Nettie Gottlieb and Mrs. Kunkle. The senior economics class will tour the Hall China Co. at East Liverpool next Monday.

The board donated $50 to the annual WQED Channel 13 fund drive. The date of the junior-senior prom was changed from May 17 to May 10 at the request of the junior class.

The secretary read a "thank-you" letter from the CAC for 500 old library books donated to the center at Midcrest.

Henderson announced the annual band concert will be April 5 in conjunction with an art show and open house of the new science facilities at the school. He said 750 attended the third free concert sponsored by the Community Concert Committee last Wednesday night.

The board will hold a special meeting with the Midland Education Association March 25 at 7:30 p. m.

The next regular board meeting will be April 8 at 8 p.m.

Against Beck

Agent Testifies In Lantern Raid

WHEELING — One of nine federal agents testifying Monday in U. S. District Court here said that he confiscated $7,000 in cash from Donald B. Beck when they raided the Lantern Inn in Hancock County on Nov. 5.

The agent's testimony was later introduced into evidence and shown to the jury in the case against Beck, who is accused of being the operator of the Lantern Inn and of traveling interstate to further a gambling operation. The government charges that Beck is a resident of McKeesport, Pa., although defense attorney Frank Pietranton of Weirton several times Monday claimed that his client resides at the Wright Motel near Chester.

BECK WAS jointly indicted with Benjamin J. Corbisello, 42, of Wellsville and Frank E. Bilotta, 53, of Pittsburgh who recently entered guilty pleas. U. S. District Court Judge Robert E. Maxwell has deferred their sentencing pending a presentencing investigation.

FBI agent Nortman T. Thompson of Pittsburgh told the jury of nine men and three women that he placed Beck under arrest on Nov. 5 and then searched him. He said he found $7,000 in cash in seven $1,000 bundles as well as five pairs of dice.

"He (Beck) said there was nothing wrong with visiting his wife in McKeesport," Thompson said he was told by the defendant following the arrest. The FBI agent also said they found "tally sheets" in Beck's possession.

Pietranton at one point said the defense "certainly admits" that Beck was at the Lantern Inn when the raid took place and had the money and the "takes" in his possession. "We admit there were gaming devices there and there was gambling of unequal chance," the Weirton attorney said.

HOWEVER, Pietranton refused to admit that Beck was the manager of the casino as claimed by the government.

Representing the government at the trial are Alfred King of the Justice Department's Organized Crime Division and District Atty. John H. Kamlowsky of Wheeling.

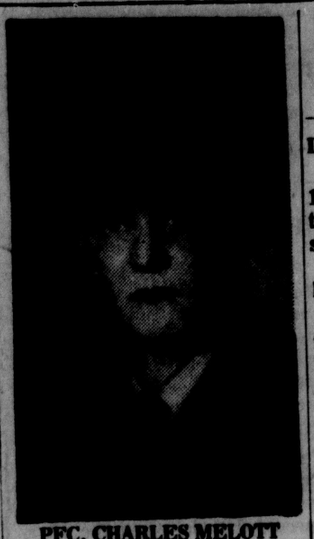
Nearly all of the FBI and Internal Revenue Service agents who testified Monday told of the surveillance of Beck in the McKeesport and Chester areas, prior to the raid.

Pietranton said he would be willing to stipulate that Beck was spotted in the two areas on the dates specified by the federal agents.

One FBI agent, George W. Stephan, told of gambling at the Lantern Inn on four occasions prior to the raid, conducted simultaneously with a raid on the nearby Red Dog Casino. Those charged in connection with the Red Dog raid are scheduled to go on trial next week.

Stephan said he played craps, blackjack and slot machines at the Lantern Inn, but did not engage in a "Beat My Shake" game also available to patrons. "I lost consistently in the gambling," Stephan said.

Scheduled to go on trial today is Sidney Ray Johnson, charged with the interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle. Kamlowsky said the offense allegedly committed by Johnson occurred in Morgantown.



PFC. CHARLES MELOTT
Funeral Services Set.

Rites Scheduled For Serviceman Killed In Action

Services will be held Wednesday afternoon for Pfc. Charles E. Melott, 19, of Rogers, who was killed by enemy fire in Vietnam March 2.

Son of Mrs. Nellie M. Hebron of Pritchard St., Lisbon, and the late Jacob Melott, he had been in the service since May 8, 1967, and in Vietnam since December.

The services will be held at 1:30 at the VanDyke Funeral Home in East Palestine by the Rev. Delcie Stewart of the Assembly of God Church at Rogers. Burial will be in Achor Cemetery near Negley.

should come before any decisions are made.

Fulbright again cited reports that President Johnson is considering sending up to 200,000 additional troops to Vietnam. A total of 525,000 men is now authorized.

"Congress has the right to initiate or declare war," Fulbright told Rusk. "It is still not too late to draw back before we get into a full scale, all-out war, possibly including nuclear weapons."

"No one is infallible," Fulbright continued in his opening statement "The wisest course is for all of us to consult together before further significant decisions are made. I do not understand why this is not acceptable to the administration".

Rusk replied that the President did consult with the chairmen of congressional committees and said the secretary of defense, as well as the secretary of state, frequently appeared before them.

"A good deal of consultation is going on here—yesterday, this morning—the views of the members of the committee were set forth rather clearly," Rusk said, referring to the six hours of testimony he gave Monday. Most of the questions came from four critics.

But Fulbright replied "I don't feel I heard anything yesterday about the plans of the administration in the immediate future. What I want to talk about is the exact, precise plans you have on escalation."

"You declined to answer," the chairman told the secretary with reference to the Monday questions on more troops.

Rusk repeated that in his last conversation with the President on Sunday he was told no new decisions have been made.

The secretary then referred to the 1964 Tonkin Gulf Resolution, in which Congress pledged all out support to the President after reports of attacks by North Vietnamese patrol boats on U.S. destroyers.

"I'm sorry you are bringing up that resolution," Fulbright said. "I think you used that resolution to prevent consultation, to prevent discussion."

The Fulbright committee investigated the incident that led to the resolution and has questioned administration accounts of what happened. Fulbright has said he considers the resolution "null and void," that it was based on misrepresentation.

In urging consultations with Congress, Fulbright said. "The idea is that we might influence you into a wiser policy."

Rusk said that public hearings were "not an easy system for the government to handle the details of military operations."

"You are confusing what I see as a clear distinction between daily operations" and policy Fulbright said.

Rusk told the committee: "The President has only the men and the money Congress makes available ... the President as commander in chief has to make the hard decisions about what is to be done with the men and money made available."

When Rusk expressed reluctance to spend another day before the committee after its grueling six-hour hearing Monday, Chairman J. W. Fulbright put his position bluntly:

"It will be impossible to proceed with foreign aid unless we can complete the hearing," said the Arkansas Democrat.

Fulbright, one of the Senate's most outspoken critics of President Johnson's war policies, also left no doubt as to the major question he wants Rusk to answer. That came when Rusk, asked about possible increases in U.S. troop levels, replied:

"Obviously the Tet offensive many subjects, including the calls for an examination of tactics and strategy of the enemy, the impact on the pacification program and on the military side."

"I can't speculate about decisions that have not been made or conclusions that have not been reached."

Fulbright quickly responded:

"That's what we're talking about. Congress wants to be consulted on such matters before—not after—the decision is made."

Fulbright, wearing sunglasses in the glare of television lights —a shield Rusk lacked—said he had saved his prime questions for today's session.

Rusk urged that the hearing be continued into the night, but yielded to Fulbright's demands for a second round when the chairman posed the threat of bottling up foreign-aid legislation unless the secretary returned.

Although the hearing obstensibly was to consider the President's $3 billion foreign-aid request, the questioning turned quickly to Vietnam—and stayed there most of the time.

Although perspiring freely in the hot lights, the urbane Rusk remained otherwise cool, answering firmly but without noticeable emotion a whole series of sharply critical statements—many not even disguised as questions—put to him by the 18 committee members present.

And although the committee majority contains many of the administration's most bitter war-policy critics, Rusk also found a few friends.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., said he backed administration policy although asserting, "We've failed to tell the people there's a good reason for paying all this blood and treasure."

He suggested renaming the conflict the "Southeast Asia War" to impress on the public what he called its global implications.

And Sens. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, and John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., asserted Fulbright was wrong in saying the administration misled Congress in seeking the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, adoption of which immediately preceded a massive step-up in U.S. military activities in Vietnam.

But war policy critics asked the majority of the questions.

"Why are we in Vietnam?" asked Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, who has urged an end to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

Rusk: "To take steps to meet the common danger in the face of an attack by North Vietnam on South Vietnam."

Why didn't the administration respond to Hanoi's expressed willingness to negotiate if the bombing were halted? Mansfield asked.

Rusk: "They won't talk unless we stop the bombing, while their war goes on at whatever pace they want to pursue. There's no element of reason and fairness in that point of view.

"If we said we would negotiate only if they stopped their military activity in Vietnam while we continued the bombing, everybody would say we were crazy."

Asked why greater efforts weren't made to have the U.N. Security Council act on Vietnam, Rusk said Soviet opposition to that course would mean only "an eye-gouging debate without results."

What about peace efforts?

Rusk: "Almost literally, never a week passes without a new follow-up of some contact, some rumor, some comment dropped in diplomatic discussions, some thought of some government."

Acknowledging the war puts a severe strain on U.S. patience and resources, Rusk added:

"But to me, the alternative of abandoning this war is catastrophic—not just for Southeast Asia but for the United States."

Fulbright responded by asserting U.S. war policies are having "effects both abroad and at home that are nothing short of disastrous."

at all Phelps Dodge operations.

But a Phelps Dodge spokesman said "there is nothing else to bargain about" until the unions accept or reject its wage offer. He said the company would continue negotiations for the other plants not covered by the contract offer.

Kennecott Copper Corp. was reported near a similar contract offer to the unions, but a Kennecott spokesman said, "The issue of company-wide bargaining is still our No. 1 problem."

The 26 striking unions, representing more than 50,000 workers, are bargaining jointly for the first time in the industry's history and their demands for company-wide bargaining, similar wage hikes and simultaneous contract dates has dragged out the longest copper strike in history.

The other two firms, Anaconda Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co., were reported still far from settlement.

All four copper firms have rejected union demands for company-wide bargaining and simultaneous contract expiration dates, insisting on holding to the old pattern of negotiating separately for their various mines, smelters, refineries and fabricating plants.

President Johnson called the negotiators to the White House eight days ago and said the strike was hurting the nation's economy and could threaten supplies of weapons and ammunition for Vietnam if it continued.

Malik Back As Soviet's Aide At U.N.

Since the announcement almost two months ago that he would succeed Nikolai T. Fedorenko, U.N. diplomats have been trying to assess the significance of Malik's return. Some have asked whether it means a return to the cold war in which Malik played a key role.

Malik was the chief Soviet delegate from 1948 to 1953. During the first summer of the Korean war he became known in the press as "The Great Stone Face" because of his grim, unsmiling appearances in televised meetings of the U.N. Security Council.

Other diplomats think of Malik differently. He was the man who negotiated the lifting of Berlin blockade and who dropped the first hint in a speech in 1951 that the Communists were ready to begin negotiations to end the Korean war.

Since he left New York 15 years ago, he has been a deputy foreign minister and Soviet ambassador to London.

Officials To Get Bids On Garage At Landfill

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, comprising the Board of Control, were to open bids early this afternoon at City Hall on construction of a garage at the city's new landfill waste disposal site along the Y. & O. Rd. in Madison Township.

Council appropriated $6,000 late in 1967 to cover the cost. The building will be used primarily to house a bulldozer utilized daily in covering trash. It also will provide office space for Incinerator Supt. John Melvin.

The city is scheduled to abandon its present landfill site in Bloomfield and begin using the new dump in Madison Township. It is a former farm which was strip-mined for coal.

Chief Orders Repair Action In Fire Area

City Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne has issued tear down or repair orders to three owners of the fire - damaged Isaly Dairy building which also houses the Outdoor Army Store and former Bendheim Shoe Store.

Van Dyne, acting as a deputy fire marshal, said the three—Harold Bricker, owner of Isaly's; Sanford Weiner of the Army Store, and Atty. Ben Berman, who represents the owners of the Bendheim portion of the structure — now will be responsible for making either repairs or tearing down completely the building to make the area safe.

By signing an order "12-A", Van Dyne said, he now has the backing of the state fire marshal. The three received the orders Monday and today.

The E. 6th St. building was damaged March 3 by fire that swept through the Siff Shoe Store building on the Diamond.

The owners indicated today they are uncertain what their course of action will be. Weiner, owner of the Army store, said he and Bricker hope to be back in business soon, but no definite plans have been made.

Atty. Berman indicated his clients don't know what they're plans are yet. He said insurance adjustors were to meet with him today concerning the loss.

Van Dyne reported he is meeting today with various insurance companies to determine coverage on the buildings and the loss involved. The only claim yet settled, he explained, is American Legion Post 4 which was located in the Siff Shoe Store building. The Legion was covered for $5,000, he said, and the claim has been settled through Cooper Insurance.

There is a safety question about the Arrow Pants Shop building, Van Dyne declared. He said the walls on one side are weak and the top is cracked. An engineer will be requested to determine whether it is fit for occupancy as it now stands.

Crews from Mike Pusateri Contracting Co. are still in the process of demolishing the Siff building. A wall along the Arrow Pants Shop side of the structure still stands, and portions in the back have not been razed.

Traffic flow in the Diamond area is not yet back to normal.

Van Dyne said he will permit Frank Diamond, owner of a Men's Shop in the Thompson building, to open as soon as the Siff demolition is completed. That might be by the weekend, Van Dyne indicated.

Sites in East Liverpool are being studied by the Gilbert Shoe Stores, Inc., of Columbus which operated the Siff Shoe Store here, according to Mike Feuer, advertising and public relations manager for the chain.

Feuer said a real estate man and others were in East Liverpool today looking over possible sites for a new facility, but no decisions has been reached.

Representatives from the Ostrov Insurance Agency of Akron said today it might be two months before the Siff family reaches a decision on the property which housed the shoe store and Roberts Jewelers. Both Lawrence Siff of Cincinnati and David Siff of Akron,, both are in the south and cannot be reached.

In Hancock School System

Non-Teaching Personnel To Be Object Of Survey

NEW CUMBERLAND — A job classification and pay plan survey for non - teaching personnel in the Hancock County School system was approved at the Board of Education meeting Monday night.

The survey, to be conducted by J. L. Jacobs, Inc., at a cost of $5,800, is expected to require four months.

It was reported the school system now employs 260 non - teaching personnel. Teachers will not be included in the study. The purpose of which "is to place the different services performed by the employes in various categories, work out a development program, a classification system and a pay schedule plan."

In drawing the overall plan, comparison studies will be made of the various descriptive jobs with those in other school systems, locally and across the country, and those also performed in industry.

Interviews also will be held with the employes themsleves.

Following the assembling of data, conferences will be held and an overall plan will be drafted.

It was pointed out the survey will not conflict with the present study being conducted within the school system by Battelle Memorial Institute.

The board said the new survey will help the school to operate more efficiently in this area of work.

In other action, the board approved the hiring of a baseball coach at Oak Glen High School, the resignation of two teachers, the employment of two teachers, granted a leave of absence and the employment of two teacher aides.

John McDevitt was hired as baseball coach at Oak Glen. Tied in with the hiring was a query by the board to the principal of the school for an explanation on to why the delay in submitting McDevitt's name for employment.

They noted the delay was not in keeping with their adopted plan relative to submission of names.

Elementary teachers employed were Mrs. Irene Troia and Stephen Koneik. Resignations were received from Mrs. Toni Muscara and Mrs. Mildred King, both teach at Cove Elementary School.

Employed as teacher aides were Mrs. Pamela Riggi at New Manchester School and Mrs. Anthony Barnabei at Bookview School.

Also approved by the board was an amendment to include all school employes in the tax-sheltered annuities program. Previously the program had only included the teacher. The plan was obtained by the school employes themselves.

Deaths and Funerals

Edward Libert

EAST PALESTINE — Edward G. Libert, 58, of 266 E. Martin St., a former First Ward councilman, died suddenly today at 3 a. m. of an apparent heart attack at Salem City Hospital, where he was taken about midnight by a fire department emergency car.

Born June 5, 1909, in East Palestine, he was a son of the late George Libert and Austie Louella Rife Libert. He was employed as a foreman at the Natco Plant, working last on Monday.

Mr. Libert was a member of the Cententary Methodist Church, American Legion Post 31, the Edward L. McGuckin VFW Post 4579 and the Loyal Order of Moose. He was an Army veteran of World War II. He was married Oct. 10, 1929, to the former Martha Whitehead.

He is survived by his widow, a son, Master Sgt. George W. Libert of Dayton, a recruiter for the Marine Corps; a sister, Mrs. Lelia Kelly of Cleveland, and four grandchildren.

David L. Mitchell, chairman, will be the moderator.

Against Beck

Agent Testifies In Lantern Raid

WHEELING — One of nine federal agents testifying Monday in U. S. District Court here said that he confiscated $7,000 in cash from Donald B. Beck when they raided the Lantern Inn in Hancock County on Nov. 5.

The agent's testimony was later introduced into evidence and shown to the jury in the case against Beck, who is accused of being the operator of the Lantern Inn and of traveling interstate to further a gambling operation. The government charges that Beck is a resident of McKeesport, Pa., although defense attorney Frank Pietranton of Weirton several times Monday claimed that his client resides at the Wright Motel near Chester.

BECK WAS jointly indicted with Benjamin J. Corbisello, 42, of Wellsville and Frank E. Bilotta, 53, of Pittsburgh who recently entered guilty pleas. U. S. District Court Judge Robert E. Maxwell has deferred their sentencing pending a presentencing investigation.

FBI agent Nortman T. Thompson of Pittsburgh told the jury of nine men and three women that he placed Beck under arrest on Nov. 5 and then searched him. He said he found $7,000 in cash in seven $1,000 bundles as well as five pairs of dice.

"He (Beck) said there was nothing wrong with visiting his wife in McKeesport," Thompson said he was told by the defendant following the arrest. The FBI agent also said they found "tally sheets" in Beck's possession.

Pietranton at one point said the defense "certainly admits" that Beck was at the Lantern Inn when the raid took place and had the money and the "takes" in his possession. "We admit there were gaming devices there and there was gambling of unequal chance," the Weirton attorney said.

HOWEVER, Pietranton refused to admit that Beck was the manager of the casino as claimed by the government.

Representing the government at the trial are Alfred King of the Justice Department's Organized Crime Division and District Atty. John H. Kamlowsky of Wheeling.

Nearly all of the FBI and Internal Revenue Service agents who testified Monday told of the surveillance of Beck in the McKeesport and Chester areas, prior to the raid.

Pietranton said he would be willing to stipulate that Beck was spotted in the two areas on the dates specified by the federal agents.

One FBI agent, George W. Stephan, told of gambling at the Lantern Inn on four occasions prior to the raid, conducted simultaneously with a raid on the nearby Red Dog Casino. Those charged in connection with the Red Dog raid are scheduled to go on trial next week.

Stephan said he played craps, blackjack and slot machines at the Lantern Inn, but did not engage in a "Beat My Shake" game also available to patrons. "I lost consistently in the gambling," Stephan said.

Scheduled to go on trial today is Sidney Ray Johnson, charged with the interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle. Kamlowsky said the offense allegedly committed by Johnson occurred in Morgantown.

PFC. CHARLES MELOTT
Funeral Services Set.

Rites Scheduled For Serviceman Killed In Action

should come before any decisions are made.

Fulbright again cited reports that President Johnson is considering sending up to 200,000 additional troops to Vietnam. A total of 525,000 men is now authorized.

"Congress has the right to initiate or declare war," Fulbright told Rusk. "It is still not too late to draw back before we get into a full scale, all-out war, possibly including nuclear wapons."

"No one is infallible," Fulbright continued in his opening statement "The wisest course is for all of us to consult together before further significant decisions are made. I do not understand why this is not acceptable to the administration".

Rusk replied that the President did consult with the chairmen of congressional committees and said the secretary of defense, as well as the secretary of state, frequently appeared before them.

"A good deal of consultation is going on here—yesterday, this morning—the views of the members of the committee were set forth rather clearly," Rusk said, referring to the six hours of testimony he gave Monday. Most of the questions came from four critics.

But Fulbright replied "I don't feel I heard anything yesterday about the plans of the administration in the immediate future. What I want to talk about is the exact, precise plans you have on escalation."

"You declined to answer," the chairman told the secretary with reference to the Monday questions on more troops.

Rusk repeated that in his last conversation with the President on Sunday he was told no new decisions have been made.

The secretary then referred to the 1964 Tonkin Gulf Resolution, in which Congress pledged all out support to the President after reports of attacks by North Vietnamese patrol boats on U.S. destroyers.

"I'm sorry you are bringing up that resolution," Fulbright said. "I think you used that resolution to prevent consultation, to prevent discussion."

The Fulbright committee investigated the incident that led to the resolution and has questioned administration accounts of what happened. Fulbright has said he considers the resolution "null and void," that it was based on misrepresentation.

In urging consultations with Congress, Fulbright said. "The idea is that we might influence you into a wiser policy."

Rusk said that public hearings were "not an easy system for the government to handle the details of military operations."

"You are confusing what I see as a clear distinction between daily operations" and policy Fulbright said.

Rusk told the committee: "The President has only the men and the money Congress makes available ... the President as commander in chief has to make the hard decisions about what is to be done with the men and money made available."

When Rusk expressed reluctance to spend another day before the committee after its grueling six-hour hearing Monday, Chairman J. W. Fulbright put his position bluntly:

"It will be impossible to proceed with foreign aid unless we can complete the hearing," said the Arkansas Democrat.

Fulbright, one of the Senate's most outspoken critics of President Johnson's war policies, also left no doubt as to the major question he wants Rusk to answer. That came when Rusk, asked about possible increases in U.S. troop levels, replied:

"Obviously the Tet offensive many subjects, including the calls for an examination of tactics and strategy of the enemy, the impact on the pacification program and on the military side."

"I can't speculate about decisions that have not been made or conclusions that have not been reached."

Fulbright quickly responded: "That's what we're talking about. Congress wants to be consulted on such matters before—not after—the decision is made."

Fulbright, wearing sunglasses in the glare of television lights —a shield Rusk lacked—said he had saved his prime questions for today's session.

Rusk urged that the hearing be continued into the night, but yielded to Fulbright's demands for a second round when the chairman posed the threat of bottling up foreign-aid legislation unless the secretary returned.

Although the hearing obstensibly was to consider the President's $3 billion foreign-aid request, the questioning turned quickly to Vietnam—and stayed there most of the time.

Although perspiring freely in the hot lights, the urbane Rusk remained otherwise cool, answering firmly but without noticeable emotion a whole series of sharply critical statements—many not even disguised as questions—put to him by the 18 committee members present.

And although the committee majority contains many of the administration's most bitter war-policy critics, Rusk also found a few friends.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., said he backed administration policy although asserting, "We've failed to tell the people there's a good reason for paying all this blood and treasure."

He suggested renaming the conflict the "Southeast Asia War" to impress on the public what he called its global implications.

And Sens. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, and John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., asserted Fulbright was wrong in saying the administration misled Congress in seeking the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, adoption of which immediately preceded a massive step-up in U.S. military activities in Vietnam.

But war policy critics asked the majority of the questions.

"Why are we in Vietnam?" asked Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, who has urged an end to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

Rusk: "To take steps to meet the common danger in the face of an attack by North Vietnam on South Vietnam."

Why didn't the administration respond to Hanoi's expressed willingness to negotiate if the bombing were halted? Mansfield asked.

Rusk: "They won't talk unless we stop the bombing, while their war goes on at whatever pace they want to pursue. There's no element of reason and fairness in that point of view.

"If we said we would negotiate only if they stopped their military activity in Vietnam while we continued the bombing, everybody would say we were crazy."

Asked why greater efforts weren't made to have the U.N. Security Counciai act on Vietnam, Rusk said Soviet opposition to that course would mean only "an eye-gouging debate without results."

What about peace efforts?

Rusk: "Almost literally, never a week passes without a new follow-up of some contact, some rumor, some comment dropped in diplomatic discussions, some thought of some government."

Acknowledging the war puts a severe strain on U.S. patience and resources, Rusk added:

"But to me, the alternative of abandoning this war is catastrophic—not just for Southeast Asia but for the United States."

Fulbright responded by asserting U.S. war policies are having "effects both abroad and at home that are nothing short of disastrous."

at all Phelps Dodge operations.

But a Phelps Dodge spokesman said "there is nothing else to bargain about" until the unions accept or reject its wage offer. He said the company would continue negotiations for the other plants not covered by the contract offer.

Kennecott Copper Corp. was reported near a similar contract offer to the unions, but a Kennecott spokesman said, "The issue of company-wide bargaining is still our No. 1 problem."

The 26 striking unions, representing more than 50,000 workers, are bargaining jointly for the first time in the industry's history and their demands for company-wide bargaining, similar wage hikes and simultaneous contract dates has dragged out the longest copper strike in history.

The other two firms, Anaconda Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co., were reported still far from settlement.

All four copper firms have rejected union demands for company-wide bargaining and simultaneous contract expiration dates, insisting on holding to the old pattern of negotiating separately for their various mines, smelters, refineries and fabricating plants.

President Johnson called the negotiators to the White House eight days ago and said the strike was hurting the nation's economy and could threaten supplies of weapons and ammunition for Vietnam if it continued.

Malik Back As Soviet's Aide At U.N.

Since the announcement almost two months ago that he would succeed Nikolai T. Fedorenko, U.N. diplomats have been trying to assess the significance of Malik's return. Some have asked whether it means a return to the cold war in which Malik played a key role.

Malik was the chief Soviet delegate from 1948 to 1953. During the first summer of the Korean war he became known in the press as "The Great Stone Face" because of his grim, unsmiling appearances in televised meetings of the U.N. Security Council.

Other diplomats think of Malik differently. He was the man who negotiated the lifting of Berlin blockade and who dropped the first hint in a speech in 1951 that the Communists were ready to begin negotiations to end the Korean war.

Since he left New York 15 years ago, he has been a deputy foreign minister and Soviet ambassador to London.

Officials To Get Bids On Garage At Landfill

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, comprising the Board of Control, were to open bids early this afternoon at City Hall on construction of a garage at the city's new landfill waste disposal site along the Y. & O. Rd. in Madison Township.

Council appropriated $6,000 late in 1967 to cover the cost. The building will be used primarily to house a bulldozer utilized daily in covering trash. It also will provide office space for Incinerator Supt. John Melvin.

The city is scheduled to abandon its present landfill site in Bloomfield and begin using the new dump in Madison Township. It is a former farm which was strip-mined for coal.

Chief Orders Repair Action In Fire Area

City Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne has issued tear down or repair orders to three owners of the fire - damaged Isaly Dairy building which also houses the Outdoor Army Store and former Bendheim Shoe Store.

Van Dyne, acting as a deputy fire marshal, said the three—Harold Bricker, owner of Isaly's; Sanford Weiner of the Army Store, and Atty. Ben Berman, who represents the owners of the Bendheim portion of the structure — now will be responsible for making either repairs or tearing down completely the building to make the area safe.

By signing an order "12-A", Van Dyne said, he now has the backing of the state fire marshal. The three received the orders Monday and today.

The E. 6th St. building was damaged March 3 by fire that swept through the Siff Shoe Store building on the Diamond.

The owners indicated today they are uncertain what their course of action will be. Weiner, owner of the Army store, said he and Bricker hope to be back in business soon, but no definite plans have been made.

Atty. Berman indicated his clients don't know what they're plans are yet. He said insurance adjustors were to meet with him today concerning the loss.

Van Dyne reported he is meeting today with various insurance companies to determine coverage on the buildings and the loss involved. The only claim yet settled, he explained, is American Legion Post 4 which was located in the Siff Shoe Store building. The Legion was covered for $5,000, he said, and the claim has been settled through Cooper Insurance.

There is a safety question about the Arrow Pants Shop building, Van Dyne declared. He said the walls on one side are weak and the top is cracked. An engineer will be requested to determine whether it is fit for occupancy as it now stands.

Crews from Mike Pusateri Contracting Co. are still in the process of demolishing the Siff building. A wall along the Arrow Pants Shop side of the structure still stands, and portions in the back have not been razed.

Traffic flow in the Diamond area is not yet back to normal.

Van Dyne said he will permit Frank Diamond, owner of a Men's Shop in the Thompson building, to open as soon as the Siff demolition is completed. That might be by the weekend, Van Dyne indicated.

Sites in East Liverpool are being studied by the Gilbert Shoe Stores, Inc., of Columbus which operated the Siff Shoe Store here, according to Mike Feuer, advertising and public relations manager for the chain.

Feuer said a real estate man and others were in East Liverpool today looking over possible sites for a new facility, but no decisions has been reached.

Representatives from the Ostrov Insurance Agency of Akron said today it might be two months before the Siff family reaches a decision on the property which housed the shoe store and Roberts Jewelers. Both Lawrence Siff of Cincinnati and David Siff of Akron,, both are in the south and cannot be reached.

In Hancock School System

Non-Teaching Personnel To Be Object Of Survey

NEW CUMBERLAND — A job classification and pay plan survey for non - teaching personnel in the Hancock County School system was approved at the Board of Education meeting Monday night.

The survey, to be conducted by J. L. Jacobs, Inc., at a cost of $5,800, is expected to require four months.

It was reported the school system now employs 260 non - teaching personnel. Teachers will not be included in the study. The purpose of which "is to place the different services performed by the employes in various categories, work out a development program, a classification system and a pay schedule plan."

In drawing the overall plan, comparison studies will be made of the various descriptive jobs with those in other school systems, locally and across the country, and those also performed in industry.

Interviews also will be held with the employes themsleves.

Following the assembling of data, conferences will be held and an overall plan will be drafted.

It was pointed out the survey will not conflict with the present study being conducted within the school system by Battelle Memorial Institute.

The board said the new survey will help the school to operate more efficiently in this area of work.

In other action, the board approved the hiring of a baseball coach at Oak Glen High School, the resignation of two teachers, the employment of two teachers, granted a leave of absence and the employment of two teacher aides.

John McDevitt was hired as baseball coach at Oak Glen. Tied in with the hiring was a query by the board to the principal of the school for an explanation on to why the delay in submitting McDevitt's name for employment.

They noted the delay was not in keeping with their adopted plan relative to submission of names.

Elementary teachers employed were Mrs. Irene Troia and Stephen Koneik. Resignations were received from Mrs. Toni Muscara and Mrs. Mildred King, both teach at Cove Elementary School.

Also approved by the board was an amendment to include all school employes in the tax-sheltered annuities program. Previously the program had only included the teacher. The plan was obtained by the school employes themselves.

Deaths and Funerals

Edward Libert

EAST PALESTINE — Edward G. Libert, 58, of 266 E. Martin St., a former First Ward councilman, died suddenly today at 3 a. m. of an apparent heart attack at Salem City Hospital, where he was taken about midnight by a fire department emergency car.

Born June 5, 1909, in East Palestine, he was a son of the late George Libert and Austie Louella Rife Libert. He was employed as a foreman at the Natco Plant, working last on Monday.

Mr. Libert was a member of the Cententary Methodist Church, American Legion Post 31, the Edward L. McGuckin VFW Post 4579 and the Loyal Order of Moose. He was an Army veteran of World War II. He was married Oct. 10, 1929, to the former Martha Whitehead.

Director Sought By County CAA For City Center

Applications are being sought by the Columbiana County Community Action Agency for the post of deputy director of the East Liverpool center.

The Rev. John Skelbred, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, has been director of the center since December, but has resigned effective Friday due to the press of church duties.

Applications for the post will be available at the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services in East Liverpool and Salem and at the Lisbon office of the CAA at 117 E. Washington St.

The position has a salary range of from $6,000 to $7,500. Applicants must have a college education or equivalent in executive of managerial experience.

The deputy director is to supervise the operations of the center and work with the advisory committee in designing and implementing programs under the Office of Economic Opportunity, and coordinating services of other agencies.

Applications are to be filed by March 26.

GOP To Push Teacher Pay Increase Bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Republican leaders prepared today to advance their $52.7 million bill proposing at least a $500 salary increase for all Pennsylvania teachers in the next school year.

But first, they had to contend with the determined efforts of a Philadelphia Democrat who hopes to tie the legislation with aid to the nonpublic schools.

The new salary bill was introduced by the House leadership Monday evening and quickly released by the GOP-controlled House Basic Education Committee. Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny, scheduled it for a vote Wednesday.

However, Rep. Martin P. Mullen, the legislature's most vocal advocate of aid for the nonpublic schools, warned:

"As soon as they attempt to move their bill, I'll be ready with my amendments. If this money is appropriated for the public schools without any consideration of nonpublic school aid, we'll never get it this year."

Mullen's amendment would have the state appropriate the $26 million for the purchase of secular education services offered by the nonpublic schools, which educate some 625,000 Pennsylvania pupils.

It is similar to a contentious House bill that was buried in the Republican-dominated House Appropriations Committee last year.

Prizes were donated by merchants of the Chester and Newell areas.

A buffet dinner followed.

The next meeting will be in March 1969.

Action Set On Zoning Change For 'Senior Citizens' Housing

The City Planning Commission Monday night set April 22 as the date of a required public hearing on a proposed change in zoning classification for a West End tract on which the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority will erect a high-rise apartment to provide housing for the elderly.

The structure is scheduled to be built on a tract which lies between Dresden Ave. and the Freeway, north of Moore St. The area now is zoned "R-3", which permits medium high density residential use. It is scheduled to be altered to "R-4," a new classification created by Council especially to cover high-rise apartments of the type planned by the housing authority.

THE HEARING is a formality required by law before the zoning can be changed. The Planning Commission is required to give 30 days' prior notice of such a hearing by publication of a legal advertisement. It also must send letters to owners of all other property within a radius of 200 feet.

First publication of the official notice of the hearing is scheduled next Monday.

Meeting in the Council chamber at City Hall, the commission also voted to recommend that Council eliminate from the zoning regulations the requirements for off-street parking space for new buildings erected in the central business district, the so-called "B-5" zone. The commission said questions about the regulations were raised by the Chamber of Commerce.

The regulations provide, for instance, that a retail business must have one off-street space "for each 150 square feet of gross fleor area, plus one for each two employes on the maximum work shift."

The motion to suggest the change was made by Mayor George E. Willshaw and seconded by Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

THE COMMISSION spent most of its meeting reviewing for the third time the zoning regulations affecting advertising signs. It discussed the definitions of many terms relating to outdoor advertising and retailers' signs, as well as restrictions placed on heights and maximum areas.

The study of the sign regulations began weeks ago after several district sign concerns asked modification of some of the provisions.

Others attending, in addition to Willshaw and Vodrey, were George Steele, chairman, J. Clifford Conley and Frank Mangano. Also joining in the discussions was Daniel Ziegler of Pittsburgh, a representative of the professional planning concern of Carroll V. Hill & Associates, the consultant preparing the city's master plan.

Ziegler advised the commission he is scheduled for a new assignment in Fayette County, Pa., and the consulting firm will assign another planner to the East Liverpool program.

Britain Gives Independence To Mauritius

PORT LOUIS, Mauritius (AP) — The Union Jack came down on the British island of Mauritius today and another small nation was born, free but poor and rent by feuds.

British Housing Minister Anthony Greenwood stood in for Princess Alexandra as the royal representative at the last minute because of the threat of violence between Moslems, who support independence, and Creoles opposed to it.

Mauritius, the Indian Ocean island where the flightless Dodo bird became extinct 250 years ago, is "too poor and too small for full independence," says opposition party leader Gaetain Duval, political leader of the Creole mulattoes.

Few Creoles saluted the new flag or paid much attention to the 31-gun salute. Duval estimates unemployment on the island at 20 to 25 per cent in a population of nearly 800,000 squeezed into just 720 square miles.

Murder Hearing Now Set April 29

WELLSBURG (AP) — Brooke County Circuit Judge Ralph Pryor has reset the murder trial of Charles Ravnell of Campbell, Ohio, originally scheduled to begin Monday, to April 29.

The continuance was granted to allow attorneys for the state and Ravnell more time to prepare their cases.

Police said a considerable amount of money being carried by Nagy was found at the scene of the slaying.

Director Sought By County CAA For City Center

The Rev. John Skelbred, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, has been director of the center since December, but has resigned effective Friday due to the press of church duties.

Applications for the post will be available at the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services in East Liverpool and Salem and at the Lisbon office of the CAA at 117 E. Washington St.

The position has a salary range of from $6,000 to $7,500. Applicants must have a college education or equivalent in executive of managerial experience.

The deputy director is to supervise the operations of the center and work with the advisory committee in designing and implementing programs under the Office of Economic Opportunity, and coordinating services of other agencies.

Applications are to be filed by March 26.

GOP To Push Teacher Pay Increase Bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Republican leaders prepared today to advance their $52.7 million bill proposing at least a $500 salary increase for all Pennsylvania teachers in the next school year.

But first, they had to contend with the determined efforts of a Philadelphia Democrat who hopes to tie the legislation with aid to the nonpublic schools.

The new salary bill was introduced by the House leadership Monday evening and quickly released by the GOP-controlled House Basic Education Committee. Majority Leader Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny, scheduled it for a vote Wednesday.

However, Rep. Martin P. Mullen, the legislature's most vocal advocate of aid for the nonpublic schools, warned:

"As soon as they attempt to move their bill, I'll be ready with my amendments. If this money is appropriated for the public schools without any consideration of nonpublic school aid, we'll never get it this year."

Mullen's amendment would have the state appropriate the $26 million for the purchase of secular education services offered by the nonpublic schools, which educate some 625,000 Pennsylvania pupils.

It is similar to a contentious House bill that was buried in the Republican-dominated House Appropriations Committee last year.

Officers Elected For Credit Union At Chester Event

Mrs. Delores Allison was returned to the position of president of Na Cho Federal Credit Union during the annual election Saturday night in the Chester VFW post home. Seventy-six attended.

Others named are Kenneth Durbin, vice president; Miss Rita Porter, secretary; Mrs. Jo Ann Grivas, treasurer; Durbin, Mrs. Isabelle Glendenning and Donald Carpenter, credit committee, and Mrs. June Matthews, Mrs. Marjorie Stefl and Mrs. Loretta Flasco, supervisory committee. All elected are employes of the Nationsl Church Supply Co.

Kenneth Jenkins of Charleston, managing director of the West Virginia Credit Union, spoke. He said a 3 per cent dividend has been declared on credit union members' savings.

Prizes were donated by merchants of the Chester and Newell areas.

A buffet dinner followed.

The next meeting will be in March 1969.

Action Set On Zoning Change For 'Senior Citizens' Housing

The City Planning Commission Monday night set April 22 as the date of a required public hearing on a proposed change in zoning classification for a West End tract on which the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority will erect a high-rise apartment to provide housing for the elderly.

The structure is scheduled to be built on a tract which lies between Dresden Ave. and the Freeway, north of Moore St. The area now is zoned "R-3", which permits medium high density residential use. It is scheduled to be altered to "R-4," a new classification created by Council especially to cover high-rise apartments of the type planned by the housing authority.

THE HEARING is a formality required by law before the zoning can be changed. The Planning Commission is required to give 30 days' prior notice of such a hearing by publication of a legal advertisement. It also must send letters to owners of all other property within a radius of 200 feet.

First publication of the official notice of the hearing is scheduled next Monday.

Meeting in the Council chamber at City Hall, the commission also voted to recommend that Council eliminate from the zoning regulations the requirements for off-street parking space for new buildings erected in the central business district, the so-called "B-5" zone. The commission said questions about the regulations were raised by the Chamber of Commerce.

The regulations provide, for instance, that a retail business must have one off-street space "for each 150 square feet of gross floor area, plus one for each two employes on the maximum work shift."

The motion to suggest the change was made by Mayor George E. Willshaw and seconded by Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

THE COMMISSION spent most of its meeting reviewing for the third time the zoning regulations affecting advertising signs. It discussed the definitions of many terms relating to outdoor advertising and retailers' signs, as well as restrictions placed on heights and maximum areas.

The study of the sign regulations began weeks ago after several district sign concerns asked modification of some of the provisions.

Others attending, in addition to Willshaw and Vodrey, were George Steele, chairman, J. Clifford Conley and Frank Mangano. Also joining in the discussions was Daniel Ziegler of Pittsburgh, a representative of the professional planning concern of Carroll V. Hill & Associates, the consultant preparing the city's master plan.

Ziegler advised the commission he is scheduled for a new assignment in Fayette County, Pa., and the consulting firm will assign another planner to the East Liverpool program.

Britain Gives Independence To Mauritius

PORT LOUIS, Mauritius (AP) — The Union Jack came down on the British island of Mauritius today and another small nation was born, free but poor and rent by feuds.

British Housing Minister Anthony Greenwood stood in for Princess Alexandra as the royal representative at the last minute because of the threat of violence between Moslems, who support independence, and Creoles opposed to it.

Mauritius, the Indian Ocean island where the flightless Dodo bird became extinct 250 years ago, is "too poor and too small for full independence," says opposition party leader Gaetain Duval, political leader of the Creole mulattoes.

Few Creoles saluted the new flag or paid much attention to the 31-gun salute. Duval estimates unemployment on the island at 20 to 25 per cent in a population of nearly 800,000 squeezed into just 720 square miles.

Murder Hearing Now Set April 29

WELLSBURG (AP) — Brooke County Circuit Judge Ralph Pryor has reset the murder trial of Charles Ravnell of Campbell, Ohio, originally scheduled to begin Monday, to April 29.

The continuance was granted to allow attorneys for the state and Ravnell more time to prepare their cases.

Police said a considerable amount of money being carried by Nagy was found at the scene of the slaying.

East Liverpool is hardly alone among favorites being eliminated from the state basketball tournament before reaching the "Sweet 16".

Three teams in the AP Top 10, Middletown, Sandusky and Dayton Dunbar, were eliminated in the sectionals. Along with East Liverpool, Cleveland East, defending champ Columbus Linden, McKinley and Cuyahoga Falls were downed in the districts, as was unbeaten Brookfield. Remaining members of the Top 10 are top-ranked Columbus East, third-ranked Toledo Central and fifth-ranked Newark. Columbus East and Newark are both in the Columbus regional, though the teams don't meet in the first round.

A DISAPPOINTED crowd of 2,422 was on hand for the Steubenville District finals Saturday night, the smallest crowd of the AA sectionals and regionals there. There were 4,134 on hand Thursday night for the semi-finals, with East Liverpool fans making up a good portion of the crowd. Thursday night's attendance was the largest of the tournament, though well short of the 5,500 seating capacity of the arena.

Tournament officials expressed the hope that in the future the teams from the Steubenville and Martins Ferry regionals would not be paired in the first round, as this cut the crowd for the finals. Not too many Zanesville fans made the trip.

AL BAILEY, former East Liverpool all-star cager, will be the featured speaker at the Potter basketball banquet March 26. Bailey coached the unbeaten Duquesne freshmen this past season.

RICHARD MARTIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Martin of 3300 St. Clair Ave., received a certificate in junior basketball at Mercersburg (Pa.) Academy this past season.

THERE IS NO question but that Adolph Rupp of Kentucky is one of the most venerable of all college cage coaches. Saturday night at Kent State, John McPherson, a Southeastern Conference official working the first game, spotted a Kentucky scout during a timeout and asked, "How's the Old Man (Rupp)?" When informed he was fine, McPherson said, "He'll probably be alive at 104 — and coaching someplace".

PITTSBURGH (AP) — If history is any indication — and there's no reason to think it isn't — Laurel Highlands has earned the favorite's role to win the PIAA Class A basketball championship.

The Mustangs are still three victories away from that title after crushing Donora, the last unbeaten team in western Pennsylvania, 74-53 Monday night for their first WPIAL District 7 crown.

Paced by the incredible Wilbert Robinson, a 6-foot-2 leaper, the Mustangs have won their four tournament games by 12 points or more and upped their record to 24-2, both one - point losses.

"I felt we were more ready for this game than we were for any game since we played Uniontown," said Coach Horse Taylor as he munched on some victory cake. "I told the kids we had to beat them on the boards and we did."

The Mustangs first eliminated neighborhood rival Uniontown 74-46 and then rolled over Jeannette 88-50 and Duquesne 67-55. Robinson, who scored 35 points — three shy of the WPIAL title game record — against Donora, finished with 115 for the tourney in four games.

Although District 1 champion Cheltenham is now the state's only unbeaten team, precedent supports Laurel Highlands. Thirteen of the last 19 state champions have come from District 7 and four other WPIAL representatives were beaten in the finals. The district titles this year both for Laurel Highlands and Chelteham were their first.

Homer Center of District 6 extended its winning streak to 26 as it beat Conemaugh Township (5) 63-50 in a PIAA Class B first round game Monday night.

In Class C, Lakeland (2) nipped Northeast Bradford (4) 47-45 and Mount Penn (3) topped Schuylkill Haven (11) 67-58 in first round games. North East (10) beat Allegheny-Clarion Valley (9) 76-68 and Williamsburg (6) ripped Meyersdale (5) 92-58 in quarterfinals.

Laurel Highlands didn't take charge against Donora until the second half but once it did, the game was never in doubt. In an 11-minute stretch the Mustangs outscored Donora 31-11 and the title dreams of the tiny Dragons were ended. Donora, with only one player over six feet tall, had won 22 in a row.

The difference was the boards —Laurel Highlands outrebounded Donora 54-30 including a 40-19 margin the last three quarters. Robinson hauled in 16, Jim Hobgood 12 and Ed Harrison 11.

Hobgood, a junior, added 18 points and Harrison 10 while Bernie Galiffa, who made 10-of-13 field goal tries, scored 21 and Malcolm Lomax 14 for Donora.

The victory was costly for the Mustangs, though. Tommy Bogden, a starting guard, broke an ankle in a first quarter spill and will miss the rest of the tournament.

Laurel Highlands next will meet the District 6 champion Saturday night at Johnstown in a PIAA quarterfinal. Huntingdon and Johnstown meet for the District 6 title Wednesday night at Tyrone.

Radatz Wild In Debut

Reds Outlast Pirates 11-7

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Three pitchers who have known better times—Dick Radatz, Jim O'Toole and Steve Barber—ran into roadblocks Monday along the baseball comeback trail.

Radatz, the once-mighty Monster of the Boston Red Sox' bullpen, is trying to win a spot on the Chicago Cubs' relief corps. He came on in the fourth inning with the Cubs trailing San Francisco 2-1 in their exhibition game.

Radatz walked the first three men, uncorked two wild pitches and hit a batter and two runs were in. Manager Leo Durocher yanked him when he walked the first two batters in the next inning. The Giants went on to a 7-2 victory.

O'Toole, a 19-game winner in Cincinnati's 1961 pennant push and now trying to catch on with the pitching-rich Chicago White Sox, fared somewhat better. But he still was clipped for two runs in three innings and was the losing pitcher as the Los Angeles Dodgers trounced the Chisox 7-2.

Barber's misfortune took the form of an eight-run second inning in the New York Yankees' 11-7 loss to Washington. Barber compiled a 10-18 record last season with Baltimore and New York and showed signs of regaining his 20-game form of 1963.

But Washington teed off on him with two-run doubles by Paul Casanova and Eddie Brinkman and a 450-foot, three-run homer by Mike Epstein.

One player received the pink slip Monday. Tito Fuentes, who has spent the past few seasons at shortstop, second base and on the San Francisco bench, was optioned to the Giants' Phoenix farm club.

Fuentes was last heard of in the Dominican Republic several weeks ago and a Giants' spokesman said he had missed too much training to catch up now.

Otherwise, the Grapefruit and Cactus League developments were what you might expect after less than a week of exhibition games. The Oakland Athletics started their first-stringers in a so-called B squad game and then had to call on the scrubs to beat Pittsburgh 4-3.

Someone forgot to tell the pitchers they're supposed to be ahead of the hitters. The world champion St. Louis Cardinals edged Boston 6-5 in 10 innings in a rematch of last October's World Series.

Besides the Senator-Yankee slugfest, there was another 11-7 game with Bob Raudman's pinch three-run homer propelling Cincinnati to victory over Pittsburgh's 'A' squad. And Detroit, with Jim Northrup and Ed Mathews driving in three runs apiece, walloped Philadelphia 9-5.

Orlando Cepeda, the National League's Most Valuable Player, outlegged an infield hit to drive in the winning run for St. Louis. Cepeda had homered earlier, along with teammate Mike Shannon and Boston's Reggie Smith, Mike Andrews and Gene Oliver.

The big Red Sox guns—Carl Yastrzemski, Tony Conigliaro and George Scott—failed to hit in seven at-bats.

The Mets edged Houston 4-3 in 11 innings on a bases-loaded walk to Jerry Morales, a rookie outfielder. Woodie Held drove in one run and scored the other as the California Angels edged Cleveland 2-1.

Atlanta beat Minnesota 6-4 in an error-filled night game.

Houston Holds Top In Final Cage Poll

By MURRAY CHASS

Houston, which has held the top position since upsetting defending champion UCLA Jan. 20, wound up in the No. 1 spot today in the final Associated Press major college basketball poll.

The Cougars, who have romped past 29 opponents without a loss this season, received 253 points, 12 more than UCLA, which was a clear-cut choice for the top spot last season when it went unbeaten.

Houston's total was built on 19 votes for first and seven for second. UCLA's figures were the exact opposite.

St. Bonaventure, at 23-0 the only other undefeated team in the country, placed third, but only one other team, No. 9 Louisville, retained its spot from last week.

Kentucky, which was idle last week, and North Carolina, winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, switched places, Kentucky slipping to fifth and North Carolina moving into fourth.

Duke, the 12-10 victim of an effective North Carolina State stall, plummeted from sixth to 10th, creating a shift among three other positions.

New Mexico climbed into sixth and Columbia into seventh, each advancing one notch, while Davidson leapfrogged past Louisville, from 10th to eighth.

All members of the Top Ten have concluded their regular-season schedules, but all are involved in post-season play. Duke begins play against Oklahoma City in the National Invitation Tournament Thursday night while the others compete in the NCAA tournament this weekend.

Houston started its bid to succeed UCLA as the national champion last Saturday with a 94-76 victory over Chicago Loyola. UCLA, meanwhile, was winding up its regular schedule with a 72-64 triumph over Southern California and a 25-1 record.

St. Bonaventure, Columbia and Davidson also won first-round NCAA contests.

1.	Houston (19)	253
2.	UCLA (7)	241
3.	St. Bonaventure	185
4.	North Carolina	179
5.	Kentucky	147
6.	New Mexico	85
7.	Columbia	82
8.	Davidson	77
9.	Louisville	70

Washington Senators More Suited To Football

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — If basketball or football was the Washington Senators' game, they'd be a tough bunch to bring down.

Physically, the 1968 Senators should dwarf American League rivals—from 6-foot-5 Jim Lemon, their rookie manager, down the line. If they stand half as tall against opposing pitchers, Washington could muscle into the first division for the first time in 22 years.

Gil Hodges accomplished a minor miracle last year, piloting the Senators to a share of sixth place. Then he moved on to New York, where the Mets were sorely in need of a miracle worker.

Lemon, former Washington outfielder and Minnesota coach, inherits a team that batted .223, worst in the majors, and had the second lowest pitching rating in the American League.

Big Jim could sustain the upward swing started by his predecessor—if the king-size Senators add a few points to their bite-size batting averages and the pitchers trim down their fat ERAs.

Frank Howard, the man mountain of the Washington outfield at 6-7 and 260 pounds, provided most of the offensive punch last season, batting .256, slamming 36 homers and driving in 89 runs. He'll be back in left field after a 10-day holdout that netted him a $47,500 salary —highest in the club's history.

First baseman Mike Epstein, who fell short of his rave rookie notices after Baltimore dealt him to the Senators, stands 6-3½ and has trimmed down from 230 to 220 pounds. Rookie second baseman Frank Coggins is 6-2 and 185; recently acquired shortstop Ron Hansen, 6-3 and 200, and returning third sacker Ken McMullen, 6-3 and 195.

Fred Valentine, Hank Allen, Cap Peterson, Sam Bowens, Ed Stroud and rookie Del Unser, candidates for the other two outfield positions, average 6-1 and 190. Regular catcher Paul Casanova comes in at 6-4, 200, and Bill Bryan, his probable back-up man, is 6-4 and 215. Reliever Casey Cox, 6-5, is high man on a tall order pitching staff.

Epstein, who hit only .226, with nine homers, in 105 games with Washington, could be the key to the Senators' 1968 prospects. "He was too tight—trying too hard to make good," Lemon said. "All he has to do is relax, be himself, and he'll be the hitter he was when he was Mr. All-Everything in the minors."

Coggins came up from Hawaii at the tail end of the season and swatted .307. Subsequently, the Senators traded holdover second baseman Tim Cullen to the Chicago White Sox for Hansen, whose .233 mark was 45 points higher than glove man Ed Brinkman hit for Washington.

"Hansen gives us another bat in the infield," said General Manager George Selkirk.

Ohio State, Iowa Clash In Big 10 Playoff Tonight

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Iowa and Ohio State will play for an NCAA basketball tourney berth tonight in a game with the background to fill a substantial part of the 14,200 seats at neutral Purdue Arena.

Both lost to third-place Purdue in the glittering new basketball palace, Iowa 86-73 and Ohio State 93-72.

The Big Ten co-titlists met only once during the regular season. Iowa trailed by 13 points at Iowa City, caught up at 64-64 at the end of regulation time and won in overtime 74-72 on a 15-foot jump shot by Ron Norman.

Both teams finished the regular conference campaign knotted at 10-4 after Iowa suffered a stunning 71-70 loss to Michigan last Saturday at Iowa City.

Coach Fred Taylor of Ohio State, which finished five days earlier and counted its season over, said happily, "It's incredible any way you look at it but I'm awfully tickled our kits get another chance."

Coach Ralph Miller of Iowa said he thought "Ohio State is in a great position. They haven't had any worries for a week and we've been up down and around the horn."

Ohio State has the hottest shooting team in Big Ten history, with a field goal accuracy record of 51.6 per cent. Iowa has a stunning one-two punch of Sam Williams and Chad Calabria, who averaged 41.3 points between them for 24 games against all opposition.

Williams got 32 points in the earlier game at Iowa City. Bill Hosket of Ohio State made 26 and has a special incentive the second time around. He missed two free throws in the overtime and set up Norman's winning fielder.

Iowa has won or shared in six Big Ten titles and last played in the NCAA tourney in 1956. It lost the title game to San Franciso. Ohio State has been champion or co-champion six times in the last 10 years.

Ohio is the oldest state to have been carved out of the Northwest Territory.

Westminster Nudges Pasadena On Tip-In

Westminster tied the score with three minutes left on Mike Dresspling's jump shot, then regained the ball with 2:38 left and played for one last shot. Dresspling took it and missed but Robinson, surrounded by Pasadena players, leaped high and tipped it in.

Dresspling finished with 19 points while Robinson had 12. Ben Foster scored 21 for Pasadena, 26-5, which led 40-32 at halftime and held the advantage most of the second half.

Gregory Award To Rinka

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Kenyon star John Rinka, an Associated Press second - team All-American, is the first sphomore in Ohio Conference history to capture the coveted Mike Gregory Award.

It also marks the first time that the award, given to the OC's Most Valuable Player, ever has been won by a guard.

Rinka, rated the most prolific scorer ever to play in the league, is a 5-foot-9 product of Milwaukee, Wis.

He was the OC's top scorer and was among the 10 best in the NCAA college division with a 31.8 average while leading the Lords to a 23-5 record.

His season output of 891 points easily surpassed the conference's single season record of 711 set by Otterbein's Don Carlos in 1966. Rinka also broke the single game mark of 54 when he drilled in 55 against Kentucky Southern.

With two years remaining, Rinka appears likely to break every OC scoring record. Rinka is the second Kenyon player to cop the Gregory Award. Center Jeff Slade won the honor in 1962.

Bob Dawson Gets 3-Year Contract

Dawson was praised for an "exceptional job as basketball coach and as health and physical education teacher". Dawson, a former East Liverpool and Bowling Green cage standout, and former East Liverpool assistant, led the Tigers in his first season to an 8-10 regular season mark and one win in the sectional tourney before being sidelined by East Liverpool. Last year the Tigers went 3-15 in regular season.

The board also voted to give a three-year contract to the new football coach, when hired, in view of the fact that since Wellsville did not have football last year the coach will have to start with a new team. Superintendent Donald Lowe reported that of the 13 applicants for the job 12 have returned their application forms. Board President William Ferrall said that a meeting of the board will be called to select a new coach when the final application form is returned.

Zeke Moore Wins AFL Return Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Rookie Zeke Moore of the Houston Oilers beat out another rookie, Noland Smith of Kansas City, for the kickoff return title in the American Football League last season, official final statistics revealed today.

Moore returned 14 kickoffs for 405 yards and an average of 28.9 yards a carry, edging Smith, who averaged 28.0 on 41 returns for 1,148 yards.

Smith, the Chiefs' 5-foot-6¼ rookie, ran back the most kickoffs for the most yards and also set a league record with a 106-yard touchdown return against Denver.

Two other rookies, Floyd Little of Denver and Dick Post of San Diego, were third and fourth, Little averaging 26.9 and Post 24.7.

Denver, as a team, had the best average, 25.3 yards, to 23.5 for Kansas City.

Pro Golfers Balking At TV Contracts

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — A showdown between the PGA and big name golfers on its pro tour was averted Monday when the PGA backed off from plans to have the golfers sign away long-term television rights.

The PGA said a new tournament entry form was to have been used at the Citrus Open in Orlando, Fla., which begins Thursday.

The new form required players to commit themselves into the indeterminate future for all television rights. Golfers now waive rights for each single tournament as they enter. Pro golfers do not receive direct television payments for PGA tournaments except what is included in their winnings.

There were reports circulating after the Doral Open in Miami that players would not sign the new contracts, the latest skirmish in a long series of disputes between the PGA (Professional Golfers Association) and players on the pro tour. Golfers have demanded more voice in conduct of the tour.

Robinson's 35 Leads Laurel Highlands To WPIAL Title

East Liverpool is hardly alone among favorites being eliminated from the state basketball tournament before reaching the "Sweet 16".

Three teams in the AP Top 10, Middletown, Sandusky and Dayton Dunbar, were eliminated in the sectionals. Along with East Liverpool, Cleveland East, defending champ Columbus Linden, McKinley and Cuyahoga Falls were downed in the districts, as was unbeaten Brookfield. Remaining members of the Top 10 are top-ranked Columbus East, third-ranked Toledo Central and fifth-ranked Newark. Columbus East and Newark are both in the Columbus regional, though the teams don't meet in the first round.

A DISAPPOINTED crowd of 2,422 was on hand for the Steubenville District finals Saturday night, the smallest crowd of the AA sectionals and regionals there. There were 4,134 on hand Thursday night for the semi-finals, with East Liverpool fans making up a good portion of the crowd. Thursday night's attendance was the largest of the tournament, though well short of the 5,500 seating capacity of the arena.

Tournament officials expressed the hope that in the future the teams from the Steubenville and Martins Ferry regionals would not be paired in the first round, as this cut the crowd for the finals. Not too many Zanesville fans made the trip.

AL BAILEY, former East Liverpool all-star cager, will be the featured speaker at the Potter basketball banquet March 26. Bailey coached the unbeaten Duquesne freshmen this past season.

RICHARD MARTIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Martin of 3300 St. Clair Ave., received a certificate in junior basketball at Mercersburg (Pa.) Academy this past season.

THERE IS NO question but that Adolph Rupp of Kentucky is one of the most venerable of all college cage coaches. Saturday night at Kent State, John McPherson, a Southeastern Conference official working the first game, spotted a Kentucky scout during a timeout and asked, "How's the Old Man (Rupp)?" When informed he was fine, McPherson said, "He'll probably be alive at 104 — and coaching someplace".

Donora Suffers 1st Loss Of Year

Pro Golfers Balking At TV Contracts

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — A showdown between the PGA and big name golfers on its pro tour was averted Monday when the PGA backed off from plans to have the golfers sign away long-term television rights.

The PGA said a new tournament entry form was to have been used at the Citrus Open in Orlando, Fla., which begins Thursday.

The new form required players to commit themselves into the indeterminate future for all television rights. Golfers now waive rights for each single tournament as they enter. Pro golfers do not receive direct television payments for PGA tournaments except what is included in their winnings.

There were reports circulating after the Doral Open in Miami that players would not sign the new contracts, the latest skirmish in a long series of disputes between the PGA (Professional Golfers Association) and players on the pro tour. Golfers have demanded more voice in conduct of the tour.

Ohio State, Iowa Clash In Big 10 Playoff Tonight

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Iowa and Ohio State will play for an NCAA basketball tourney berth tonight in a game with the background to fill a substantial part of the 14,200 seats at neutral Purdue Arena.

Both lost to third-place Purdue in the glittering new basketball palace, Iowa 86-73 and Ohio State 93-72.

The Big Ten co-titlists met only once during the regular season. Iowa trailed by 13 points at Iowa City, caught up at 64-64 at the end of regulation time and won in overtime 74-72 on a 15-foot jump shot by Ron Norman.

Both teams finished the regular conference campaign knotted at 10-4 after Iowa suffered a stunning 71-70 loss to Michigan last Saturday at Iowa City.

Coach Fred Taylor of Ohio State, which finished five days earlier and counted its season over, said happily, "It's incredible any way you look at it but I'm awfully tickled our kits get another chance."

Coach Ralph Miller of Iowa said he thought "Ohio State is in a great position. They haven't had any worries for a week and we've been up down and around the horn."

Ohio State has the hottest shooting team in Big Ten history, with a field goal accuracy record of 51.6 per cent. Iowa has a stunning one-two punch of Sam Williams and Chad Calabria, who averaged 41.3 points between them for 24 games against all opposition.

Williams got 32 points in the earlier game at Iowa City. Bill Hosket of Ohio State made 26 and has a special incentive the second time around. He missed two free throws in the overtime and set up Norman's winning fielder.

Iowa has won or shared in six Big Ten titles and last played in the NCAA tourney in 1956. It lost the title game to San Franciso. Ohio State has been champion or co-champion six times in the last 10 years.

Ohio is the oldest state to have been carved out of the Northwest Territory.

Westminster Nudges Pasadena On Tip-In

Westminster tied the score with three minutes left on Mike Dresplng's jump shot, then regained the ball with 2:38 left and played for one last shot. Dresplng took it and missed but Robinson, surrounded by Pasadena players, leaped high and tipped it in.

Dresplng finished with 19 points while Robinson had 12. Ben Foster scored 21 for Pasadena, 26-5, which led 40-32 at halftime and held the advantage most of the second half.

Gregory Award To Rinka

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Kenyon star John Rinka, an Associated Press second - team All-American, is the first sphomore in Ohio Conference history to capture the coveted Mike Gregory Award.

It also marks the first time that the award, given to the OC's Most Valuable Player, ever has been won by a guard.

Rinka, rated the most prolific scorer ever to play in the league, is a 5-foot-9 product of Milwaukee, Wis.

He was the OC's top scorer and was among the 10 best in the NCAA college division with a 31.8 average while leading the Lords to a 23-5 record.

His season output of 891 points easily surpassed the conference's single season record of 711 set by Otterbein's Don Carlos in 1966. Rinka also broke the single game mark of 54 when he drilled in 55 against Kentucky Southern.

With two years remaining, Rinka appears likely to break every OC scoring record. Rinka is the second Kenyon player to cop the Gregory Award. Center Jeff Slade won the honor in 1962.

Bob Dawson Gets 3-Year Contract

Bob Dawson, Wellsville basketball coach, was given a three-year contract by the Wellsville school board at its meeting last night.

Dawson was praised for an "exceptional job as basketball coach and as health and physical education teacher". Dawson, a former East Liverpool and Bowling Green cage standout, and former East Liverpool assistant, led the Tigers in his first season to an 8-10 regular season mark and one win in the sectional tourney before being sidelined by East Liverpool. Last year the Tigers went 3-15 in regular season.

The board also voted to give a three-year contract to the new football coach, when hired, in view of the fact that since Wellsville did not have football last year the coach will have to start with a new team. Superintendent Donald Lowe reported that of the 13 applicants for the job 12 have returned their application forms. Board President William Ferrall said that a meeting of the board will be called to select a new coach when the final application form is returned.

Zeke Moore Wins AFL Return Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Rookie Zeke Moore of the Houston Oilers beat out another rookie, Noland Smith of Kansas City, for the kickoff return title in the American Football League last season, official final statistics revealed today.

Moore returned 14 kickoffs for 405 yards and an average of 28.9 yards a carry, edging Smith, who averaged 28.0 on 41 returns for 1,148 yards.

Smith, the Chiefs' 5-foot-6¼ rookie, ran back the most kickoffs for the most yards and also set a league record with a 106-yard touchdown return against Denver.

Two other rookies, Floyd Little of Denver and Dick Post of San Diego, were third and fourth, Little averaging 26.9 and Post 24.7.

Denver, as a team, had the best average, 25.3 yards, to 23.5 for Kansas City.

McConnell Has Best Potter Coaching Mark

Clint McConnell, with his fine 19-2 mark this past season, has taken over as the coach with the best winning percentage in the history of East Liverpool High School basketball.

McConnell has posted a 36-8 mark for two seasons for a .818 percentage, better than the .812 mark recorded by Don Ogden in 1945-46. The most wins for any one Potter coach is 169, racked up by Merrill Hall in 10 seasons from 1947 through 1956. Hall also coached the Potter team that got the closest to the state championship, guiding his first team to the state finals.

There have been 19 coaches of East Liverpool High since 1909. The Potters have compiled a fine 830-452 mark in that time, for an excellent .648 percentage. The only two long-time rivals to hold an edge on the Potters are Martins Ferry, by 32-30, and Canton McKinley, by 24-12. In contrast, East Liverpool is 44-8 against Wellsville, 22-5 against Steubenville Central, 49-15 against Toronto, 33-11 against Bellaire, 22-8 against East Palestine, 26-10 against Lisbon, 68-29 against Steubenville, 23-10 against Warren Harding, 47-30 against Salem and 20-17 against Alliance.

F. Robinson Leads Chicago Over Royals

By The Associated Press

Flynn Robinson's last-minute heroics pushed the Chicago Bulls a step closer to a playoff berth, but his former Cincinnati mates didn't appreciate the move.

Robinson, who came to the Bulls from the Royals earlier in the season, flipped in a basket and a pair of free throws in the final minute, sending the Bulls to a 104-98 National Basketball Association victory over Cincinnati.

Chicago's magic number — a combination of Chicago wins or Seattle losses — for a Western Division playoff spot is now two over the fifth-place SuperSonics. The Bulls have seven games left, Seattle six.

Cincinnati, battling for the last playoff spot in the Eastern Division, dropped to fifth place, and trails Detroit by one game. Baltimore is only one percentage point behind the Royals in the torrid race.

Oscar Robertson kept the Royals in contention with 37 points, including 13 in the last quarter when the Royals got within four points with a minute remaining to play, after trailing 84-73.

But Robinson, who had 19 points, then came through with his key poinst. Barry Clemens added a bucket at the buzzer for the Bulls.

Bob Boozer also had 19 points and McCoy McLemore 18, in the Bulls' balanced scoring attack.

John Havlicek paced the Celtics over Seattle with 27 points. Boston took a 62-53 halftime lead but the Sonics bounced back and early in the final quarter went ahead at 95-94 on Rod Thorn's jumper.

But Bill Russell got Boston the lead again 30 seconds later and the Celtics never were headed.

Tom Meschery had 22 points for Seattle, which played without backcourt ace Walt Hazzard, sidelined with an infected lip.

Kentucky Colonels Climbing In ABA East

By The Associated Press

There go the Denver Rockets and here come the Kentucky Colonels.

Both teams won crucial American Basketball Association games Monday night. The Rockets defeated Dallas 119-105 and took a firmer grip on second place in the Western Division while the Colonels trounced Oakland 120-107 and climbed to within 1½ games of fourth-place New Jersey in the East.

No other games were scheduled.

Denver opened up a 35-22 lead over Dallas in the first period and pulled 1½ games ahead of the third-place Chaparrals and to within 2½ of division-leading New Orleans.

Kentucky's hot-shooting guards, Louie Dampier and Darel Carrier, scored 30 and 28 points, respectively, in the Colonels' triumph over Oakland. Carrier's total included two three-point baskets.

Jim Ligon added 21 points as the Colonels surged to a 10-point lead after one period and led the rest of the way. Andy Anderson had 24 for the Oaks, whose defeat dropped them into the Western Division cellar, a half-game behind Anaheim.

Mount Union Easily Wins OC Track

GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mount Union—led by Vaughn Davis' record hurl in the shot put—turned the Ohio Conference Indoor Track and Field Championships into a bout to easily clinch the title Saturday.

The Purple Raiders piled up 150 points, 66 more than runner-up Baldwin-Wallace, in two days of competition at Denison University's Alumni Memorial Field House.

Davis hurled the shot 53 feet, ¼ inches in the only record smashing event of the day. He bettered the old mark of 51-9¾ set in 1958 by a Capital University hurler.

Team totals: Mount Union 150; Baldwin-Wallace 84, Denison 55; Capital 45; Wooster 30; Ohio Wesleyan 30; Muskingum 19; Hiram 16; Wittenberg 15; Kenyon 12; Oberlin 7; Otterbein 1; Marietta 1.

Reark's Leads City Bowling Tournament

Jimmie's Turf Bar, last year's champions, is currently in second place with 2,979 pins. Johnson Plumbing and Heating placed third with a 2,958 score followed by Cornell Trucking, 2,900; Gengerella Brothers with 2,892 and Friendly Lanes with 2,892.

The tournament will be concluded next Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Cy Shaffer led Reark's Cigars with the high game thus far for the tournament with a 248. Other shooting high scores were John Mills, 236; Jack Rudibaugh 229; Jack Hague 225; George Simballa and Bob McGaffic 223; and J. Farnam 220.

Rudibaugh also posted the high series with a 624 followed by Mills with a 613; Shaffer, 612; Hague 582; and Ralph Yanni 571.

Miami Dominates Ohio State Track

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Miami dominated competition in the Ohio State University Invitational Track Championships and wound up with five victories by the time the meet ended Saturday.

The Redskins' Ted Downing established a new record for the French Field House when he leaped an even seven feet in Saturday's high jump competition, bettering the old mark of 6-10 set by Cornelius Linsay of Cincinnati a year ago.

Miami finished with five championships while Ohio State claimed four. Murray State followed with three, Eastern Kentucky two and Illinois and Kentucky had one each.

Ashland Faces Cheyney In Small-College Opener

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Kentucky Wesleyan, ranked second nationally, is rated the favorite in the eight-team finale of the NCAA college division basketball tournament opening Wednesday with four games.

The Panthers, winners of the 1966 Championship, have a 25-3 record plus an 18-game winning streak. They play unranked American International of Springfield, Mass., in the first round. The Yellow Jackets are 21-4.

The game opens Wednesday's evening show at Roberts Municipal Stadium at 8 p.m., EST, followed by the Evansville Purple Aces, 20-7, facing Trinity's Tigers of San Antonio, 21-6. The Aces are ranked No. 8 and the Tigers No. 10.

In afternoon openers starting at 2:30 p.m., EST, the Cheyney State Wolves of Pennsylvania, 22-6, meet the Ashland Eagles of Ohio, 22-5, and the ninth-ranked Indiana State Sycamores, 21-7, clash with the Nevada Southern Rebels, 22-6.

The semifinals are Thursday night and the windup Friday night.

Cheyney, Kentucky Wesleyan and Evansville, titlist in 1959, 1960, 1964 and 1965, are the only schools in the field to have made the Evansville finals previously.

McMillian, Unseld Join Cage Boycott

NEW YORK (AP) — The number of college basketball stars who will pass up their chance to make the U.S. Olympic team has grown to five while Life Magazine quotes Lew Alcindor as "not wanting to get caught in the middle" of the growing Olympic boycott movement.

Westley Unseld, the two-time All-American from Louisville said Monday in Louisville, Ky. that he was "weary" from playing and that he would pass up the Olympic trials later this month in Albuquerque, N.M.

Concentrating on school work was the reason given by Alcindor and his UCLA teammates Mike Warren and Lucius Allen for not trying out for the team. But Life said the trio admitted their refusal was "implicit approval of the boycott."

J. D. Morgan, athletic director at UCLA, said the three players decision not to enter the trials "was entirely scholastic. They'd miss eight days of school they couldn't afford to miss," Morgan said.

Alcindor, Warren, Allen and Unseld are Negroes. The fifth player to say he would not try out for the Olympic team was Neal Walk of Florida who is white.

Dave Bing Headed For Scoring Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Bing of Detroit is fairly certain to become the National Basketball Association's scoring champion, statistics released by the league today showed.

With an average of 27.3 points per game, Bing is well ahead of runner-up Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles who has a 25.9 point average. Wilt Chamberlain is equally assured of winning the field-goal percentage title. His present percentage is .584.

Oscar Robertson is comfortably ahead in the free throw percentage race with an .867 mark.

Brundage Bucking Own Committee

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — A majority of the members of the International Olympics Committee's executive board has called for a meeting of the entire IOC to consider the South African problem, but IOC President Avery Brundage says no.

Any decision to call a meeting of the full IOC will have to be made by the board when it meets to discuss the withdrawal of more than 40 nations because of the IOC's decision to readmit South Africa to the Mexico games in October.

"It is possible for the president to call a full meeting, but he won't," said Brundage in Chicago. Brundage said he was surprised that the five members had called for the full meeting.

He said he had discussed calling an executive board meeting here on April 20. Those calling for the meeting of the full IOC say an executive board meeting makes little sense since only the full IOC can vote to change the decision to readmit South Africa.

ABA Holds Early Draft Session

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Although Commissioner George Mikan preferred to call it an "evaluation session," it was learned Monday that the American Basketball Association held a prelimniary draft last weekend at Louisville.

Each of the 11 ABA clubs claimed negotiation rights to about four of the nation's top college players for purposes of trying to sign them to contracts as soon as their collegiate competition ends.

For some seniors this is not until the end of the NCAA, NIT and NAIA tournaments. Others have already finished this season's play.

"Technically, this is not our draft," Mikan said from ABA headquarters here. "We had an evaluation session of ballplayers. We exchanged notes, getting ourselves prepared for our annual draft, which will be April 27 in Los Angeles.

Pabst Team Takes Lead In Bowling

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Pabst Blue Ribbon team of Detroit shot a 2,970 series Monday night to climb into second place in the regular team standings of the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

The Pabsts rolled games of 1,007, 988 and 975 as they narrowly missed overtaking first-place Associated Graphic Suppliers, also of Detroit, which shot 2,981 Sunday night.

Jay Dishong anchored the runners-up with 236-237-215—688.

The Rhode Island Bombers of Warwick moved into fourth place in the booster team standings with 2,704. Powell's Restaurant No. 1, Frankfort, Ky., continued to dominate the ABC's duffer division with 2,768.

The only change in the minors came as James Brickman of Lyndhurst, Ohio, claimed sixth place in regular all-events with a nine-game total of 1,887.

Hammondsville Group To Meet

Ray Berry Announces Retirement

BALTIMORE (AP) — Raymond Berry, the National Football League's all-time leading pass receiver who announced his retirement from the Baltimore Colts over the weekend, was, despite his individual brilliance, known as a team player.

Even his decision to retire apparently was prompted by Berry's concern that injuries, which limited his 1967 play to six games, would affect his performance in the future.

"I don't think it would be right of me to try to continue playing when I don't feel I could give the team the kind of season it has a right to expect," the 35-year-old split end said Sunday.

McConnell Has Best Potter Coaching Mark

Clint McConnell, with his fine 19-2 mark this past season, has taken over as the coach with the best winning percentage in the history of East Liverpool High School basketball.

McConnell has posted a 36-8 mark for two seasons for a .818 percentage, better than the .812 mark recorded by Don Ogden in 1945-46. The most wins for any one Potter coach is 169, racked up by Merrill Hall in 10 seasons from 1947 through 1956. Hall also coached the Potter team that got the closest to the state championship, guiding his first team to the state finals.

There have been 19 coaches of East Liverpool High since 1909. The Potters have compiled a fine 830-452 mark in that time, for an excellent .648 percentage. The only two long-time rivals to hold an edge on the Potters are Martins Ferry, by 32-30, and Canton McKinley, by 24-12. In contrast, East Liverpool is 44-8 against Wellsville, 22-5 against Steubenville Central, 49-15 against Toronto, 33-11 against Bellaire, 22-8 against East Palestine, 26-10 against Lisbon, 68-29 against Steubenville, 23-10 against Warren Harding, 47-30 against Salem and 20-17 against Alliance.

F. Robinson Leads Chicago Over Royals

By The Associated Press

Flynn Robinson's last-minute heroics pushed the Chicago Bulls a step closer to a playoff berth, but his former Cincinnati mates didn't appreciate the move.

Robinson, who came to the Bulls from the Royals earlier in the season, flipped in a basket and a pair of free throws in the final minute, sending the Bulls to a 104-98 National Basketball Association victory over Cincinnati.

Chicago's magic number — a combination of Chicago wins or Seattle losses — for a Western Division playoff spot is now two over the fifth-place SuperSonics. The Bulls have seven games left, Seattle six.

Cincinnati, battling for the last playoff spot in the Eastern Division, dropped to fifth place, and trails Detroit by one game. Baltimore is only one percentage point behind the Royals in the torrid race.

Oscar Robertson kept the Royals in contention with 37 points, including 13 in the last quarter when the Royals got within four points with a minute remaining to play, after trailing 84-73.

But Robinson, who had 19 points, then came through with his key poinst. Barry Clemens added a bucket at the buzzer for the Bulls.

Bob Boozer also had 19 points and McCoy McLemore 18, in the Bulls' balanced scoring attack.

John Havlicek paced the Celtics over Seattle with 27 points. Boston took a 62-53 halftime lead but the Sonics bounced back and early in the final quarter went ahead at 85-94 on Rod Thorn's jumper.

But Bill Russell got Boston the lead again 30 seconds later and the Celtics never were headed.

Tom Meschery had 22 points for Seattle, which played without backcourt ace Walt Hazzard, sidelined with an infected lip.

Kentucky Colonels Climbing In ABA East

By The Associated Press

There go the Denver Rockets and here come the Kentucky Colonels.

Both teams won crucial American Basketball Association games Monday night. The Rockets defeated Dallas 119-105 and took a firmer grip on second place in the Western Division while the Colonels trounced Oakland 120-107 and climbed to within 1½ games of fourth-place New Jersey in the East.

No other games were scheduled.

Denver opened up a 35-22 lead over Dallas in the first period and pulled 1½ games ahead of the third-place Chaparrals and to within 2½ of division-leading New Orleans.

Kentucky's hot-shooting guards, Louie Dampier and Darel Carrier, scored 30 and 28 points, respectively, in the Colonels' triumph over Oakland. Carrier's total included two three-point baskets.

Jim Ligon added 21 points as the Colonels surged to a 10-point lead after one period and led the rest of the way. Andy Anderson had 24 for the Oaks, whose defeat dropped them into the Western Division cellar, a half-game behind Anaheim.

Mount Union Easily Wins OC Track

GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mount Union—led by Vaughn Davis' record hurl in the shot put—turned the Ohio Conference Indoor Track and Field Championships into a bout to easily clinch the title Saturday.

The Purple Raiders piled up 150 points, 66 more than runner-up Baldwin-Wallace, in two days of competition at Denison University's Alumni Memorial Field House.

Davis hurled the shot 53 feet, ¼ inches in the only record smashing event of the day. He bettered the old mark of 51-9¾ set in 1958 by a Capital University hurler.

Team totals: Mount Union 150; Baldwin-Wallace 84, Denison 55; Capital 45; Wooster 30; Ohio Wesleyan 30; Muskingum 19; Hiram 16; Wittenberg 15; Kenyon 12; Oberlin 7; Otterbein 1; Marietta 1.

Reark's Leads City Bowling Tournament

Reark's Cigars took the lead in the twenty-fifth annual City Association Bowling championship over the weekend with 3,045 pins.

Jimmie's Turf Bar, last year's champions, is currently in second place with 2,979 pins. Johnson Plumbing and Heating placed third with a 2,958 score followed by Cornell Trucking, 2,900; Gengerella Brothers with 2,892 and Friendly Lanes with 2,892.

Reark's also leads in the scratch division with 2,778 actual pins.

The tournament will be concluded next Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Cy Shaffer led Reark's Cigars with the high game thus far for the tournament with a 248. Other shooting high scores were John Mills, 236; Jack Rudibaugh 229; Jack Hague 225; George Simballa and Bob McGaffic 223; and J. Farnam 220.

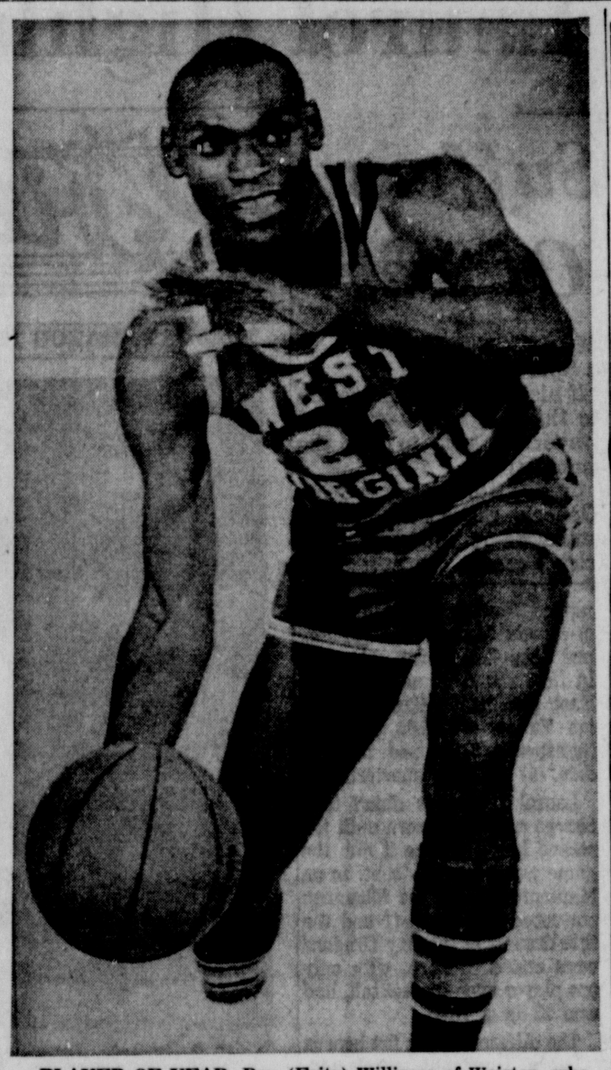
Rudibaugh also posted the high series with a 624 followed by Mills with a 613; Shaffer, 612; Hague 582; and Ralph Yanni 571.

Miami Dominates Ohio State Track

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Miami dominated competition in the Ohio State University Invitational Track Championships and wound up with five victories by the time the meet ended Saturday.

The Redskins' Ted Downing established a new record for the French Field House when he leaped an even seven feet in Saturday's high jump competition, bettering the old mark of 6-10 set by Cornelius Linsay of Cincinnati a year ago.

Miami finished with five championships while Ohio State claimed four. Murray State followed with three, Eastern Kentucky two and Illinois and Kentucky had one each.



PLAYER OF YEAR. Ron (Fritz) Williams of Weirton, who has starred for West Virginia University for the past three seasons, was named Southern Conference Player of the Year yesterday. He will lead WVU in the NIT starting Saturday. (UPI Telephoto)

Ashland Faces Cheyney In Small-College Opener

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Kentucky Wesleyan, ranked second nationally, is rated the favorite in the eight-team finale of the NCAA college division basketball tournament opening Wednesday with four games.

The Panthers, winners of the 1966 Championship, have a 25-3 record plus an 18-game winning streak. They play unranked American International of Springfield, Mass., in the first round. The Yellow Jackets are 21-4.

The game opens Wednesday's evening show at Roberts Municipal Stadium at 8 p.m., EST, followed by the Evansville Purple Aces, 20-7, facing Trinity's Tigers of San Antonio, 21-6. The Aces are ranked No. 8 and the Tigers No. 10.

In afternoon openers starting at 2:30 p.m., EST, the Cheyney State Wolves of Pennsylvania, 22-6, meet the Ashland Eagles of Ohio, 22-5, and the ninth-ranked Indiana State Sycamores, 21-7, clash with the Nevada Southern Rebels, 22-6.

The semifinals are Thursday night and the windup Friday night.

Cheyney, Kentucky Wesleyan and Evansville, titlist in 1959, 1960, 1964 and 1965, are the only schools in the field to have made the Evansville finals previously.

McMillian, Unseld Join Cage Boycott

NEW YORK (AP) — The number of college basketball stars who will pass up their chance to make the U.S. Olympic team has grown to five while Life Magazine quotes Lew Alcindor as "not wanting to get caught in the middle" of the growing Olympic boycott movement.

Westley Unseld, the two-time All-American from Louisville said Monday in Louisville, Ky. that he was "weary" from playing and that he would pass up the Olympic trials later this month in Albuquerque, N.M.

Concentrating on school work was the reason given by Alcindor and his UCLA teammates Mike Warren and Lucius Allen for not trying out for the team. But Life said the trio admitted their refusal was "implicit approval of the boycott."

J. D. Morgan, athletic director at UCLA, said the three players decision not to enter the trials "was entirely scholastic. They'd miss eight days of school they couldn't afford to miss," Morgan said.

Alcindor, Warren, Allen and Unseld are Negroes. The fifth player to say he would not try out for the Olympic team was Neal Walk of Florida who is white.

Dave Bing Headed For Scoring Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Bing of Detroit is fairly certain to become the National Basketball Association's scoring champion, statistics released by the league today showed.

With an average of 27.3 points per game, Bing is well ahead of runner-up Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles who has a 25.9 point average. Wilt Chamberlain is equally assured of winning the field-goal percentage title. His present percentage is .584.

Oscar Robertson is comfortably ahead in the free throw percentage race with an .867 mark.

Brundage Bucking Own Committee

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — A majority of the members of the International Olympics Committee's executive board has called for a meeting of the entire IOC to consider the South African problem, but IOC President Avery Brundage says no.

Any decision to call a meeting of the full IOC will have to be made by the board when it meets to discuss the withdrawal of more than 40 nations because of the IOC's decision to readmit South Africa to the Mexico games in October.

"It is possible for the president to call a full meeting, but he won't," said Brundage in Chicago. Brundage said he was surprised that the five members had called for the full meeting.

He said he had discussed calling an executive board meeting here on April 20. Those calling for the meeting of the full IOC say an executive board meeting makes little sense since only the full IOC can vote to change the decision to readmit South Africa.

ABA Holds Early Draft Session

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Although Commissioner George Mikan preferred to call it an "evaluation session," it was learned Monday that the American Basketball Association held a preliminary draft last weekend at Louisville.

Each of the 11 ABA clubs claimed negotiation rights to about four of the nation's top college players for purposes of trying to sign them to contracts as soon as their collegiate competition ends.

For some seniors this is not until the end of the NCAA, NIT and NAIA tournaments. Others have already finished this season's play.

"Technically, this is not our draft," Mikan said from ABA headquarters here. "We had an evaluation session of ballplayers. We exchanged notes, getting ourselves prepared for our annual draft, which will be April 27 in Los Angeles.

Ray Berry Announces Retirement

BALTIMORE (AP) — Raymond Berry, the National Football League's all-time leading pass receiver who announced his retirement from the Baltimore Colts over the weekend, was, despite his individual brilliance, known as a team player.

Even his decision to retire apparently was prompted by Berry's concern that injuries, which limited his 1967 play to six games, would affect his performance in the future.

"I don't think it would be right of me to try to continue playing when I don't feel I could give the team the kind of season it has a right to expect," the 35-year-old split end said Sunday.

Pabst Team Takes Lead In Bowling

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Pabst Blue Ribbon team of Detroit shot a 2,970 series Monday night to climb into second place in the regular team standings of the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

The Pabsts rolled games of 1,007, 988 and 975 as they narrowly missed overtaking first-place Associated Graphic Suppliers, also of Detroit, which shot 2,981 Sunday night.

Jay Dishong anchored the runners-up with 236-237-215—688.

The Rhode Island Bombers of Warwick moved into fourth place in the booster team standings with 2,704. Powell's Restaurant No. 1, Frankfort, Ky., continued to dominate the ABC's duffer division with 2,768.

The only change in the minors came as James Brickman of Lyndhurst, Ohio, claimed sixth place in regular all-events with a nine-game total of 1,887.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Just what can a woman do outside of painting her kitchen window sill every three months where she sets those little odds and ends used daily around the house?

The funny thing about this is that our kitchen is painted only once every three years and all but the window sill still looks beautiful.

MOTHER.

DEAR MOTHER: Many people have recommended using wax.

However, painters write in that wax cannot be painted over because the paint won't stick until the wax has been removed with a solvent.

The easiest answer I have is to take some plastic wrap, cut it to fit the window sill and spread it on with your hands. Then wring out a warm sponge that has been dipped in hot water and smooth away.

The plastic will keep water and rusty cans from ruining the paint on your sill and will not show.

I also find this wonderful under potted plants, expecially if the pots are the metal type that often rust.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I was making a double-knit sweater, the two threads kept twisting around each other. I would hold up the knitted garment to let the thread unwind.

My husband suggested that I place the balls of yarn on a Lazy Susan and turn the yarn instead. This is so much more satisfactory and much easier to do.

MRS. GLENN GRIMM.

Now who's dizzy? Let's let it be "Lady Susan" and not us.

It works, gals. And do we love Mrs. Grimm? I'll say we do . . .

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When making egg salad, I use my pastry blender for chopping those hard-boiled eggs.

The same blender also slices eggs nicely for salad toppings in case one doesn't have an egg slicer.

MRS. A. AVRAMAUT.

DEAR HELOISE: I use pipe cleaners to make "hangers" for my little girl's tiny doll clothes. They are so easy to shape and the doll clothes do not slip off at all.

MARGIE ANN.

DEAR HELOISE: When your sponge mop wax applicator gets old and tough, try tying a soft cloth around the sponge, secure it to the handle with rubber bands and wax away!

I think mine works even better than the sponge did when it was new.

MAEVE.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I save aluminum pans that sweet rolls come in and find them great when broiling our steaks and chops.

They can be cleaned easily, and if you don't happen to feel like cleaning them, just throw them out.

POLLY KENNEDY.

DEAR HELOISE: When I have to go downtown on rainy days to pick up a few odds and ends, I take a plastic bag with me in my coat pocket.

I put it over the package and the items inside stay nice and dry on my way home.

-:-

You're right. What makes me mad is that I didn't think of it m'self.

HELOISE.

Officers Elected By Midland Post Prom Committee

Others named were Al Lona, president of USA-CIO Local 1212, vice president; Mrs. Willie Burks, second vice president; Mrs. Norman Vanlier, secretary, and Mrs. Frank Cohara, treasurer.

Committee chairmen named were Mrs. Anthony Cerasi, dining room and decorations; Mrs. Joseph Vuynovich, kitchen; Mrs. Maurice Newman, entertainment; Mrs. Aaron Golding, program, and Mrs. David Williams, telephone.

Other chairmen will be appointed at a meeting tonight at 7:30 in the union building. Plans were made to hold tag days April 8-9 and a bakeless bake sale with money to be collected at the high school by the junior and senior class presidents with the help of Raymond Stowitzky, guidance counselor.

The committee made a plea for mothers and fathers to assist with this year's event following the annual prom in May.

Youngster Confuses Party On Telephone

But he lost his composure when one caller said: "Hello, this is Mr. McGregor."

"Mr. McGregor!" the boy cried. "Are you the Mr. McGregor who chased Peter Cottontail out of the garden?"

Mr. McGregor hung up without replying.

The knots in boards are the result of branches which extend from the center of the tree to the outside. After a branch has died and a cambium of living matter grows over the old piece of branch, a knot is formed.

White Candidate Favorite In Runoff For Congress

By JOHN HALL
Associated Press Writer

Secretary of State Heber Ladner predicted 125,000 votes in the 12 southwest Mississippi counties, including the cities of Jackson, Vicksburg, McComb and Natchez, of the 3rd congressional district. Polls open at 8 a.m. EST, and will close at 6 p.m. in all 309 precincts.

Evers, 45, predicting victory, made the strongest Negro bid in modern Mississippi history for a seat in Congress. On Feb. 27 he was first in a field of seven with 33,706 votes of 114,871 cast.

However, a white majority of 125,000 votes was expected to insure victory for Griffin.

Griffin headed five other white candidates with 28,927 votes two weeks ago, but has remained quiet most of the runoff campaign, stressing his 18 years as top Washington aide to Gov. John Bell Williams, who held the seat 21 years before his inauguration in mid-January.

Calling himself a conservative Democrat, Griffin strictly avoided Negro-baiting against Evers, though it was known some supporters strongly urged this course. He called frequently for "unity" and all-out participation of votes, never mentioning race.

Griffin spent more time since winning a runoff spot on planning his first days in Congress, along with staff appointments, than on campaigning.

Evers campaigned hard, using television to reach white voters, and appealing as the "candidate of all the people black and white," attacking Griffin as representative of the status quo.

Charging Williams had a do-nothing record in Congress while poverty, unemployment, poor education and bad housing plagued the area, Evers charged Griffin would be more of the same.

Opposition to extension of federal authority was a central theme of Griffin's pre-runoff campaign, but he also said he favored federal grants.

"I would favor welfare programs and social security," he said.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Just what can a woman do outside of painting her kitchen window sill every three months where she sets those little odds and ends used daily around the house?

The funny thing about this is that our kitchen is painted only once every three years and all but the window sill still looks beautiful.

MOTHER.

DEAR MOTHER: Many people have recommended using wax.

However, painters write in that wax cannot be painted over because the paint won't stick until the wax has been removed with a solvent.

The easiest answer I have is to take some plastic wrap, cut it to fit the window sill and spread it on with your hands. Then wring out a warm sponge that has been dipped in hot water and smooth away.

The plastic will keep water and rusty cans from ruining the paint on your sill and will not show.

I also find this wonderful under potted plants, expecially if the pots are the metal type that often rust.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I was making a double-knit sweater, the two threads kept twisting around each other. I would hold up the knitted garment to let the thread unwind.

My husband suggested that I place the balls of yarn on a Lazy Susan and turn the yarn instead. This is so much more satisfactory and much easier to do.

MRS. GLENN GRIMM.

Now who's dizzy? Let's let it be "Lady Susan" and not us.

It works, gals. And do we love Mrs. Grimm? I'll say we do . . .

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When making egg salad, I use my pastry blender for chopping those hard-boiled eggs.

The same blender also slices eggs nicely for salad toppings in case one doesn't have an egg slicer.

MRS. A. AVRAMAUT.

DEAR HELOISE: I use pipe cleaners to make "hangers" for my little girl's tiny doll clothes.

They are so easy to shape and the doll clothes do not slip off at all.

MARGIE ANN.

DEAR HELOISE: When your sponge mop wax applicator gets old and tough, try tying a soft cloth around the sponge, secure it to the handle with rubber bands and wax away!

I think mine works even better than the sponge did when it was new.

MAEVE.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I save aluminum pans that sweet rolls come in and find them great when broiling our steaks and chops.

They can be cleaned easily, and if you don't happen to feel like cleaning them, just throw them out.

POLLY KENNEDY.

DEAR HELOISE: When I have to go downtown on rainy days to pick up a few odds and ends, I take a plastic bag with me in my coat pocket.

I put it over the package and the items inside stay nice and dry on my way home.

-:-

You're right. What makes me mad is that I didn't think of it m'self.

HELOISE.

Officers Elected By Midland Post Prom Committee

Others named were Al Lona, president of USA-CIO Local 1212, vice president; Mrs. Willie Burks, second vice president; Mrs. Norman Vanlier, secretary, and Mrs. Frank Cohara, treasurer.

Committee chairmen named were Mrs. Anthony Cerasi, dining room and decorations; Mrs. Joseph Vuynovich, kitchen; Mrs. Maurice Newman, entertainment; Mrs. Aaron Golding, program, and Mrs. David Williams, telephone.

Other chairmen will be appointed at a meeting tonight at 7:30 in the union building. Plans were made to hold tag days April 8-9 and a bakeless bake sale with money to be collected at the high school by the junior and senior class presidents with the help of Raymond Stowitzky, guidance counselor.

The committee made a plea for mothers and fathers to assist with this year's event following the annual prom in May.

Youngster Confuses Party On Telephone

But he lost his composure when one caller said: "Hello, this is Mr. McGregor."

"Mr. McGregor!" the boy cried. "Are you the Mr. McGregor who chased Peter Cottontail out of the garden?"

Mr. McGregor hung up without replying.

The knots in boards are the result of branches which extend from the center of the tree to the outside. After a branch has died and a cambium of living matter grows over the old piece of branch, a knot is formed.

White Candidate Favorite In Runoff For Congress

By JOHN HALL
Associated Press Writer

Secretary of State Heber Ladner predicted 125,000 votes in the 12 southwest Mississippi counties, including the cities of Jackson, Vicksburg, McComb and Natchez, of the 3rd congressional district. Polls open at 8 a.m. EST, and will close at 6 p.m. in all 309 precincts.

Evers, 45, predicting victory, made the strongest Negro bid in modern Mississippi history for a seat in Congress. On Feb. 27 he was first in a field of seven with 33,706 votes of 114,871 cast.

However, a white majority of 125,000 votes was expected to insure victory for Griffin.

Griffin headed five other white candidates with 28,927 votes two weeks ago, but has remained quiet most of the runoff campaign, stressing his 18 years as top Washington aide to Gov. John Bell Williams, who held the seat 21 years before his inauguration in mid-January.

Calling himself a conservative Democrat, Griffin strictly avoided Negro-baiting against Evers, though it was known some supporters strongly urged this course. He called frequently for "unity" and all-out participation of votes, never mentioning race.

Griffin spent more time since winning a runoff spot on planning his first days in Congress, along with staff appointments, than on campaigning.

Evers campaigned hard, using television to reach white voters, and appealing as the "candidate of all the people black and white," attacking Griffin as representative of the status quo.

Charging Williams had a do-nothing record in Congress while poverty, unemployment, poor education and bad housing plagued the area, Evers charged Griffin would be more of the same.

Opposition to extension of federal authority was a central theme of Griffin's pre-runoff campaign, but he also said he favored federal grants.

"I would favor welfare programs and social security," he said.

Immunization Clinics Are Set At Wellsville

Immunization clinics for Wellsville pre - school children will be held March 28, April 25 and May 23 from 9 to 11 a.m. at MacDonald School.

The clinics will be under the direction of Dr. Jones, health commissioner, who will be assisted by Mrs. Jean Tipton, school and health nurse.

Junior Editors Quiz on STAMPS

QUESTION: How did postage stamps come to b used?

ANSWER: Stamps were used for other purposes before they were adopted for postage. Stamps on documents, etc., showed that taxes to governments had been paid. We show at upper left one of the tax stamps which England forced the American colonists to use. The colonists bitterly resented this—it was one of the causes of the Revolution. By the 1800's, postal services had improved and in 1840, Great Britain began issuing stamps which could be placed on letters to prove that postage had been paid. The first stamps, the "Penny Black" and another selling at two pence, were issued May 6, 1840. Several other countries began to use stamps shortly thereafter, but it was not until 1847 that the United States began to issue them.

By 1864 a stamp catalog had been published and the wonderful hobby of collecting stamps had begun. Stamps tell of many romantic places and occupations; you can find them anywhere; many are really valuable—these are only a few of the reasons why stamp collectors have so much fun.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, March 12, 72nd day of 1968. There are 294 days left in the year.

On this date in 1938, Germany invaded Austria in World War II.

On this date:

In 1664, New Jersey became a British colony as King Charles II made a land grant to his brother James, Duke of York.

In 1864, Gen. Ulysses S. Grant was made commander in chief of the Union Army in the Civil War.

In 1939, Pope Piux XII was elevated to the papacy.

In 1947, President Harry S. Truman established the so-called "Truman Doctrine" by proposing U.S. aid to Greece and Turkey.

Five years ago — Washington announced that the Soviet Union was carrying out its promise to withdraw troops from Cuba.

One year ago — Former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was mobbed by friendly Russians as he made a rare public appearance to vote.

When a recipe directs you to trim the excess fat from around chops or other cuts of meat, be sure to leave a thin layer to act as a protective coating so that during cooking the meat itself will not dry unduly. Some fat is desirable because it helps to keep meat from sticking and it adds flavor.
